YOM KIPPUR OBSERVED

Jewish Population Commemorate Most Holy Day of Year.

In observance of Yom Kippur, the most holy day of the Jewish year, long services were held in Jewish synagogues yesterday, most Jewish business houses were closed and orthodox Jews gave the entire day over to prayer and fasting. Yom Kippur began Sunday night at 6 o'clock and ended last night at the same hour.

And trust in freedom's will.
For high as the valiance that bore him on.
So high shall our own hearts thrill,
And one shall ride unseen by our side—
Leader and comrade still!

Whose would serve as a true knight may.
Shall hold by the freeman's law—For bright as a blade upthrust in the sun,
As a blade that none may stay.
