WASHINGTON. D. C., Cct. 19.—
(By the Associated Press.)—Although President Harding is making no plans to take a personal part in the political campaign, virtually every member of his cabinet, according to statements today will take the stump between now and election day to ask for the return of a republican senate and house.

Extensive trips are in prospect for several members of the president's official family, whose speechmaking tours will cover nearly every section of the country. The effort, it appears, however, will center in the cast, New England and the middle west, but some speeches

The president's friends may be seen no necessity for going personally to the country for an indorgement of the republican administration. His views are represented as coinciding with those of his party managers, who are average to the issuing of party appeals from the White House.

RADIO MUSIC IS VARIED

Three different kinds of music and a short speech are on the radio programme which will be broadast from The Oregonian tower to night between $ and 9 o'clock. This programme will be the first since The Oregonian discontinued the two-hour concerts Wednesday nights and turned the second hour back to and turned the second hour back to the radio association to be used either as a listening hour of by some other broadcasting station.

Of exceptional interest will be the numbers by the flute trio, the first ever attempted by radio in Portland. The trio is composed of Miss Margaret Laughton, Robert E. Miliard and John Abbett. Miss Laughton has played the flute for radio a number of times, and it was she who played the flute ebligate for Jeannette Boyer Zanten's solos last Wednesday, which were the finest radio music ever broadcast in Portland, according to reports received after the concert. Robert E. Millard is the first flutist in the Portland symphony orchestra. John Abbett is another fine player and has never played for The Oregonian before. The trio will play two numbers, with, perhaps, one or two solos besides.

Jerry Ryan, barttone, will sing three of Leo Feist's best popular song hits. Mr. Ryan is a vaudeville singer and has been heard over the radio twice before. He will be assisted at the plano by Miss Elleen Sprague and his selections are "Coal Black Mammy," "Why Should I Cry Over You" and "All for the Love of Wike."

Several violin solos will be played by Miss Pauline Wolfe, a young artist who has participated in a brilliant manner in several former concerts. One of her numbers will

Compare Cars by standardized tests

As Experts Do

There are 12 vital tests used by automotive engineers in judging different makes of cars. Their method is now available to the public.

Three years ago we gave to the public the accepted standards of comparison used by the leading automotive engineers. Previously their method had been a trade secret because it was so technical.

We simplified the method yet retained every fundamental element of comparison: We introduced then the first Marmon Demonstration week. We prepared a score-card which made it possible for anyone to compare several cars and know exactly what each could do.

So welcome and so successful was this plan that we have continued it and now announce the Third Annual Marmon Demonstration Week, October 9 to 14.

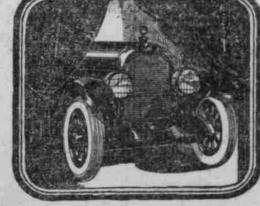

We invite every car owner to take advantage of this great educational opportunity. Marmons will be available for all who wish to conduct comparisons. The score-card shows how to put cars through the 12 vital tests of performance and how to score and compare.

This invitation is open to all, whether or not in the market for a new car. Those who accept will not be importuned to buy. Remember, we have advocated higher standards of comparison for three years and we hold this Demonstration Week each year in the cause of education, primarily. We are looking ahead-we know that the more people who can compare cars wisely will eventually join the contented group of Marmon owners.

Sodonot hesitate, please, to accept this invitation. Call or telephone. A Marmon will be placed at your disposal.
