

Morning Oregonian

VOL. LXI—NO. 19,334

Entered at Portland, Oregon, Postoffice as Second-class Matter.

PORTLAND, OREGON, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1922

PRICE FIVE CENTS

ALLIED-TURKISH PARLEY PUT OFF

Peace Session to Wait Probably Fortnight.

KEMALISTS DEMAND SALUTE

Permission for Warships in Dardanelles Required.

BRITISH TO STAND PAT

Point of View Not to Be Changed in Any Circumstances, Say Authoritative Circles.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—The allied commissioners have refused to discuss the demand of the Ankara government that only one warship at a time enter Turkish ports and then only with the consent of the Turkish authorities.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—As a result of the new situation created in Constantinople by the demand of Rafet Pasha that the allied military occupation of the city cease, the peace conference called to be held at Lausanne November 13 has been postponed, possibly for a fortnight, it was announced here today.

It was stated in authoritative circles that in no circumstance would the British point of view regarding the presence of allied troops in Constantinople be changed. The British intend to uphold the Mudanya armistice agreement and remain in the neutral zone with their troops.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Turkish nationalist government has handed a note to the allied high commissioners here stating that the warships of all nations must ask it for authorization to pass the straits of the Bosphorus. The High Commissioner here has been informed. They must also salute the new government of Turkey.

Instructions Are Sent.

A telegram from Ankara said the grand national assembly had instructed Ismet Pasha, delegate to the Lausanne peace conference, to obtain realization of the following points:

First—The frontiers of Turkey to be in accordance with the national pact.
Second—Greece to pay an indemnity.
Third—Suppression of the capitulations, or extra territorial rights of foreigners.
Fourth—Modification of the frontiers of Iraq (Mesopotamia) and Turkey, financially, economically and politically.
Fifth—Complete independence for Constantinople has suppressed the Turkish senate.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—The new upheaval in Turkey and especially Constantinople is regarded in London as involving at least two serious problems, the main one being whether the action of the nationalists will revive trouble in the near east which lately threatened the peace of Europe.
What effect depositing of the sultan (Concluded on Page 3, Column 1.)

CROWN PRINCE TAKES NEW PARENT DRIVING

EX-KAISER'S SON REFUSES TO CALL HERMIONE 'MOTHER.'

EX-MONARCH AND WIFE WALK ARM IN GARDEN, BUT ARE DRIVEN INSIDE BY RAIN.

DOORN, Holland, Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—William Hohenzollern's walks, solitary no longer, were continued around the castle grounds today. With his new wife, arm in arm, he visited the rose pavilion where not long ago he made his proposal of marriage. Soon the bridal couple retired indoors, as it rained heavily and later William saw his sister-in-law, Princess Ida of Stolberg, to the Amerfort station, while Frederick William, the erstwhile crown prince, took his new mother, whom, however, he does not call mother, for a drive.

This little Dutch community, especially the feminine section of it, is still wagging tongues over the disturbance of the Sabbath calm occasioned by the ex-emperor's wedding, but at the same time there is righteous indignation among the women that no chance was afforded them of seeing the bride.

"Her serene highness" Hermione, as she is designated officially and by her husband, has not yet taken up the reins of the household, but those acquainted with her say she intends to assume full control immediately as a thrifty hausfrau.

DEPORT ACTOR, IS PLEA

Husband of Edith Day Testifies Against Pat Somerset.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Carl Carlton, husband of Edith Day, who is starring with Pat Somerset, an English actor, in "Orange Blossoms," appeared today before an immigration service board of inquiry to press his contention that Somerset should be deported as an undesirable alien. The board's recommendation will be submitted to the department of labor at Washington. Carlton submitted three depositions made by employees of a London hotel, alleging that Somerset and Miss Day were together at the hotel. He also offered in evidence 47 alleged worthless checks, which, it was charged, Somerset used in obtaining money in England.

BONUS GIVEN SHOPMEN

Northern Pacific Workers Loyal During Strike Rewarded.

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 6.—Shopmen who refused to go on strike at the South Tacoma shops of the Northern Pacific have received a substantial bonus payment, it was learned here today. Foremen who declined to strike received checks for $800 in addition to their regular pay since July 1, and machinists received $500 bonus.

The checks came direct from the Northern Pacific headquarters in St. Paul, and were not a part of the regular payroll here.

MID-COLUMBIA HAS SNOW

Hills Back of White Salmon Are Covered With White.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The mid-Columbia was in the grip of winter tonight. Snow flurries fell at intervals throughout the day on higher levels, and the hills back of White Salmon, Wash., were white topped. Indications pointed to snow in lower levels of the orchards before tomorrow.

Many orchards still contained un-picked boxes of apples. No damage will result, however, unless freezing follows the precipitation.

RAIN AND WIND FORECAST

Election Day Wet and Warmer.

According to Weather Man. Lots of rain and wind is forecast for today and coats and "rubbers" will be in order.

One consoling promise of the forecaster is that the temperature will not be as frigid as it was yesterday and last night. The warmest it was yesterday was 48 degrees and the coldest was 43.

In Portland and vicinity the forecast is rain, with east to southeast winds. For the state at large the prediction is rain, with strong southeasterly gales on the coast.

