

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR COMING YEAR'S NEEDS. RATE TO PORTLAND CUT

This Port Now on Same Basis as Others on Coast on Business From Hongkong.

Gunnies from India for next season's requirements in the west are to be moved by American ships from Calcutta to Hongkong and there be forwarded via American lines to the Pacific coast, the business being divided among the established carriers to the principal ports.

However, the elimination of the difference was brought about by the new arrangement for the rate to Portland to be $7, as a consequence of which bags were assigned via Tacoma and shipped by rail to Portland at less than the through freight to Portland.

Wheat Cargo for Europe.

With the departure of the Japanese steamer Tenpisan Maru last night, and the Norwegian steamer Torrey under orders to leave early this morning, eight of the grain fleet will remain in the river either loading cargo or awaiting orders to proceed to a loading berth.

WORKERS NEAR ARGONAUT MINERS, IF ALIVE, WILL BE RELEASED SHORTLY.

Veteran Operators Confident That Some of Imprisoned Crew Will Survive Ordeal.

JACKSON, Cal., Sept. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—"Forty-eight hours more and the miners will be released," was the cry in Jackson tonight when word came that the last barrier to the Argonaut mine will be broken through late Thursday night or early Friday morning.

Officials who have been dragging along tired, weakly with four hours each night for the last two weeks, were keenly active today and alert for the first struggle. Once more women began flocking to the adjoining Kennedy mine from which the rescue party is working.

Quaint Quebec is Calling

In all the American continent there is no place like the City of Quebec—no place so quaint, so reminiscent of old France and the eighteenth century.

That old French style of architecture, carefully preserved during the centuries and faithfully copied in the newer structures, lends a picturesque charm to the setting.

Let your trip back include a visit to quaint old Quebec. Call or write for information.
