Thomas, who was close in Murphy's rear, was unable to steer around the disabled mechine and crashed into it, splitting the frame of Murphy's racer. Thomas sustained an injured leg and physicians thought it might be broken. His mechanician re-ceived slight injuries. Eddie Hearne and his mechanician were slightly injured in the next accident of the race, shortly after Sarles' car went over the rail. The accident was due to the breaking of a front axie on Hearne's car, which swerved and turned over several times near the point where the second accident occurred.

Late tonight physicians reported that the three mechanicians injured that the three mechanicians injured severely had suffered fractured skulls and that there was slight chance for any of them to recover. BY L. H. GREGORY. Fourteen thousand roaring fans, powho packed the ball park yesterday to see the Beavers take two more from San Francisco, instead saw the Seals snap back into their chesty stride and win both ends of the double-header.

The scores were 5 to 4 in 10 in-nings of a corking pitchers' battle between Leverenz and Oliver Mitchell, and 6 to 2. The Seals made an anti-climax of the Beaver winning streak, but Portland won the series, four games to three.

Likewise it's a satisfaction to know that the home boys cost the Seals one game of the 2½-game lead they held over the Vernon Tigers a week ago. As the Tigers won twice from Sacramento yesterday, they now are only 1½ games behind.

What the Beavers set out to do in this series was to drag down the Seals within reaching distance for the Tigers. Well, they did it. The rest is up to Vernon. Not so worse, at all.

Kamm Breaks Up Day. Willie Kamm broke up the first game yesterday with a $100,000 home run in the 10th inning. In the second game the Portland infield went haywire and splattered after Sutherland had afforded easy chances to retire the side. In the first game Leverenz and Oliver Mitchell went into the tenth with the score at four-all after nine

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 17 .-Vernon won a double-header from Sacramento today, taking the first with the score at four-all after nine as spectacular innings as ever were played. Shoe-string catches, great throws that nipped runners, two sparkling double plays by the Beavers and a home run by Charley High in the sixth with Poole on base, tying up the score, had made it a memorable struggle.
