VOTE

FOR 1927 FAIR.

Just a word to my many friends and business associates I have had the pleasure of dealing with in the last lifteen years. To my mind your success or failure depends on whether you and your friends exercise your rights and vote on the Fair question or not. Be sure and vote, as it is going to be close. If the hill carries it will mean better business. Your place will double and treble in value. If it fails I would not care to state my opinion. It is also of great importance that you vote for Governor Olcott; and above all, defeat the school monopoly bill—termed under the deceiving head on the official ballot 'School Compulsory Bill" (VOTE 315—NO), for with the 1927 world's fair assured, Governor Olcott for governor and the school bill defeated—nothing can stop us.
