

Opens Tomorrow

THE WORLD'S GREATEST MILK COW IS HERE
"Prospect," whose official name is Segis Pietertje Prospect, and who holds the world's record for milk production over all breeds, amounting to 18,690 quarts of milk in one year, has just arrived at the stock show. This is her first trip away from home. It is an opportunity of a lifetime to see this great cow.

School Children FREE

The Pacific International invites every school boy and school girl to visit the great livestock show free tomorrow. An essay contest will give them all an opportunity to win a cash prize as well as learn more about livestock.

* * * *

The Students' Judging Contest and the High School Vocational Judging Contest begins at 9 A. M. They will judge Horses, Cattle, Sheep and Hogs.

* * * *

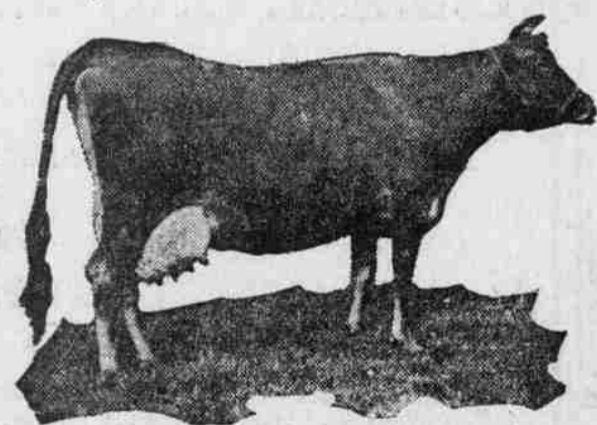

The dazzling and beautiful Industrial Exhibits Section will be open tomorrow for the first time.

* * * *

The Show Horses will be out in the big arena, practicing for the opening Horse Show Monday night.

* * * *

Thousands of birds and bunnies at the Western Winter Poultry and Rabbit Show.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST JERSEY COW IS HERE

Lad's Iota holds the highest record for butterfat production of any Jersey cow in the world. She is owned at Independence, Or., by Sam J. McKee. Don't fail to see this wonderful animal. She will be at the Pacific International.

TOMORROW the gates open! Tomorrow the greatest livestock show ever held begins! Tomorrow the visible, tangible evidence of our most vital industry is on display. Tomorrow is the first of eight days filled with fun and enjoyment and education and interest.

Pacific International Milkmaids' Contest by relays for three days. The entries are crowded with contestants.

U. S. department of agriculture has an exhibit which is valued at $25,000. It has been shown in but one other show—at the National Dairy Show.

Campbell's American Band has prepared an elaborate and beautiful programme for the entire week at the Exposition. This is a treat for music lovers.

Restaurant and Cafeteria are under the direction of Henri Thiele, the famous chef.

Brilliant Horse Show Begins Monday night and continues through the week. Matinees Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Get Tickets for Horse Show NOW!

On sale at Sherman-Clay's and Meier & Frank's. Reserved seats at night, $1.50, $1.25, $1.75c, 50c and 25c. Matinees, 50c.

General Admission to Exposition, 50c

Through Car Service to Show

Take Stock Show cars on Broadway to Exposition. Five cents additional fare from Kenton. Ample parking space for automobiles.

Pacific International Livestock Exposition

Largest Live Stock Show in America--10 acres under one roof
Reduced Fares on All Railroads