

MILITARY MOVES HALTED BY TURKS

Cessation in Chanak Is Ordered by Kemal.

IRREGULARS ARE CURBED

Suspension of Activities in Thrace Is Included in Instructions.

PEACE CONFERENCE IS SET

Allies Are Asked to Send Envoys to Mudania for Session Tomorrow.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press.)—Orders for a cessation of military movements in the Chanak region of Asiatic Turkey and for the suspension of the activities of the Turkish irregular forces in Thrace have been issued by Mustafa Kemal Pasha, the Turkish nationalist leader.

PARIS, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press.)—The general feeling in Paris tonight was that the danger point in the near east situation was past. The withdrawal of the Turks from Erekkouj, and as semi-officially reported, also from their positions at Chanak, was accepted as proof of the Ankara government's readiness to comply with the allied desire.

Credit Given Britain. Great Britain was given credit in French official quarters with having held a dignified and firm attitude, which greatly contributed to the solution of the Chanak problem.

LONDON, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press.)—With the virtual acceptance by Mustafa Kemal Pasha of a conference at Mudania Tuesday, or as soon as possible thereafter the whole near eastern situation is considered temporarily easier.

While the cabinet members appear to be much gratified at the happy conclusion for the moment of a difficulty which might have necessitated the use of force in the Chanak zone, there are other bridges to cross.

Military Men to Attend. There will be present military representatives of the three allied powers as well as of Greece and Turkey.

It has been pointed out that the very basis of this conference is respect of the neutral zone and before it begins the Turks will be expected to evacuate the Chanak area entirely.

Although the Turks have not yet withdrawn completely, they have evacuated the heights of Erekkouj and have desisted also from parading before the British wire entanglements.

If the Turks around Imdid begin such actions or attempt to enter the neutral zone at that point, there is likelihood that the British will raise the question before entering the conference.

Another question which may arise within the conference is the form of government or control to be established in Thrace pending the terms of the peace conference.

GIRL WEDS ANOTHER; MAN TRIES SUICIDE

BRUSH AVERTS DEATH IN LEAP FROM HIGH BRIDGE

H. M. Knox, Badly Hurt, Crawls 200 Feet and Spends Night Before Cries Bring Help.

Unrequited love and the marriage of his sweetheart to another man, say the police, led H. M. Knox, 26-year-old postal employe, to seek death by a leap from the Ford-street bridge some time Saturday night.

Knox, whose relatives live in Minneapolis, has been a resident of Portland for the last five years and for two years has made his home with St. J. and H. M. Knox, 200 Ford-street.

At about 5 o'clock Saturday night he left the St. J. and H. M. Knox place, telling anyone of his intention.

Investigation showed he had leaped from the north approach of the bridge and had fallen a distance of about 45 feet, landing in a clump of brush, which served to break his fall.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—American commerce and industry are rounding into the home stretch of the year with a seasonal spirit whose speed is checked only by the limits of transportation facilities.

Such are the headlines of the weekly resume of business conditions throughout the country, as gathered here by government departments and national trade organizations.

REAR-ADMIRAL CLARK DIES AT LONG BEACH

CAPTAIN OF OREGON DURING SPANISH WAR SUCCEUMS.

Battleship Taken on Long Trip From San Francisco to Fight Spanish Fleet.

LONG BEACH, Cal., Oct. 1.—Rear Admiral Charles E. Clark, who then as a captain, commanded the battleship Oregon on its famous voyage to San Francisco to Key West and later in the battle of Manila Bay, July 3, 1898, in the Spanish-American war, died at the home of his daughter here late today. He was 73 years old.

Clark was Rear Admiral Charles E. Clark, who guided the battleship Oregon in its race against time on a voyage equal to half way around the world without a single serious mishap to men or machinery.

This remarkable race occurred during the opening days of the Spanish-American war in 1898. Clark, then a captain, was 54 years old. He left San Francisco March 13, between him and his destination were the continent of South America, the gales and turbulent waters of the straits of Magellan, where a Spanish torpedo boat lurked and a fleet of formidable Spanish warships cruising in the Caribbean sea.

On the afternoon of the 26th day the Oregon steamed into Jupiter inlet on the coast of Florida, unharmed and ready for battle.

It is the world's record which probably will never be equalled—it probably never again will be attempted. The Panama canal removes the necessity. A modern battleship could be transferred from San Francisco to the Florida coast in less than 30 days.

An interesting anecdote is told of how Clark came to be placed in command of that difficult and dangerous voyage.

