

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

City Editor... Main 7070, 500-85
Sunday Editor... Main 7070, 500-85
Advertising Dept... Main 7070, 500-85
Superintendent of Bldg... Main 7070, 500-85

AMUSEMENTS.
BAKER—(Eleventh and Morrison)—Ivy...
MIP-ODROM—(Broadway at Yamhill)...

FATHER-SON DAY TO BE OBSERVED.
It will be father and son day at the luncheon of the Progressive Business Men's club at the Benson hotel today noon.

LOTTERY CASES TO BE CALLED.
Cases of Chinese arrested in morals squad raids, on north end lottery...

CITY COMMISSIONER APPEALS FOR 3-MILL LEVY.
A. L. Barbur, commissioner of public works of Portland, yesterday issued an appeal to the voters, asking them to vote the 3-mill levy next Tuesday and explaining its vital significance to the city.

MARZAMAS PLAN WEEK-END TRIP.
Portland members of the Marzamas will make the trip to Aschcroft, seven miles over the mountain roads from the Bull Run station, Saturday and Sunday of this week.

EXPOSITION BILLS INDORSED.
A recommendation that the city club endorse both the state and city exposition measures is contained in the report of a special committee appointed to make an investigation of the matter by the club.

MANT MEETINGS POSTPONED.
Practically all community gatherings, either for social or business purposes, in the city and suburban districts have been postponed until after the election next Tuesday.

UNIVERSITY LUNCHEON PLANNED.
University of Oregon day will be celebrated tomorrow by the City club at its noon luncheon meeting to be held at the Benson. All alumni are invited to attend.

HUMAN STUDIES POPULAR.
The November issue of Good Housekeeping carries another of Anne Shannon Monroe's intimate human studies, under the title, "The Hearthhold of the Household."

CLUB MEETINGS POSTPONED.
The regular sessions of the Sellwood board of trade and community club has been postponed from November 7 to November 14.

SCHOOL BILL TO BE DEBATED.
A joint discussion of the compulsory education bill between George B. Cellars and Richard W. Montague will feature the church training night at the First Methodist Episcopal church this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

CLUBHOUSE IS IMPROVED.
A new furnace and heating apparatus are being installed with other improvements in the clubhouse owned by the Harmony club near Kendall avenue this week.

THE AMERICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF DETROIT, Michigan, has merged and reinsured the American Life Insurance company of Des Moines, Iowa, and assumed all liabilities of the insurance contracts. Combined assets now nearly $7,000,000.

CARLINE REPAIRS COMPLETED.
Repairs on the Rose City Park line of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company have been completed, and effective Sunday the cars will run over their regular route, which is via the Burnside, Fifth, Washington and Second street loop.

BURGLARS HUNT.
Daily papers are full of reports of robberies and hold-ups. Protect yourself against such losses with a burglary, theft and hold-up insurance policy. For particulars phone Atwater 2391, let us tell you about it. W. R. McDonald company. All kinds of insurance.—Adv.

FASHION GARAGE ROBBED.
A prowler stole $21 in small change from the Fashion Garage, 192 Tenth street, Tuesday night while the night man was engaged in washing a car at the back of the garage. The loss was discovered when the cash register was near Kendall avenue.—Adv.

HARVEST FESTIVAL OF PORTLAND Social Turn Verein, 255 18th st., Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 3, 4 and 5. Admission 10c. Dance music by Berenson's Melody Friends.—Adv.

BETTER ARTIFICIAL DENTURES ARE made by the plate specialist, Dr. E. C. ROSSBERG, 211 Journal bldg.—Adv.

HEALTHY EYES, NO GLASSES.—Good Sight 1821, 306 Alisky bldg.—Adv.

TRY ROMAN MEAL, HEALTHY BREAD.—Your grocer. Baked by Leo Caban Bakery company, 425 1/2 Commercial.—Adv.

DR. DATTON, GIBBER, Sweetland bldg.—Adv.

