MINISTER'S SON IN JAIL

THEFT OF AUTO IN VANCOU-VER CHARGED.

Lad and Boy Friend Arrested in Ephrata, Wash., After Drive in Purloined Machine.

VANCOUVER, Wash, Sept. 28 .-(Special.)-"I am living up to the reputation of a minister's son," said Ben Holden, 19 years old, in the county jail today, after having been arrested for stealing an automobile. Holden said his father is a minister Holden said his father is a minister in Portland.

Holden, 19, and Joe Rice, who said he is 17, stoic the car from Nick Tower. They were captured at Ephrata, Wash., by the sheriff there, who held the prisoners until Barry Raguse, deputy sheriff, arrived.

The lads had sold every accessory on the car, including two spotlights, tires, inner tubes, tools, and similar articles. On the trip back, they told the deputy where they had sold told the deputy where they had sold the property, and it was nearly all

The boys said they neded money eat and sold the accessories on the car for that reason. They obtained free gasoline by stopping in sight of a gasoline filling station and borrowing a gallon from the and corrowing a gather they had run the purpose of dealer, explaining that they had run the purpose of dealer, explaining that they had run the Gresham out and would drive up and fill the tank. Having obtained the gasoline. hey would drive off.