"Has he the stick-to-it-iveness to take him clear through?" asked a naval authority of one of Clark's friends who was urging his appointment to the Oregon.

"Did you ever see him play chess?" the friend replied.

"What has that to do with the case?"

HAINES MAN KILLED IN REPUTED RUM ROW

TOM PAINE, ALLEGED MOONSHINER, IS VICTIM.

George Williams Slays—Trouble Said to Have Been Caused by Excessive Drinking.

HAINES, Or., Oct. 1.—(Special.)—Tom Paine, alleged moonshiner and bootlegger, was shot and killed instantly in the foothills west of Haines by George Williams, about 6 o'clock tonight. The trouble, which resulted in the killing, is said to have been caused by over indulgence in the product of Paine's still.

The scene of the shooting was the Paine cabin, nine miles west of this city. Officers have gone after Williams.

The authorities have held a warrant for the arrest of Williams for several days, on the charge of entering a ranch home and stealing a rifle.

The dead man was about 50 years old and had no relatives here. The slayer is probably 40 years old and has a wife and five small children.

Should Williams not be in waiting for the officers and has taken to the hills his capture will not be effected tonight, it was declared by the authorities.

8.63 Per Cent of Population File Returns.

2 PERSONS PAY $714,138

Returns of Pair Are Declared to Be for Sums Ranging From $500,000 to $750,000.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 1.—Statistics of federal income taxes paid into the bureau of internal revenue for 1922 show that Oregon taxpayers paid $15,152,541 in personal and corporation incomes for that year, totaling $39,521,816, of which $193,652,281 was personal and $25,214,629 was corporation income.

Washington paid $24,414,571 in aggregate personal and corporation income of $455,174,616, of which $375,979,593 was personal and $79,194,723 was corporation income.

Idaho paid $2,464,536 on personal and corporation incomes amounting to $77,775,344, of which $57,291,629 was personal and $2,358,295 was corporation income.

OREGON PAYS 5.6 PER CENT

Oregon paid 5.6 per cent of all the personal income tax received by the government that year from all the states, Washington 1.44 per cent and Idaho .09 per cent.

In Oregon 8.63 per cent of the population filed tax returns, in Washington 10.91 per cent and in Idaho 9.29 per cent. The per capita income tax paid for Oregon was $34.55. Personal returns were filed by 61,640 individuals in Oregon, 148,087 in Washington and 55,755 in Idaho.

Two Got $500,000 to $750,000. Some idea of the larger incomes on which taxes were paid in the three Pacific north-west states may be had from the following:

Oregon—Two persons are reported as having paid taxes on incomes between $500,000 and $750,000, the total incomes of these two taxpayers being $1,158,991 and the total tax paid $714,138; $10,000 to $15,000 class, 194; $14,000 to $20,000 class, 176; $20,000 to $25,000 class, 130; $25,000 to $30,000 class, 79; $30,000 to $40,000 class, 25; $40,000 to $50,000 class, 3; and $50,000 to $100,000 class, 1.

TWO PAY $327,000 TAXES

Washington—The largest taxpayers were two persons in the $200,000 to $400,000 class, who paid taxes on the total income of $708,490, the tax amounting to $327,000. By classes other large taxpayers stood as follows: $100,000 to $150,000 class, 278; $150,000 to $200,000 class, 123; $200,000 to $250,000 class, 34; $250,000 to $300,000 class, 17; $300,000 to $400,000 class, 17; $400,000 to $500,000 class, 17; $500,000 to $750,000 class, 2; $750,000 to $1,000,000 class, 1.

Idaho—Except for three groupings in the classes ranging from $50,000 to $99,999, Idaho's largest taxpayers have five of them in all, paid taxes on incomes in the $35,000 to $40,000 class.

BIGGEST PAYERS HAVE LITTLE SAY

An interesting fact shown in these returns is that those who pay the bulk of the federal income taxes have the least to say in congress about the rate to be paid. Taking the state of Mississippi as an example, that state has a population almost two and one-half times the population of Oregon and one-third times the population of Washington.

Mississippi paid total personal and corporation taxes of $5,776,136 to Oregon's $15,152,541 and Washington's $24,414,571, yet Mississippi's voting power in the lower branch of congress is equal to the combined strength of Oregon and Washington, Mississippi having eight representatives Oregon three and Washington five.

