Dodger Is Circulated. Another printed dodger was cir-culated yesterday that made known a "general strike on Portland water-terfront" and "boycott on all ves-sels leaving Portland, Or. Don't unload. Keep away from Portland," and there followed 13 demands of the I. W. W. longshoremen, the 12th on the list being a provise that sall-ors working overtime on cargo be paid longshoremen's overtime pay Six additional demands were on behalf of dock and terminal work. The demands of the I. W. W. are said not to have been formally presaid not to have been formally pre-sented to the employers, but were prepared and signed with a rubber stamp of the I. W. W. and thrown through the transom at the neutral hall, operated by the employers. In spite of a strike being called of longshoremen at Vancouver, Wash, some of the men-refusing to go out, the steamer J. C. Kirkpat-rick worked cargo at the DuBols mill and at noon yesterday shifted strikers to draw saliors from coast-ing vessels, but reports to the em-ployers are that among members of the sallors' union little support is being accorded the movement.
