

ARREST OF MURDER SUSPECT DUE SOON

Warrant Ready for Use in Hall-Mills Case.

TESTIMONY IS REVIEWED

Some Statements Made by Wife of Slain Rector Disputed by Husband of Singer.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Nov. 2.—A warrant has been prepared for service by the authorities investigating the double murder of Rev. Edward Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Mills. It was said tonight by a county official in close touch with the investigators.

"The warrant has been prepared," the official said, "and will be signed whenever Mr. Mott says 'go.'"

It was reported here tonight that Deputy Attorney General Mott would return to New Brunswick tomorrow.

Authorities working on the investigation of the double slaying spent the day checking up discrepancies said to exist between the statement given by Mrs. Hall to the county prosecutors and the answers in her interview with reporters yesterday.

The point receiving the greatest attention, detectives asserted, was that in her statement to the officials Mrs. Hall said she returned to her home the morning following the murder at 2:30 o'clock after having sought her husband in vain at the church. A watchman at the New Jersey state college for women told the police that he saw a woman entering the Hall home at that hour.

In the account of her movements on the night of the murders given to newspaper writers she said she did not reach her home until 3:30 o'clock.

Mills Recalls Meeting. Looking up from work in a coal bin in the basement of the school house where he is janitor, James Mills, whose wife Eleanor was murdered with Rev. Mr. Hall on September 14, today took issue with some of the statements made yesterday by the clergyman's widow in an interview.

Mills said that he met Mrs. Hall at the church at 8:30 o'clock on the morning of September 15. Mrs. Hall said yesterday that she was at the church at 7 o'clock.

"I know it could not have been earlier than 8:30," said Mills, "because my children had gone to school."

"The first thing Mrs. Hall asked me was, 'Was anybody sick at your house last night?'"

Commented on the fact that both my wife and her husband were missing, and I said, 'Maybe they have eloped.'"

"No," was Mrs. Hall's reply. "I think something has happened to them."

"At noon when Mrs. Hall came to my house I told her I had not heard anything and she said she had not either. Then she went away. She was incorrect in her statements in saying she did not come to my house again at 5:30 o'clock. She stayed only a minute."

Nothing Wrong Suspected. "I saw Mrs. Hall again at 7 o'clock in her home. I went there to ask her if she had any news," said Mills on the porch to talk. She did not seem to take it as hard as I did. I had an idea that Dr. Hall and my wife had been together, but I did not think there was anything wrong. I don't know why I ever suggested an elopement."

Commenting on Mrs. Hall's statement that she was not vindictive and that she did not care to see anyone punished for the murder, Mills said:

"I am not vindictive, either, but I want to see the murderer punished. I believe it was a woman's deed. All these theories about blackmail and robbery and things are rot. It was jealousy, and I think her throat was cut in spite, because of her beautiful singing."

"I never heard any gossip about my wife and Dr. Hall. If I had I would not have stood for it for a single minute. I am man enough not to have kept that job at the church if I thought the power company was anything between the minister and my wife. I would have gone to Mr. Hall and if he would not listen I would have gone to the bishop and to the vestry."

Mills said he had never heard of his wife having trouble with anybody and said he knew of no enemies that Dr. Hall might have had.

"There was plenty of gossip among members of the choir though," he added.

TWO BEARS GET DRUNK Bruins "Pickled to Eyebrows" on Moonshine Mash Enter Camp.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 2.—Two full-grown bears, "pickled to the eyebrows," entered the camp of the Puget Sound Light & Power company at Lake Kirtley, Arthur Newberry, manager of the camp, reported here today.

Mr. Newberry said the bears came into his cabin, rolled up at his feet, and refused to budge.

"I gave one of the bears a good punch, but he only rolled over," he said. "I found his breath was strong enough to floor an inveterate drinker, and the truth flashed on me that the bears were intoxicated."

Mr. Newberry and other men at the camp then set out to discover the bootlegger in the case. By following the trail of the bears they came upon two barrels of mash in an advanced state of fermentation. The barrels were half buried in the ground and were undoubtedly the private booze stock of the bears.

THOMAS GUYLER IS DEAD CHAIRMAN OF RAILWAY EXECUTIVES 68 YEARS OLD.

