

TURK MUST YIELD, PREMIER ASSERTS

No Temporing on Straits, Says Lloyd George.

KEMAL TO BE CONVINCED

Prime Minister Holds British Policy Imperative to Keep War From Entering Europe.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—The government tonight issued a report on the conference which the labor deputation had with Premier Lloyd George September 21, hitherto kept secret.

Mr. Lloyd George pointed out that refusal to refer the matter to the league of nations came from other nations, not England. Asked whether freedom of the straits meant forfeitures in the hands of some international body, the premier replied that that would be for the league to decide.

The prime minister said all he was now doing was to warn the Turks and the Greeks alike in regard to the neutral zones which the British were holding.

His final remark to the deputation was: "The one chance of stopping the war is for Kemal to know that we are not going to be turned out of the straits."

They still had at work tonight trying to reconcile all the tangled skeins of evidence which Schneider's story—or to batter him down to further admission which would make his story more plausible.

Girl Supports Part of Story. A part of Schneider's story—as much as she could have been expected to know—was corroborated by Pearl Bahmer.

On the night of September 14, she said, she was out with Schneider, remaining until about 9 o'clock.

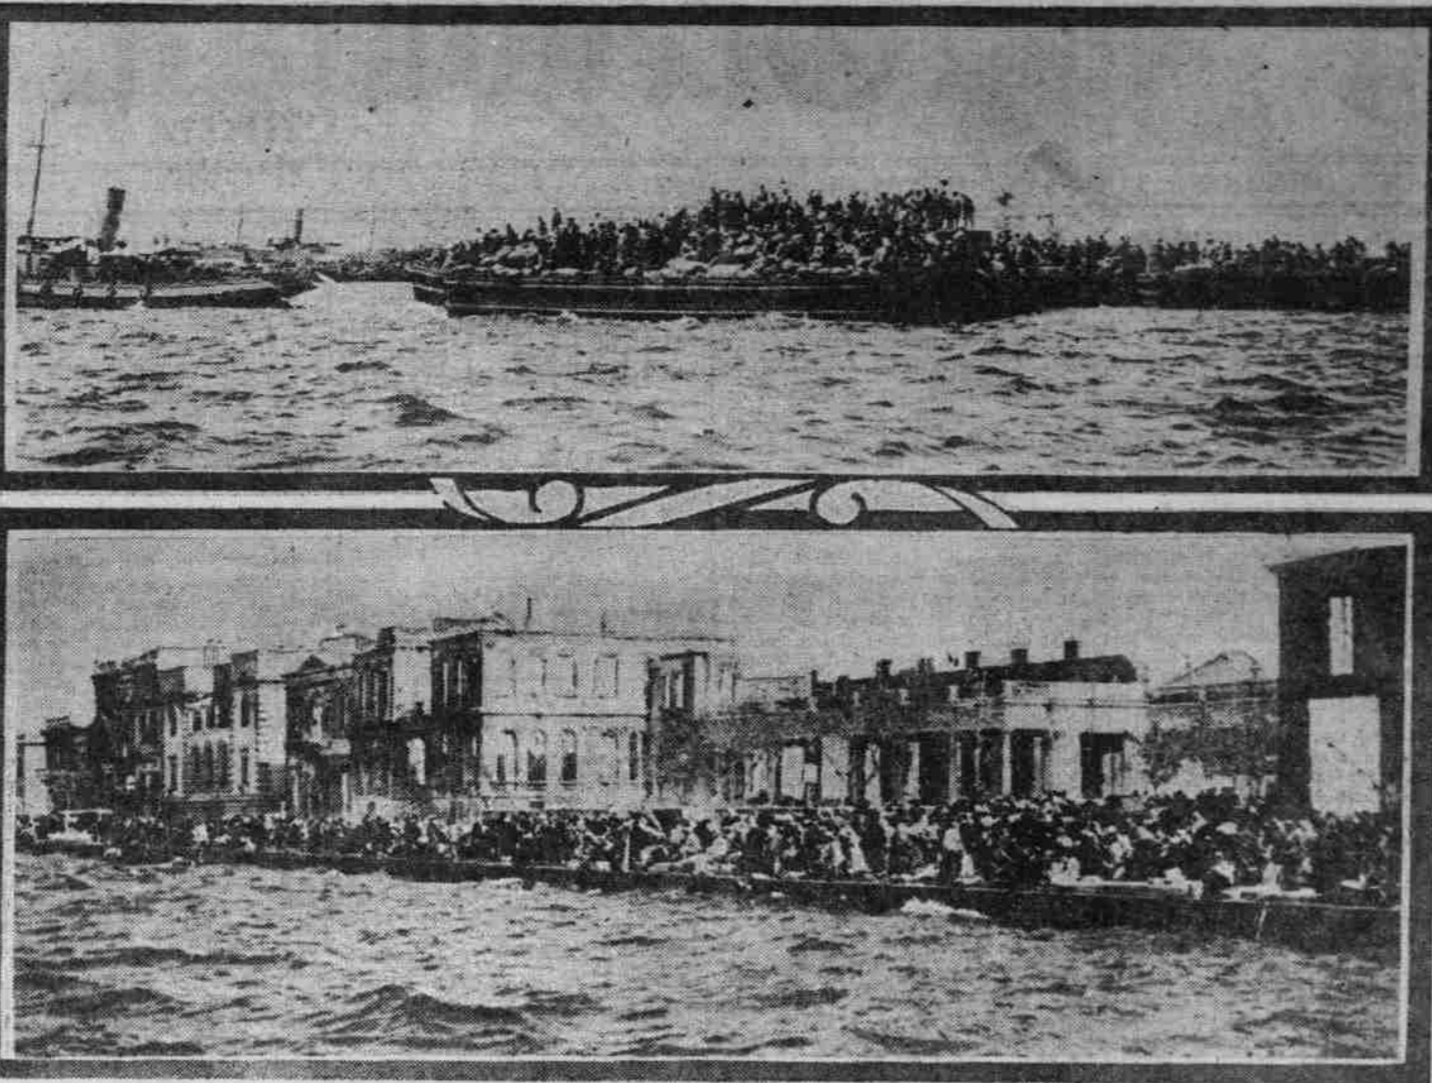

Mother of Youths Prostrate. Pearl said she did not know whether Mrs. Schneider referred to the murder trial or a divorce suit pending.

PHOTOGRAPHS SHOW HORRORS OF TURKISH OCCUPATION OF SMYRNA.

