Apparel for School Girls of Every Age

The days when school clothes were made for service alone—and looked it—are gone.

Not that the gay little togs the school girl of today wears don't prove just as practical and serviceable. They do. But they are also pretty enough and smart enough to make any small person want to wear them all the time.

And mothers know that you are more careful of a dress or coat you like.

Navy Serge Dresses $4.95 and $5.95

It's surely a girl's right to own a pretty blue serge frock for school. As if they knew that, this special shipment has arrived barely in time for the new fall term. Sizes 8 to 14 years.

"Let's Celebrate," said the Coats, "And Go on Sale at $9.95!"

And in spite of the fact that some of them carried price tags that read "$25"—they did. They number 50 in all—and some have fur collars—imagine it! They've sent out a hurry call to girls between 8 and 16 years. Other coats priced to $40.

School and Sweaters Go Hand in Hand

A sweater is something you can't overlook. It is marked in capital letters in the list of school needs.

And no wonder—it is warm and comfortable and always looks like new—it's bright looking, the correct thing to wear and it's always becoming. Not one—but several—says the school girl. $3.50 to $8.95.

Pullover Sweaters $2.95

They are the sweaters for outdoor sports! Wool and mohair—gayly striped—brilliant as autumn leaves—surely you'll have one. 6 to 16 years.

The Importance of a Middy Is at High Tide Now

Just mention "school" and watch the middy blouses sit up and take notice!

They know no school room is complete without a sprinkling of them. Some are jauntily called "Bob Evans" and others answer to "Jack Tar." Of wool flannel and wool twill, they may be green or scarlet or navy—sizes 6 to 18 years, $5.95 and $8.95.

Kilted Like a Scotchman Is the Smartly Middled Girl

Her skirt may be checked or a bright plaid fabric—but to be correct it must be tightly pleated. With straps, these kilts are worn with a blouse. With cotton bodices, they accompany middies. Priced $3.95 to $6.95.

Bloomers for the Active Girl Pair, 75c

Black sateen bloomers, made with elastic at waist and knee and also in drop-seat style. Sizes 2 to 14 years.

Gym Bloomers $1.98