ALUMNI MEETS TODAY.—Alumni of the Oregon Agricultural college will meet today in room A of the public library. Arrangements will be made at this time for an automobile caravan to Corvallis on home-coming week end, November 18, when the alumni will attend the O. A. C. University of Oregon game. Discussion of attendance at the game with Multnomah club Saturday will be made and also special plans for the O. A. C. game with Washington State college on November 25 in Portland will be under discussion. The matter of sponsoring the vacation dance which is to be given by the students during Thanksgiving vacation will be considered. All former students of Oregon Agricultural college are urged to attend the meeting.

LETTER CASES TO BE CALLED.—Cases of Chinese arrested in morals squad raids, on north end lottery joint Tuesday night will come up in municipal court before Judge Ekwall this morning. At 7 1/2 North fourth street 20 orientals were dragged from behind barred doors.

CITY COMMISSIONER APPEALS FOR 3-MILL LEVY.
A. L. Barbur, commissioner of public works of Portland, yesterday issued an appeal to the voters, asking them to vote the 3-mill levy next Tuesday and explaining its vital significance to the city. Unless the levy, which carries no additional tax above that now in force, is voted, a 23 per cent cut in the work of his and all other departments will be necessary, and the various bureaus will be greatly handicapped, Mr. Barbur said.

and taken to jail. Lottery paraphernalia which under a rapdior, Chong Hing, proprietor of a place at 211 Flanders street, was arrested on a charge of having paraphernalia in his possession. Ah Ming, 26 1/2 Taylor street, was taken on the same charge and Andrew Erge for visiting the place. Ah Suey was taken from 27 1/2 Taylor street when the officers found a complete outfit in his possession.

ORIGON WRITERS WILL MEET.—The regular November meeting of the Oregon Writers' league will take place Saturday night at the Central library "story hour" room. The business meeting will begin at 7:30, after which Mrs. David S. Harvey will read the writers of the day and work of her edited brother, Joseph Andrew Gallahad, whose death last spring has been regretted by literary persons everywhere. His poetry was beginning to receive acclaim from the highest sources, one entire number of Poetry Magazine being devoted to it. Other matters of interest to writers will be discussed. All writers—and those especially interested—are invited.

STATUTORY OFFENSE CHARGED.—Ralph Dickinson, a buckaroo, 23 years old, was arrested in the lobby of the central police station after midnight Tuesday on a statutory charge involving a 14-year-old girl. A preliminary hearing in the case will be held in municipal court today. The girl is in the custody of the women's division. The pair were taken to the station at 11 o'clock to inquire for a third number of their party, believed lost. Dickinson's boasts of his relations with the majority of the city's women some hours before, brought police attention to the case.

FEDERAL JURY DISCHARGED.—After having heard scores of criminal and civil cases, the trial jury in the local United States court was discharged yesterday by Federal Judge Bean. The outgoing jurors had served since July. A new panel for the November term of court is scheduled to be drawn Monday, but because of the fact that Tuesday is election day it is thought that the talesmen will not be ordered to report until later in the week. An exceptionally heavy docket faces the court, the majority of the cases growing out of violations of the prohibition law.

CHURCH ROBBED OF $7.—Marauders who ransacked the Atkinson Memorial Congregational church at Twenty-ninth and East Everett streets some time during the last week broke open two small safes and made off with $7 in small change. The loss was reported to the police yesterday by Rev. E. E. Flint, who said that articles several times the value of the money stolen were left untouched.

ST. JOHN'S CLUB HAS PARTY.—Members of the St. Johns community club gathered for a social entertainment programme Tuesday night at St. John's church. The evening was reigning throughout the programme. Games and stunts provided the feature, and the programme and atmosphere to the affair. Many were present.

TOOZE SPEAKS TONIGHT.—Walter Tooze, chairman of the republican state central committee, will address the Woodstock "Oleot-for-Governor" club at its meeting tonight at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. E. Steele, 409 Forty-second street Southeast. Mrs. Steele is chairman of the club.

LABORER BRUISED BY FALL.—A 20-foot fall from piling resulted in severe bruises which sent L. G. Rostrum, a laborer, 29 years old, to the Good Samaritan hospital yesterday afternoon. He was at work for the Interstate Contracting company at Linton at the time. He lives at 910 Grand avenue, North.

MONTAVILLA BAPTISTS TO MEET.—The regular monthly business meeting of the congregation of the Montavilla Baptist church will convene in the church building tonight at 8 o'clock. Several important items of business will come up for the consideration of the members and a big attendance is anticipated.

