Protects the Preferred Stock of the PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT CO.

The Company owns property in the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, including electric power plants, gas plants, water works, high voltage transmission lines and many miles of electric distributing pole lines.

The cities and towns in which this property is located are in prosperous and growing agricultural and horticultural districts, with the exception of Astoria, a wealthy fishing and shipping center. To keep pace with the steady growth of these communities, the Company has been continuously expanding, acquiring new property in order to better satisfy the demands made upon it.