Above—Turks dragging Christians back to Smyrna. When the city was doomed by fire thousands of Christian fugitives from the Turkish conquerors took refuge on barges in the harbor. This near east relief picture shows them being towed back by a Turkish tug to the quay, to separate the men from the women for deportation to the interior. Below—Smyrna's wall of humanity. A portion of the 300,000 persons caught by the near east relief camera, who fled to the waterfront to escape death by burning in the destruction of the city. They were a human wall two miles long—the living city behind and the Aegean sea before them. Many, crased by the awful nightmare, jumped into the sea and were drowned, but others managed to reach the refugee ships anchored off shore.

that Schneider said Pearl and Bahmer walked toward the Phillips farm.

Histake Made, He Says. Suddenly, he said, they saw a couple beneath the crabapple tree and Hayes whipped out his pistol and began to fire, exclaiming, "There they are—I'll fix them."

After the struggles of the past beneath the tree were stilled, he said he stole forward, struck a match and cried to Hayes: "My God, man, you've made a terrible mistake."

Pearl's version to reporters today was somewhat different. "Raymond saw me Saturday and insisted that we take a walk," she said.

Note From Wife Read. "Why don't you attend to your own business?" he replied.

The girl said Schneider had appeared worried ever since the shooting and on two occasions had asked her to go to Perth Amboy with him.

Mother of Youths Prostrate. Pearl said she did not know whether Mrs. Schneider referred to the murder trial or a divorce suit pending.
