

REPUBLICANS SURE OF HOUSE CONTROL

Majority of More Than 50 Held Certainty.

MAINE VOTE CONSIDERED

Sullivan Forecast Made Subject to Qualification That Trend Is Against Republicans.

BY MARK SULLIVAN.

(Copyright, 1922, by New York Evening Post, Inc. Published by Arrangement.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12.—The republicans are able to estimate, based on the Maine election, that they should hold the next congress by a majority of comfortably more than 50.

This is subject to the qualification that the trend is against the republicans. The republicans themselves know that is apt to admit that everything that will happen between now and November is likely to hurt the republicans.

In 1918 the democrats and republicans in the lower house were almost even. The democrats had 209 and the republicans 212.

In comparing the Maine majority of 1918 with the Maine majority of 1922 it is necessary to double the former figure because of woman suffrage having been introduced.

The inference is that throughout the country as a whole the republicans this year carry all the districts they now hold except those in which their 1920 majorities were less than 18 per cent of the total vote.

France Liable to Fail. The results of the Maryland primary promise a marked and hopeful addition to the strength of the senate.

Bruce, when he is elected, will be as marked an addition to the intellectual strength of the senate as was Pepper of Pennsylvania some weeks ago.

MRS. HARDING IS BETTER (Continued From First Page.) bedside of the president's wife continued to praise her highly today for the pluck and fortitude she had shown.

The doctors, of course, deserve some credit, said Dr. Sawyer, "but Mrs. Harding to a large extent is responsible herself for the remarkable way she has pulled through a desperate illness.

Reviewing the case Dr. Sawyer said that when the six physicians in attendance were in consultation for the first time late Sunday they were in a "deep hole."

For a while, Dr. Sawyer said, draining of the right kidney was considered as a means of affording emergency relief, but this step was avoided as the inflammation of the left kidney subsided.
