VALUATION IS REDUCED!

PUGET SOUND BUREAU, Seattle, Wash, Get. 5.—There will be no reduction of taxes in Seattle next year, so far as the local tax-leving hodies are concerned. On the contrary, there is every reason to antichate a slight increase. To meet the requirements of the citys size had decided, as finally against 25.8 mills will be necessary, as against 25.8 mills will be necessary as against 25.8 mills will be necessary, as against 25.8 mills will be necess

School Levy 10 Mills.

Estimated port expenses, therefore will use all of the revenues except the sum of $117,488.30. Bond interest and redemption in 1923 calls for $475,124.54, making it apparently necessary to tax the district for the difference of $251,093.

The Scattle school board has already announced the 10-mill tax levy for the general fund. Requirements for bond interest and retirements, will bring the school total to nearly, if not quite, 14 mills.

County budget making is still in progress, and the levy for county purposes has not yet been definitely determined. In view of the lower assessed *aluation of taxable property, however, the budget makers are already practically certain that no reduction of the levy below the present 10-mill point will be possible. If this proves true it will be the first time in the last four years after that the county levy has not been reduced. Four years ago the be the first time in the last four years that the county levy has not been reduced. Four years ago the county tax rate was around 16 mills. Each year until this a reduction has been made.

Ten Days Granted in Which to Plead to Charge of Obtains ing Money Fraudulently.

L. C. Stringer, president of the Northern Development company, said to own a valuable enal mine in Alaska on the shore of Bering sea, was arraigned in circuit court Wednesday afternoon on a charge of obtaining $750 on false pretenses from J. W. Morris. He asked for ten days in which to plend and the request was granted by Judge Stapleton, who also ordered Stringer's ball reduced from $5000 to $2000.

The complaint on which Stringer was placed in Jail alleges that he falsely represented three shares of $100k in the company of which he is president to be worth $15,000 and that he gave there to the complaining witness as security for a lean of $750.

Stringer was also arraigned on a go free he would reform. He may be tried as an habitual criminal in Scaberg. He ploaded not gully to this. Ball in this case was reduced from $1000 to $500.

Mountain Controversy Is Opened Again.

OLYMPIA, Wash, Oct. 5.—(Specially—A fresh outbreak of an oid controversy is stirring official circles in Olympia. And it's all over the name of "the mountain."

painter.
Officially, so far as the office of the state superintendent of public instruction has been advised the name of the peak is still "Rainier." The geography gives it that name, though sometimes referring to it as "also known as Mount Tacoma." The National Geographic society continues to use "Rainier." officially and otherwise, Wherefore the mountain, for purposes of education, continues to be known as "Rainier."

Governor Hart, who calls Tacoma home, asserted he knows nothing of the change or of Director French's authority for it. There's nothing in the code about changing the mountain's title, the governor asserted.

If the map were an obscure one in some inside state office there wouldn't be much controversy. But it measures about 10 by 12 feet and on it is marked every highway.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special,)
—E. R. Johnson, surveyor from the district forest office in Portland, and E. H. Hail, examiner in the office of the Cascade national forest here, are making a survey for a read to extend 15 miles from High state of Washington which was specially painted to be displayed at the Punama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco, and which since that time has occupied a prominent place in the main corridor of the state capitol, it has always been "Mount Rainier." That name was officially wainted on the map when it was thought best to overcome many difficulties that are now encountered to have the entire charter revised, and until a few days ago it remained shus.

But now comes E. L. French, director of agriculture, and orders the map refouched in various particulars to correspond with further surveys and development, new irrigation districts indicated and other changes made. And smoon the changes ordered was the name of "the mountain."

THILAMOOK. Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—Owing to so many amendments being made to the city charter the last few years, it was thought best to overcome many difficulties that are now encountered to have the entire charter revised, and with that in view Mayor Moulton has appointed a charter committee composed of B. C. Lamb, A. F. Belta, George P. Winslow, Clartence Coe and David Kuratil.