PROGRESS CLUB WILL MEET.—The Progress club will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles E. Branin, 124 East Main street. The period will be devoted to a discussion of papers on the government of Canada and to book reviews of Hutchinson's "His Freedom."

IMPROVEMENTS CLUB TO MEET.—Members of the Woodstock improvement club will hold their regular monthly session Monday night. An entertainment will follow the business session. Committees will report on several important civic improvement projects.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI MEETS.—The Portland alumni chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi will meet at luncheon today at the Oregon Grill at noon. F. Miron Warrington will tell of his experiences in Mexico. All members in this city are welcome.

HEALTH FOR DISCOURAGED PATIENTS.
Is not far off if placed under our care. Careful examination, physiological treatment and attention to the whole person. The Moore Sanitarium, 828 Hawthorne at Twenty-Seventh.

CIVIL SERVICE MEETING TONIGHT.—The municipal civil service association, composed of all city employees who are under the civil service system, will meet tonight in the city council chambers. The committee in charge of the proposed pension system for city employees will make its report, which explains that this measure was not placed on the ballot because of the fear that it might jeopardize the three-mill tax measure. City Commissioner Dier will address the assembly urging all city employees to work in behalf of the three-mill measure in order that city service will not be curtailed.

CORNELL ALUMNI TO LUNCHEON.—Luncheons for the Cornell alumni in Portland are to be held the first Friday of each month at the University club, beginning November 3, and a table for Cornell members, irrespective of membership in the University club, will be laid every other Friday throughout the month at the same place, according to the announcement of the secretary for the local Cornellians, Roderick D. Grant. The luncheon developments from the university will be reported through the luncheon committee and special features will be obtained for each month.

CREDIT DUE MR. CROW.—Carl C. Crow, who monthly summarizes the situation for lumbermen, is not in the best of humor. He believes in giving "credits" to whom credit is due, and feels that he was injured when a railroad clerk was credited with having written a poem, "In 1873," which was the product of Mr. Crow. The Oregonian unwittingly made the error yesterday morning, of his and all other departments, when the lumbermen were having almost as hard a time as they are now," said Crow last night.

SEARCH FOR BANKER ASKED.—Portland police were asked yesterday to aid in a search for David H. Anderson, 28, missing cashier of the Granite Falls State bank, Granite Falls, Mont. Books of the bank have been examined and found in good condition. Lapse of memory is given by Anderson's parents as a probable reason for his disappearance. He left his home Saturday in a small roadster and clothed in a hunting outfit. He is known to have driven through Seattle Monday.

REHEARSED STAGE SHOW.—Reed college dramatists will make their season's debut in the Reed chapel at 8 o'clock Friday night. The presentation of "The Ince of Jerusalem," by Bernard Shaw, and "Work House Ward," by Lady Gregory. Under the direction of Otto D. Richardson, dramatic coach, the plays have been under preparation for several weeks. Their casts include some of the best Reed talent.

TRUCK DRIVEN INTO BUILDING.—Harry Olinger, driver for Sherman Clay & Co., 39 years old, drove a piano truck over the curb at Broadway and Everett streets yesterday afternoon and into the side of the Hughes Auto agency. Charges of reckless driving and drunkenness were lodged against him at the city jail by Patrolman Ingle. Olinger will have his hearing in municipal court this morning.

JURORS FAIL TO AGREE.—Deliberations lasting more than six hours failed to bring agreement between jurors in the trial of Grant Gleason, a teacher of music, tried in county juvenile court on a charge of contributing to delinquency of a minor, and the jurors were discharged by Judge Kandler last night. Trial of the case consumed all of Tuesday and half the day yesterday, going to the jury at noon.

RADIO PROGRAMME ANNOUNCED.—Station KPRC, Meier & Frank's, will broadcast tonight, beginning at 9 o'clock. In addition to the Ladies' Columbia Concert 25-piece orchestra will be solo numbers by Henrietta Holm, soprano; P. Pettis, baritone; Marie Collins Madden, soprano; and Mr. O'Neill Feldman. The orchestra will be under the direction of Frances Knight.

