

YANK-GIANT SERIES OPENS WEDNESDAY

Clubs Will Renew World's Championship Rivalry.

LEAGUE SEASONS CLOSE

Noteworthy Is Strength Shown in American and National Circuits by Western Clubs.

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—With New York's two clubs wending the diamond crown for the second year in succession—the first time in baseball history that one city has held such a monopoly on pennants—the American and National leagues today closed the 1932 campaign, among the most keenly fought and nerve-racking in the annals of the game. The Giants and Yankees will renew their world's series rivalry in the opening game Wednesday.

For the Yankees, victory in the series was a single game—and after a tense, brilliantly played battle with the St. Louis club throughout the season, the Yankees capped at the start by the absence of two slugging stars, Ruth and Gehrig, the Yankees forced ahead in the final analysis it was this superiority on the mound, plus ability to play at top notch form in critical moments that gave the Bluejays an edge over the hard-hitting, aggressive Browns.

Margie Single Game. The American league championship was clinched yesterday when the Yankees, after losing three straight to Cleveland and Boston, pulled to down the Sox in New York, however, lost today to Washington, while the Browns, who came down the stretch with a rush after apparently being eliminated in the last series with New York, closed with their third straight victory over Chicago. The results narrowed the percentage differences to six points, New York showing a record of 94 won and 69 lost, while the Browns won 81 and lost 81.

Handicapped earlier in the season by injuries that forced Heinie Groh from the lineup and a rap in center field that remained unfilled until the veteran Casey Stengel jumped into the breach, the champions overcame the collapse of their pitching staff by hard hitting, quick thinking and spectacular defense work in the final drive. The defection of Phil Douglas, who was banished from the game after offering to quit the team for a consideration and the failure of Neff and Barnes to maintain winning form, were partly offset by the acquisition of Scott and McQuillan.

Western Clubs Strong. Noteworthy this season was the strength shown in both leagues by the western clubs. Outside of the pennant winners, all of the first division berths in both circuits were occupied by western outfits and it was from these rivals that the two champions encountered their stiffest opposition throughout the season.

Cincinnati, with a fine pitching staff and a team of youngsters, jumped to second place in the national league today by taking a double-header from Pittsburgh. The Athletics forced the Braves to a tie for third place with the St. Louis Cardinals, who defeated Chicago today.

The Chicago Cubs, after figuring in the first division men of the season, dropped back toward the close to fifth place. Ty Cobb's aggressive Detroit club landed third in the American league by a margin of only one game over Cleveland. The Indians displaced the Chicago White Sox in the first division by an eleven-hour spurt.
