Crown Remains Firmly Set on Kangaroo Battler.

4 KNOCKOUTS ON CARD

Fistic Menu From Soup to Nuts One of Greatest Hearabouts in Many a Dog Watch.

The Australian middleweight title and likewise the Pacific Coast middle crown remain firmly planted on the flaxen head of Tom King...

Draw Well Deserved. In the main event it was King's fighting that drew the throng...

King tore into Darcy from the very start and getting inside Jimmy's swings, ripped and slashed at Darcy's midriff till it was a baby's skin.

Darcy could do little with King's clinches. At times King's Darcy was more effective and in these exchanges shook the Australian with left jabs and hard rights to the face.

Ortega Knocks Out Richards. Eddie Richards made the mistake of trying to go in and slug with Battling Ortega and after two rounds he was knocked out.

Tramblis showed vast improvement over his start here and clearly demonstrated that he can easily fight when he wants to.

Bud Fisher stopped Jack Dillon in the third round of their scheduled four-round bout.

JACK BRITTON TO REST

EX-CHAMPION GIVES CREDIT TO CONQUEROR.

Opinion Expressed Mickey Walker Will Be Great Title-Holder; Performance Is Praised.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—While Mickey Walker, the new welterweight champion, was dividing his time between here and his hometown, Elizabeth, N. J., this afternoon receiving congratulations from every side, Jack Britton, the deposed champion, stayed away from his usual haunts and was preparing to hurry away for the Maine woods.

"I guess I started once too often," said Jack. "That man Walker was too tough for me and I think he is going to be a great champion. He has my hearty congratulations for his great performance."

William Muldoon, chairman of the boxing commission, was very enthusiastic about the bout.

"I think it was the greatest I ever saw in my life," he said today. "Britton played the part of a man 100 per cent. And if there is anyone who now has any respect for the bout was not on the level, he is either an imbecile or a rogue."

NEW SCANDAL SEEN IN PROBABLY CIRCLES

Wisconsin and Illinois Grid Stars Barred.

PRO GAMES ARE PLAYED

Murray and Augur Admit Ineligibility; Four Others Accused Maintain Innocence.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—A new upheaval in western conference football circles over the eligibility of players was seen today in the simultaneous announcements of two stars—Donald Murry of the University of Wisconsin and Allison B. Augur of Illinois—had been barred.

The protest against Murry was made by Coach Zuppke of Illinois and upon being notified that the player had been declared ineligible, Coach John R. Richards of Wisconsin declared that he would protest five members of the Illinois squad.

Professional Game Echoed. The disbarment of Augur and Murry came as an echo of the famous Taylorville-Carlinville professional game of last fall which resulted in the virtual disruption of both the Notre Dame and Illinois football squads.

HEIRS FILE CONTEST Cousins Claim Share of Estate of Mystery House Occupant.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Controversy over the estate of the late Teresa Bell, widow of a San Francisco millionaire, whose will cut off her five supposed children, is further complicated by the filing of an appearance by a local firm of attorneys as counsel in the contest for two purported cousins of Mrs. Bell.

The new figures in the will tangle are named as R. J. Irving McNair and his sister, Mrs. Ida Wickham, both of Michigan. Proof that they legally are cousins would entitle the two under provisions of the will to share in the estate, estimated at $1,000,000.

The attorneys announced they would seek to uphold the will and to produce a new family history showing that Mrs. Bell was a child of Mrs. Sarah Wilcox Gleason Austin, sister of the mother of the new claimants.

According to the story made public in connection with the appearance of Mrs. Bell, a young girl, Teresa, was a small child. Teresa was then taken into the home of Thomas Bell, who was a young man she married a man named Evans, said to have been head of a Sioux City (Ia.) street railway system. He adopted three children, it is said. The Evans died and left his estate to his widow Teresa Austin Evans. Later it is asserted the widow of Evans became the wife of her foster father Thomas Bell, who had two children by a former marriage, the story goes.

A Shaving Edge 40 times thinner than this newspaper!

Electrically treated steel enables us to perfect an edge one ten-thousandth of an inch thin!

USERS were satisfied with Gem Damaskene Blades. Experience taught them that it was the best blade that could be produced.

But now it's different. Now, we are satisfied. An electrical wizard has showed us how to eliminate the wire edge and put double life, double keenness, and double comfort into Gem Blades.

Molecules that compose steel, point in hundreds of different directions. They won't—they cannot—take a microscopically smooth edge.

With a powerful electrical treatment, we now line up the steel molecules of that mixed mass, so that they all point in one direction. This enables us to put a smooth, unbroken edge on the Gem Double Life Blade.

The Gem Double Life Blade is now on sale at your dealer's. It looks exactly like the usual Gem Blade—but the way it breezes through whiskers—the way it leaves your face smooth and cool—you'll recognize the difference instantly.

Notice that phrase Double Life on the wrapper. That means not only double the life, but many times the comfort and satisfaction. Seven blades to a package, each blade carefully wrapped and the delicate edge protected so that it reaches your razor uninjured.

If you haven't a Gem Safety Razor get one of the marvelous $3 De Luxe Models now offered by your dealer at One Dollar ($1) complete. With it you'll get these wonderful Double Life Blades.