DOLL SHOW OPENS TODAY.—More than 700 dolls are being assembled and placed in readiness for the opening of the doll show which will take place on the fifth floor at Meier & Frank's this morning at 9:30. Five prominent Portland women will act as judges to award the 33 prizes, which, in cash and merchandise orders, aggregate $225.

EX-STUDENTS MEET TONIGHT.—An effort to reorganize the long-dormant Portland Oregon Agricultural college club, with a view to promoting co-operation between active students and the out-of-college element, will be made tonight when former members of the student body meet in room A, central library at 8 o'clock.

MONTH'S TRAFFIC ARRESTS 642.—Arrests of traffic violators during October numbered 642, according to the monthly report filed with Chief Jenkins yesterday by Lieutenant Erling. Fines totaled $11829. Double shifts have been required during the latter part of the month to cope with the steadily increasing number of violations.

OFFICERS PLAN STUDIES.—Officers of the regular army, reserve corps and the national guard stationed in Portland are preparing for intensive study this winter. The executive board of the Society of the Army of the United States met for the first time this season yesterday noon at the University club and outlined plans for work the ensuing year.

DEMOCRATS TO HOLD MEETING.—Democrats will hold a meeting at the central library tonight at 8 o'clock. Speeches will be made by Judge Gatens, Elton Watkins and others.

DIVORCE SUIT FILED.—A divorce complaint alleging desertion was filed in circuit court yesterday by Roma Viola against William A. Smith.

SEA LIONS GET CHANCE.
Orders Come to See if Animals Are Salmon Killers.
Investigation into the feeding habits of sea lions to determine whether they are extensive destroyers of salmon has been ordered by E. E. Nelson, chief of the biological survey of Washington, D. C., through Ray Steele, federal game warden for Oregon and Washington. The war against sea lions has been made with particular intensity

Hazelwood

Incomparable MEXICAN CHEWS

One of the most popular Hazelwood confections. 75c to $3 per box

Assorted TARTS Assorted BUTTERCUPS in dainty tins. 25c each

"When you buy Hazelwood Candy you secure the best"

The Broadway Hazelwood 388 Washington 127 Broadway

The Original Klavicle

You'll see many imitations of this feature style. They all are testimony to the style leadership of The House of Kuppenheimer. Get the original.

KUPPENHEIMER GOOD CLOTHES

are always first with the newest styles in suits and overcoats, and this season lower prices are an added attraction. In every way, the finest clothing made, the best clothing you can buy.

LION CLOTHING CO.

—the house of Kuppenheimer good clothes. Morrison Street at Fourth

Campaign Keeps Governor From Tracing Lost Dog.

Appeal of Cottage Grove Woman Fails to Get Results.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Nov. 1.—(Special.)—Governor Olcott has been so busy campaigning over the state that it is feared here he has had to neglect some of the duties of his office.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Word has reached here that the governor, several times during his jaunt around the state, has offended those with whom he might be talking by abruptly leaving them to chase some stray dog which he spied and which he evidently thought might be the one missing from here.

Advertisement for Kuppenheimer Good Clothes, featuring the Klavicle suit and Lion Clothing Co. information.

Advertisement for Sir Gilbert Parker, featuring a portrait of the author and text about a lecture.

Advertisement for Gadski, featuring a portrait of the artist and text about mail orders for an auditorium.

Advertisement for Banner Record System, featuring text about a specially designed approved business form.

Advertisement for Hotel Clifford, featuring text about a moderately priced hotel.

Advertisement for Throat tablets of scientific origin, featuring a portrait of a man and text about the benefits of the tablets.

Advertisement for Formamint, featuring text about a germ-killing throat tablet.

Advertisement for Lewis-Stenger, featuring text about a product for the blind.

Advertisement for The Moore Sanitarium, featuring text about health care for discouraged patients.

Advertisement for Men Wanted, featuring text about various jobs and rates.

Advertisement for Dr. Chas. J. Dean, featuring text about a cure for piles.

Advertisement for RHEUMATISM, featuring text about a cure for the condition.

Advertisement for The Oregonian, featuring text about the newspaper's classification.

Large advertisement for Dr. Chas. J. Dean's Piles cure, featuring a portrait of the doctor and detailed text about the treatment.