The score was 6 to 4 and it was one of those blood-and-thunder games that make the customers rare up and whoop. Up to the last moment of the final inning the Seals were so dangerous that the

Every player on the Portland team is openly pulling for Vernon to win the flag. They couldn't have hustled harder yesterday if they had been after a pennant themselves.

The game flowed back and forth in a manner to wrach in a manner to wrack a nervous man's soul. First the Beavers opened with a run off Fred Coumbe, mainly because Fred decided to pitch to Sammy Hale with two out and a man on second. Hale cuffed out a double and in came a run. In the third the Seals got it back.

Agnew singled and Coumbe sacrifleed. Then Kelly twisted a wriggling scratch single through Brazill's paws and Agnew came home

Agnew singled and Coumbe sacrificed. Then Kelly twisted a wriggling scratch single through Brazill's paws and Agnew came home on it.

In the fourth the Seals went ahead by one run and Jimmy O'Connell was the gentleman responsible. Leverenz got three balls and no strikes on O'Connell trying to twist a curve ball around his neck. He had to groove the next three and on the third one O'Connell swung from his heels and planted it across the fence.

Beavers Tie Count.

Then in the fifth the Beavers tied that up and got one more besides, making it 3 to 2. Again their scores making it 3 to 2. Again their scores came with two out and again the rambunctious Mr. Hale caused the damage by socking a double down the third-base line after Brazili had bounced a triple off Pete Kilduff's right knee. That, incidentally, was as peculiar a triple as ever was knocked. Brazili belied a line bouncer that Kilduff raced after, but it hopped bad, caromed off his bouncer that Kilduff raced after, but it hopped bad, caromed off his knee and went to the right field fence, while Brazill raced to third.

With Hale up Coumbe concluded for the second time in a pinch to pitch to him. It was a terrible hunch, for Sammy pulled the second ball.

for Sammy pulled the second ball down the third base line as aforessaid, and Brazili tallied. Then Poole steady game. Score: slapped a line single to right and Hale came in Coumbe pitched one more inning, the sixth, but Jack Miller yanked him after Agnew had doubled with one gone and sent in Waish to pinch hit. Leverenz very niftliy struck him out, the final pitch being a teasing screwball that Walsh missed

Alten Replaces Coumbe. Alten replaced Coumbe in the box and in his first inning, the seventh, the Beavers lit into him for three more runs and the ball game, again with two out. Wolfer started it by gaining first on Ellison's error in dropping a thrown ball. Then McCann and Wolfer were both safe on a fielder's choice play on McCann's bunt. Braull! sacrificed them up a base and Poole forced Wolfer at the plate for the second out and it looked as if the works were in, but two lefthanded batters. High and Gressett, conked the ball for a single and a double and three runs crossed over. Those fighting Seals came right Wolfer started it by gaining first Those fighting Seals came right back. was safe on McCann's bad throw and then Willie Kamm busted a high fly into the left field bleachers for the 108th home run on the Portland lot this year. But the next three batters died on the spot.

In the ninth the Seals perished with their boots on. Kilduff flied to left, but Yelle walked. Jack Miller, the Seal manager, went in to pinch for Alten. He clipped one down the third-base line that was foul only by a foot, but on the next foul only by a foot, but on the next pitch grounded to Brazill and Yelle was forced. OD errors by McGaffigan and Manger gave the Tigers four runs in the early stages of the game. The Senators drove both Jolly and Gilder from the mound and tied the score in the eighth when pinch-hitter Rod Murphy doubled, scoring Mollwitz. Peters' wild throw of Chadbourne's infield hit and a double by "Red" Smith gave the Bengals the winning run in their half of the eighth.

The lowly tall-enders, the Beaver worms, rose up yesterday and smote the Seals. Stopped their winning streak of seven straight games, pulled them down within two and one-half games of the fighting Tigers, and made the near-champions look like ordinary ballplayers. Did it against left-handed pitching, too, with six left-handed batters in their own lineup, and in spite, of two Seal home runs, by O'Conneil and Wille Kamm.

Leverenz and to Geed.

Leverenz gave only seven hits, whiffed six of the Seals, and in the pinches was a man without mercy, and in the flour tailies off him, and an error figured in one of the three. But despite a boot or two the Beavers played their heads off behind him. They looked like a different ball club, so there must be something to this grudge talk after all.