As might be expected, all eight of Mississippi's representatives voted in the consideration of the present income tax law for the higher surtaxes which would fall mainly on taxpayers in other states. This is pointed out as proof of the charge frequently made during the discussion of that measure that the higher rates were forced by persons who paid little or no taxes.

LONGSHORE STRIKE PROPOSAL DEFEATED

I. W. W. FAIL IN EFFORTS TO FORCE WALKOUT.

215 Oppose and 200 Favor Quitting With Transport Workers' Union.

Efforts of a radical group among the Portland longshoremen to force another waterfront strike failed Saturday night when the union voted against the plan of walking out.

News of the action taken leaked out yesterday, although efforts were made to suppress the news.

When the vote was taken, 215 men voted against the strike and 200 cast their ballots for walking out with the members of the Marine Transport Workers' Industrial union, an I. W. W. organization.

It was declared by members of the longshoremen's union that the action taken is final, unless it should be desired to reconsider the vote at some regular meeting. Such steps, it was thought, might be undertaken by the radical element as a result of the closeness of the vote.

Efforts to bring about a waterfront strike have been under way on the part of the Marine Transport Workers' Industrial union, an organization composed of I. W. W. employed on the waterfront, for some time.

What will be the result of the failure of the longshoremen to put their stamp of approval upon the proposed strike and upon the plans of the Marine Transport Workers' Industrial union, it is not known.

WATCHMAN KILLS HOLDER OF PISTOL

Hall A. Matsson, 27, Is Shot Dead in Room.

VANE H. SEELY IS DETAINED

Shooting Occurs as Arrest Is About to Be Made.

OFFICER RELATES FEAR

O.-W. R. & N. Guard Declares Victim Had Taken Gun From Slicker Hanging on Wall.

Hall A. Matsson, 27, laborer living at the Fremont hotel, 45 Fremont street, was shot and killed instantly about 2 o'clock yesterday in his room by Vane H. Seely, 24, 1945 East Thirty-second street, North, a special watchman of the O.-W. R. & N. company.

Police learned from Seely that he was about to place Matsson under arrest when the latter drew a .38-caliber automatic pistol and pointed it at him.

Seely said that he fired two shots quickly at the other, but did not remember shooting more. His revolver, however, had been fired four times, and five bullet holes were found in Matsson's body.

Seely Is Arrested. Captain of Inspectors Harms, accompanied by Inspectors Gordon, Welch and Howell, arrested Seely and held him in jail pending outcome of an inquest.

His reports were non-committal and they refused either to criticize or to defend Seely's action, saying that the extent of his culpability, if there were any, should be determined by a jury after facts had been sifted.

Seely was a member of the regular police force until last January, when he lost his head with 29 other young officers. He joined the department with a clean record.

Passerby Aids Watchman. A watchman, employed by the United States Postal office, to keep automobiles from the Greaser cutoff, had trouble with Matsson about Wednesday of last week, Seely said, after ordering him and his automobile from the new pavement.

There ensued an argument, in which a passenger came to the watchman's assistance. The watchman was an elderly man, whose name is thought to be Brown. He will be located today through the construction company.

During the arguments that followed Seely was not present. He arrived about a passenger came to the front of the truck, who had knocked Matsson to the ground. That closed the incident for the day, but the next day Matsson again appeared on the cutoff, this time showing Brown a pearl-handled automatic pistol, that he carried in the front pocket of his parka, which he breeches. The watchman reported the revolver to Seely, who watched for Matsson.

Matsson Is Encountered. Seely said he encountered Matsson yesterday afternoon near the railroad spur that crosses the cutoff.

Seely asked him about the pistol, and requested that authority be had to carry one.

"I've got a deposit in the bank," Seely said Matsson replied, and that was the only answer he could get.

"Well, do you want to go to jail with me?" Seely asked, and Matsson went into the room and got the revolver, and then got out. Seely said he asked Matsson.

Matsson wished to go to his room. Seely drove him there in his car, both got out, Matsson going first. Seely prepared for trouble, he said, by ascertaining that his revolver was free from his clothing and followed up the stairs. In the room Matsson first went to a trunk, saying that he did not remember exactly where he had put the pistol.

He removed the tray and Seely stepped to examine the trunk. As he did so he said he saw Matsson take the pistol from a pocket of a slicker hanging on the wall and point it at him. Seely whirled and fired. He said Matsson did not fall until two shots had been fired and if he fired more than twice he did not remember it.

Seely Is Found in Room. A pair of motorcycle police found Seely in the room with his victim. When they entered he handed them his pistol, saying, "He tried to shoot me with this."
