An interesting engagement announced yesterday at a tea was that of Miss Mabel Korell and Walter Shanks. The tea was given in honor of Miss Helen Haller, a bride-elect, by Miss Laura Korell and Miss Mabel Korell at the home of their sister, Mrs. Arch J. Tourtelotte.

Miss Korell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Korell. She is a graduate of the Portland academy. Mr. Shanks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Shanks of Buffalo, N. Y., and a graduate of the University of Oregon Law school. He is a Phi Alpha Delta fraternity man. He served overseas as a first lieutenant in the 33d division, where he took a special training at the University of Toulouse. They have chosen October 25 as the wedding date.

About 175 of the younger set called during the afternoon. At the tea table were Mrs. Scaggle P. Sealy, Mrs. Harold Temple, Mrs. Arthur Fender and Mrs. Kirk Reynolds. They were assisted by Miss Elise Kramer, Miss Grace Kern and Mrs. Allen P. Noyes. Receiving were Miss Madeline Stone, Miss Ida Blackford, Miss Elleen Yere, Mrs. Howard Young and Mrs. Maurice Barnes.

A group of the younger set will be entertained at this same hour, when Miss Elizabeth Richardson will compliment Miss Margaret Bronough a bride-elect. The affair will be given at the home of Miss Richardson's sister, Mrs. Jay Russell Coffey, 787 Glisan street.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Coman of Seattle, who have been spending several days here, at Hotel Portland, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Metzger honored Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walter (Ruth Sichel) with an Orpheum party Monday evening, later taking their guests to the Hotel Portland supper dance. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Lowengart, Mr. and Mrs. William Ehrman, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rothchild, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Frank, the guests of honor and the hosts.

Miss Helen Haller and her fiancé, Harvey Nicol Black, were honored guests at a dinner given Thursday evening at Hotel Portland by Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Malarky. Autumn blossoms formed the centerpiece. Covers were placed for the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Neagle Sealy, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Kern, Miss Suzanne Caswell and Herbert Malarky.

The marriage of Miss Mildred Miller and Fred Matlin will take place tonight at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Miller, parents of the bride-elect. Mrs. Gillis Kellaher will attend the bride-elect as matron of honor and Gillis Kellaher will be best man. Dr. Parker of the First Methodist church will officiate. Only relatives and very near friends will be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Meier and their daughters, Miss Jean Meier and Miss Elsie Meier, will return today from an extended trip in Europe and the orient.

Whats What
By Helen Decie

In a combination of green, black and red. They on the fawn would be stunning. You do not state the name of your material, but in all probability the broadcloth will combine well with whatever you have.

A suitable dress for the office means a simple, attractive and happily combined scheme of color. When one considers that day after day the "office force" must look at the same dress it behooves those of us who are "out" to dress in color-harmony as well as well-chosen lines.

In the September "What's What" appears a splendid example of what can be called a distinctive frock. See page 52, No. 2831. The old blue is a pleasant change after the dark blue usually worn, and a cross-stitch, which, by the way, is being used on all types and "conditions" of dresses, will be most attractive done in the red, copper-yellow, black and blue worsteds. A more attractive frock, I suggest.

Correct English: A Daily Quiz

IS IT correct to say, "Tim has a date with Jim tonight?"

What is amiss with the sentence, "France demanded Germany to leave the country?"

Should we say, "They loved each other" or "They loved one another?"

Correct the sentence, "His done real good."

Answers to Friday's Question.

To jettison, pronounced "jet-ti-shun," means "to throw overboard from a ship in danger of foundering."

Peripatetic, pronounced "per-i-pa-tet-ic," means "walking about." The peripatetic philosophers in Athens walked among their students in the Lyceum gymnasium.

Since demean means "to conduct oneself" (not necessarily to degrade oneself) it is correctly used in "He demeaned himself as a gentleman."

BOY SCOUT TESTS BEGUN

Fife, Drum and Bugle Band Holds Bi-Weekly Practice.

Tests and examinations of Boy Scouts have begun for the winter period. The first written examinations were given at the Lincoln and Jefferson high schools last Saturday morning. The first field tests will be held at the Rose City speedway today. For boys who are employed on Saturdays the tests will be given Monday night between 7 and 9 o'clock at Boy Scout headquarters, 250 1/2 Madison building, Third street.

At the same time the Boy Scouts fife, drum and bugle band is holding bi-weekly practice in the Atkinson school, Eleventh and Couch streets, on Wednesdays at 4:15 P. M. and Saturdays at 1:15 P. M.

Results compiled by James E. Brockway, scout executive, disclose that 201 examinations were successfully passed by scouts at the Wahtum lake training camp during the last summer.

THE great-grandfather of the present writer advised his only daughter in this wise: "Sever mind about being a perfect lady; be a perfect gentleman." What he meant was that the code of the Victorian era prescribed more noble standards for the "gentleman" than for the "lady" of the period.

Modern principles tend more and more to the gentlemanly rather than to the "lady-like" ideals and manners among boys. As George Meredith noted, "there are laws of honor and chivalrous codes, not written or formally taught, but intuitively understood by all, and invariably acted upon by the loyal and the true." If a boy can learn gentleness and consideration from his sister, she can acquire from him the noble manner which disdains the pettiness of gossip and tale-bearing, and which deems loyalty the first of social virtues.

MAIN TO BE EXTENDED

Gresham to Issue $20,000 Bonds for Water System.

Gresham expects to have as good fire protection service, if not better than that of any other town in the state next year. The home of the Multnomah county fair has included in this year's tax budget an item of $20,000 for the extension of about three miles of new water mains. The money will be raised by bond issue.

