Madame Coates' SCHOOL OF MILLINERY

Which Begins Today at Meier & Frank's

If you were unable to attend the two free explanatory lectures given by Madame Coates, come to the Fifth Floor between 1:30 and 2:30 today, where Madame Coates will meet you and give you any desired information concerning her course in millinery. If you wish you may then enroll in class B, beginning its first lesson at 2:30 today.

The Course of Twelve Lessons Comprises Millinery, Bow Making and French Flower Making

The class will meet every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 2:30 P. M. The four weeks' course is complete in twelve lessons—it includes practical hat making, taking up all points in selection of models, making foundations, wiring, covering, trimming, bow making and French flower making.

Madame Coates has brought with her direct from Paris colored plates and illustrations of more than five hundred of the latest shapes. Each pupil in the millinery class may, without charge, copy for herself as many models from this collection as she pleases.

The complete course in millinery is $5.

New Fall Suits $45

What do you require in a suit? Individuality? Good lines? Excellence of workmanship? Beauty? These four qualities are emphasized in this group of new fall suits priced as a special Meier & Frank feature at $45. Some are strictly tailored for the women of that type, while others are richly embroidered and elaborately collared and cuffed with fur.

Colors Autumn Browns Navy Black

The Universal Electric Washing Machine

The Universal washes the work out of washing. Washes the dirt out of clothes. Does its work without working the user. Cleanses thoroughly.

The filmiest chiffons and georgettes and coarse, heavy blankets when placed in the smoothly finished perforated cylinder are gently lifted and dipped into the water and are revealed to you spotlessly laundered.

Come in today and let our experts point out to you the many exclusive features of the Universal.

Sale of "Used" Machines

We have a limited number of floor samples and slightly used washing machines—standard makes—to be closed out at great reductions. Guaranteed.
