CHICAGO PRICES DROP

Lack of Aggressive Purchasing Is Feature: Liverpool Spot and Futures Higher.

BY CHARLES D. MICHAELS. (By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) CHICAGO, Oct. 6—An overbought udition was disclosed in the grain CHICAGO, Oct. 6—An overbought condition was disclosed in the grain a markets when local and commission houses tried to accept profits. While a Liverpool apot wheat and futures were algher and the political news was of a more warlike character, local prices declined readily. Lack of aggressive buying was the feature. Wheat closed 4 d fac lines readily. Lack of aggressive buying fewer, corn off 4 d fac and 7 s fat fac, while oats finished 4 d fac higher. Opening prices on wheat here were as much as ic higher, December loading. Further early buying of December and selling of May was in evidence, narrowing the difference to 15c at one time. The finish, however, found the nearby delivery 2c under the May, compared with 15c the previous day.

Scarity of spot wheat abroad continues Liverpool was up 203c, while futures were a d fac the previous day.

In the Canadian northwest had a depressing effect on Winniper. That finished the to 5c lower although exporters were good buyers. Some rain was reported during the day in Illinois and lows. That will relieve the droughty condition. Export demand was slow, except from aborts. No. 2 red winter on track sold at 10c over December, gaining 1/2 for the day.

Corn showed a heavy undertone from the start. At no lime were prices above the day.