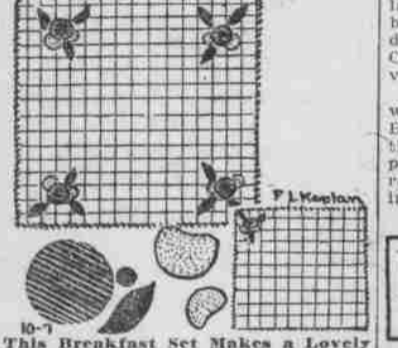

C. G. Schneider, recorder of Gresham, appeared before the tax supervising and conservation commission yesterday to explain the various items in the budget, which totals $8860 and includes $500 for the purchase of new fire hose.

The recorder told the commission that his town is contemplating the establishment of a sinking fund to retire outstanding bonds in the next ten years.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 6.—(Special.)—A girls' orchestra, organized for commercial playing on the campus, has entered competition with men's organizations for dance jobs. The co-eds already have "landed" three jobs.

Things You'll Love to Make

This Breakfast Set Makes a Lovely Gift.

IT IS not too soon to begin to make some of these inexpensive but serviceable and attractive breakfast sets for Christmas gifts. Use checked or cross-bar kitchen toweling for the foundation. Cut the applied forms out of the material. Pieces of left-over chambrays or linens.

The shapes shown in the lower left-hand corner of the page are sufficient for one corner if you cut three leaves. Apply the parts with black mercerized thread. If gay colors are used for the towels, and nicely blended, the effects are most pleasing. Cut small squares for napkins and larger ones for the doilies and centerpieces. Roll the edges and stitch with the black thread. FLORA.

Household Problems
by Lillian Tingle

TAMMILL, Or., Aug. 30.—Dear Miss Tingle: (1) Please give me a recipe for some simple French pastries. (2) Also use for rolls. (3) What makes Parker house rolls fall when taken from the oven?

Please publish the answers in The Morning Oregonian, as we take an other. Thanking you very much, E. M. L.

PLEASE describe carefully the kind of pastry you have in mind. "French pastry" is a general trade name for a very large variety of individual small cakes or tarts, made with a base of puff pastry, or short pastry, or cookie dough or cake mixture, or choux paste (as used for eclairs) or some combination of these, with an infinite variety of fillings, frostings and decorations made with various combinations of foundation custards, creams, icings, preserves or fresh or candied fruits and nuts.

If you thoroughly understand cake and pastry making with the usual "standard" types of fillings and frostings, the making of French pastries will call simply for a little taste, ingenuity and neat-handedness. If you lack this general skill and knowledge no "simple recipe" will help you much; and if you have the skill you don't need a recipe, a "suggestion" is all that is wanted.

2. Following is a recipe for choux paste as used for cream puffs, eclairs, algrettes or combination pastries of various kinds.

Paste for eclairs—One cup water, half cup butter, one cup flour, three very large or four small eggs. Put the butter into the water, bring to boiling point. Stir in the flour (all at once), cook and stir until it tends to leave the sides of the pan. Remove from the fire. Cool slightly (just enough to avoid cooking the eggs), then beat in the eggs, one at a time, without previous beating, beating very thoroughly between each egg. Place on a greased baking sheet, in "even finger lengths," using a pastry bag or a paper tube. Bake in a hot oven, moderating the heat towards the last and being careful not to take them from the oven until quite firm and no longer leathery in the cracks.

They should be well puffed and hollow. Split carefully with a sharp knife and fill with cooked "English cream" or cream-pie filling (previously given in this column), or with whipped cream sweetened and flavored to taste) or with a combination of cooked and whipped cream or with a Bavarian cream mixture, as preferred.

Cover with a plain white, pink or chocolate confectioner's icing or fondant frosting (made like ordinary fondant and melted to the de-

Problems of Dressmaking

Dear Madam Richey: I have a suit like inclosed sample which I wish to make over into a dress. The jacket is cut on straight lines somewhat like a box coat. Please select a pattern for me and suggest material and color to combine with it. I had thought of using October Elite pattern No. 4207-B, page 42. To you think it would be good? I am 26 years of age, brown eyes, dark brown hair, dark complexion, not much color, 5 feet 9 inches tall, 135 lbs. hip, weight 145 pounds. PANDORA.

PANDORA—With little color in your face why not tone up the pretty material you have with a brick shade of broadcloth and the color in the gay color as well? The model you have mentioned is splendid and I would have the buttons of your tan material with the link of the satchel braid. I would further suggest that you consider the sleeve which can carry the same line until the wrist is reached, at which point the wrist band or cuff of the broadcloth will control the gathered edge of the tan fabric. Finish the cuff with the same button scheme. Such a sleeve as last mentioned will be more comfortable under the coat and little warmer for street wear should you not wear an outer wrap.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 14—Dear Madam Richey: Could you help me make a dress over? I have a special-brown dress made as per sketch. I am 20 years old, 53 inches in height and quite above-weight and am a little plump. Also could you suggest a nice way to make a dress suitable for office wear? Can wear any color.

Thanking you for any information you can give, HELENE KLEMM.

Helene Klemm, Oregon City.—The style of your dress is splendid and there is really little to advise in the change. The fawn shade is lovely with the brown and perhaps you would like to remove the orange and replace with the color just mentioned. Your skirt, rather narrow for the present styles, could have an inset of the fawn, which should be side pleated in the narrow width. The panel should not be more than eight inches, which, with the two, would mean 16 inches added to your skirt besides the "play" afforded by