Prominence Attained During Recent Strike, When Firm Stand Against Unions Was Taken.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Thomas De Witt Guyler, a director of the Pennsylvania Railroad company and chairman of the Railway Executive Association, was found dead today in the private car of President Rea of the Pennsylvania in Broad-street station.

Mr. Guyler was in Rochester, N. Y., yesterday and was apparently in good health.

The private car arrived at Broad-street station early today and was placed on a sidetrack. According to instructions, a porter called Mr. Guyler at 8 A. M. He received no response and, becoming alarmed, summoned an attendant and a physician. The doctor pronounced Mr. Guyler dead. Death was due to heart disease. He had been dead a little more than an hour, according to the physician.

Mr. Guyler was a lawyer, but most of his time was taken up with railroad and financial affairs. He came prominently before the country in the recent ship strike by virtue of his position as chairman of the railway executives, and took a firm stand against some of the demands of the strikers, especially that relating to seniority.

Mr. Guyler was born in Philadelphia and was 68 years old.

Kemalists Inaugurate Plan for Stripping Sovereign of All Power in Civic Affairs.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Violent scenes marked the proceedings of the first Ankara assembly during the discussion today of the status of the sultan. A number of the opposition deputies left the hall, and others favored postponement of the question until after the conclusion of peace.

Dr. Riza Nur Bey, member of the nationalist delegation to Lausanne, Nur Bey presented a motion, adopted by 76 deputies, declaring that a Turkey had sprung from the ruins of the Ottoman empire and that the sultan non-existent. The motion was amended today by the words: "The great national assembly of Turkey will liberate the caliphate from captivity."

After a lively discussion the motion was referred to a commission of judicial experts.

Mustapha Kemal Pasha, in a two-hour speech, outlined the course of Turkish history. He pleaded for the separation of the sultanate from the caliphate, pointing out in support of his argument the inconveniences of having the sovereign and caliph identical and insisting upon the necessity of a discussion of the project.

The assembly finally adopted a resolution presented by Dr. Riza Nur Bey that the telegram sent to the Ankara government by Tewfik Pasha, the grand vizier of the sultan's government, was an act of treason and the author of it must be punished.

(Tewfik Pasha in his telegram to the nationalist government renewed his plea that a union of two governments be negotiated, declaring that abstention of the sublime porte from the Lausanne peace conference would have a bad effect on the whole Moslem world, but that non-participation by the nationalists would prevent the realization of peace and throw the whole world into anarchy.)

WEDDING CONTRACT FOUND ON ELOPERS

Would-Be Bridegroom's Purchase of Hair Net Gives Clue to Whereabouts of Pair.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 2.—I. Levan Cunningham and Mary Alice Morehouse agree to be married in Illinois for six months. After which time a divorce may be granted on the request of either party.

Signed LEVAN CUNNINGHAM. MARY ALICE MOREHOUSE. Agreed on at LaFayette, Ind.

The above contract, signed by Levan Cunningham, 18, and Mary Alice Morehouse, 18, school children of LaFayette, Ind., was found in their possession when they were taken into custody yesterday and was the keynote of a romance which was rudely wrecked when information was received from their parents to place them under arrest.

Other Couples Weakened. They left their homes in LaFayette Tuesday, arriving in Bloomington that night. Originally it had been planned among their little group that five couples were to come here, after which they would all go to Kansas City, but the others weakened.

The pair had been missed from their homes, and the police of LaFayette learned of the plans and notified the local department. Their trunk had been checked to Bloomington.

The purchase of a comb and hair net led to their discovery. Detective Penn noticed a youth, who answered to the description given the police, enter a drug store. He followed and after the boy purchased a comb and hair net, followed him to a hotel where he found "Mr. and Mrs. L. Cunningham."

Mann Act Is Considered. Cunningham and Miss Morehouse were to be married today. On the train in Indiana, they discussed the question of law violation and so the girl, on a scrap of yellow paper, scrawled the contract printed above, and both signed it, content that everything was then all right and that they were exempt from the law. They were careful to sign it before they crossed the state line for they had heard that a white slave law made it serious to go from one state to another.

When asked if they would not probably be married on their return to Indiana she said: "Oh, I don't know. I'm not worried. I don't think my folks will be mad."
