CITY BUDGETS CUT BY COMMISSIONERS

Estimates Reduced Total of $247,554.45.

COUNCIL PRUNES ITEMS

Police, Fire, Health and Street-Cleaning Bureau Bear Brunt of Slashes.

Approximately $247,554.45 was pruned from the budgets of expenditures for some of the city departments yesterday by the city council sitting as the budget committee.

The amount was taken from four bureaus, fire, police, health and street cleaning, with a few of the items from the miscellaneous list.

When the council considers the work of cutting the budget under the "voluntary" method it will begin arbitrary cuts which it develops that the aggregate amount in the budget is still excessive.

Arbitrary Cuts to Come. When the council considers the work of cutting the budget under the "voluntary" method it will begin arbitrary cuts which it develops that the aggregate amount in the budget is still excessive.

Fire Bureau Suffers. The fire bureau budget was "shrunk" to the tune of $45,785 while the council eliminated $30,000 from the miscellaneous items.

The council decided that this item should be eliminated and should become absolutely necessary to hold a special election in 1933 the money must come from the emergency fund.

The health bureau was trimmed of $4795, which brought it down to $18,400 less than was allowed the bureau last year by the tax commission.

The council will continue consideration of the budget this morning at 9 o'clock.

ELKS HEAR DR. DYSART GREETINGS BROUGHT FROM GRAND EXALTED RULER.

Chaplain of Lodge Tells of New Headquarters Building, to Be Capital of Elksdom.

With fraternal greetings from J. Edward Maisters, grand exalted ruler of the Elks lodge, spoke before the Elks of Elksdom, Dr. Dysart, was accorded a careful hearing by Portland lodgemen.

Dr. Dysart told of the whole fraternity in close touch, even though the membership is widely scattered.

He urged that work for uplifting boys, Elks setting them a good example and fostering such movements as the Boy Scout work, very properly could be undertaken by members of the order everywhere since its value to the coming generation is great.

That Portland is not only a beautiful city but a hospitable one as well, was declared by the chaplain, who is a delegate attending the general convention of the Episcopal church, now in session here.

He said he would take great pleasure in boosting the plan of the Portland lodge to bring the general convention here in 1934.

There was a large attendance at last night's meeting to hear Dr. Dysart and his remarks were heartily applauded.

RADIO HAS OLSEN AGAIN

CRACK ORCHESTRA TO BE HEARD TONIGHT.

NEW PLAYERS ANGRY

Not with a flourish and a fanfare of trumpets, but with something a great deal better, George Olsen and his orchestra, now playing at the Portland hotel, will return to The Oregonian radio tonight, to give the first of a series of Friday night radio concerts of dance music which will be a regular feature of The Oregonian radio service during the winter.

The orchestra has been enlarged from six to eight pieces and is better than ever. Several new players and the best of the regular ones have been added.

Not only has the orchestra been greatly improved but it will introduce a new and exceedingly fine new number, most of which has not yet been heard in public.

Some of the numbers will be the popular old favorites, such as "Major Tom" and "The Merry Widow."

Other players of the orchestra are E. V. Kilfeather, piano; F. L. Egan, violin; G. Bertram, bass; and George Olsen, drums and direction.

The orchestra has been augmented by two new saxophone players, a flautist and a tenor. George Henkel plays the alto saxophone and also the flute, and Milton Neil plays the tenor saxophone and the clarinet.

William Arquette, a full-blooded Indian, is the new trombone player. Arquette was a former halfback on the Carlisle football team and played with Jim Thorpe.

Other players of the orchestra are E. V. Kilfeather, piano; F. L. Egan, violin; G. Bertram, bass; and George Olsen, drums and direction.

One number is a new arrangement of "Morris from Suite No. 1 of Grieg's "Peer Gynt." Another is a fox trot arrangement of Eugene Cowles' "Forgetion." Others are "As a Kid," "The Merry Widow," "The Merry Widow," "The Merry Widow," "The Merry Widow."