TUG IN GALE LOSES RAFT

Logs Containing 700,000 Feet of Lumber Dropped.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—Caught in a heavy gale off Cape Flattery early today the tug Columbia, of the Chesley Tug & Barge company of Seattle, lost a log raft containing between 700,000 and 800,000 feet of lumber, according to radio advice received here today.

The United States Coast Guard cutter Snobomish probably will be sent from Port Angeles to aid in recovering the raft, it was stated at the coast guard service offices here.

BLAST KILLS WORKMAN

Several Injured, One Perhaps Fatally, Near Prospect.

50 TO 60 MINERS KILLED IN BLAST

31 Rescued Men Are Sent to Hospital.

BODIES LEFT IN SHAFT

All Victims, Still Alive, Are Believed Removed.

SOME FLEE FOR LIFE

Battle Through Gaseous Passages Until Fresh Air Was Reached

SPANGLER, Pa., Nov. 6.—(By the Associated Press.)—Between 50 and 60 miners were killed in the Reilly mine of the Reilly Coal company, near here, this morning, according to an official estimate made public at midnight by rescue workers and company officials.

This estimate was arrived at after rescue workers who had searched the explosion-wrecked mine for two hours reported they believed there were no more survivors in the workings.

Thirty-one rescued men were in the Spangler hospital. Officials of the company were still uncertain as to the exact number of men who went to work just a short time before the blast.

90 Believed in Mine. They believed that the total was between 90 and 95.

Rescue men who had attempted to count the bodies they stumbled over in the workings declared they counted approximately 50, but said it was probable that a few more men perished in the unexplored chambers.

They decided at midnight to remove the bodies before daybreak. Scores of women and children who had been at the mouth of the mine since early morning were induced to return home tonight.

Examination of the mine workings by experts caused officials of the company to announce that the property damage in the explosion was very small.

No statement will be issued regarding the cause of the explosion until tomorrow at least.

Dead Strava All Along. "There are dead miners strewn all along the entries down there," said J. J. Bourquin, leader of the United States bureau of mine rescue crew, as he came from the head of the mine.

"We only stopped with the dead long enough to see that the spark of life had fled and then moved on in search of the living," he continued. "Quite a bit of mine remained to be explored, but I can say if there are any more live men in there it won't take us long to get to them."

Engineer Bourquin and his men (Concluded on Page 3, Column 1.)

GUMP VOTE IS LEGAL, VAN WINKLE RULES

WRITING IN NAME DOES NOT INVALIDATE BALLOT.

Attorney-General Sends Telegram as Tillamook Authority Is About to Issue Instructions.

TILLAMOOK, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—As District Attorney Geyne has given his opinion that writing the name of Andy Gump on the ballot would invalidate the entire ticket, and had prepared to instruct election boards to that effect, the following telegram was sent to Mr. Geyne by State Attorney-General Van Winkle:

"Request by election boards to advise whether writing Andy Gump on ballot by voter would invalidate ticket. My opinion is that this is not a distinguishing mark, especially if written by several, and would not authorize rejection of the ballot so voted."

From all indications Andy Gump will poll a large number of votes in opposition to Rollie W. Watson, who received the nomination on the republican ticket for representative, but is now supporting the democratic ticket. Should Mr. Watson win in the election, his seat will be challenged when the state legislature meets.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Attorney-General Van Winkle, in response to inquiries received from district attorneys of various counties in Oregon, today advised them that in case the name of Andrew Gump is written on the ballots the remainder of the ballot designations must be counted.

In several counties of the state, where there are no contests for certain offices, opponents of the regular nominees have signified their intention of writing the name of Gump on the ballots.

CLASS WEARS 'KID TOGS'

Peon Pants Have Part in Freakish Attire at Franklin High.

As a result of the new era of tolerance at Franklin high school, the once-deplored peon pants and Spanish skirts became the reigning style at the school. Not alone these Castilian innovations, but scores of other bizarre costumes were to be seen yesterday, for it was "kids' day," devoted to the wearing of very juvenile attire.

"Kid day" is an annual event at Franklin when the June class for the following year reverts back to pinafores, rompers, overalls and childish garb. The peon pants shared honors with the childish costumes.

About 20 students, ten boys and ten girls, wore the fantastic outfits.

VOTE FRAUD IS CHARGED

Deputy County Auditor Accused of Attempt to Buy Absentees.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Nov. 6.—I. B. Elyar of Waverly, deputy auditor of Pike county, surrendered himself today on a warrant charging him with attempting to buy votes of a absent voters and pleaded not guilty and was held to grand jury under $1000 bond.

Ernest Dondie, Waverly constable, arrested Saturday, also pleaded not guilty and was held to the grand jury under the same bond. Both obtained bail.

ANOTHER NEAR-RIOT AT DOCKS QUELLED

TWO LEADERS OF STRIKERS TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

Additional Police Protection Is Ordered for Places Where Workers Are Annoyed.

A second near-riot at the Almsworth dock was quelled in short order yesterday noon by prompt police action in the arrest of two striking longshoremen for disturbing the peace. With the two noisiest members of the mob in custody and whisked off to jail, the remaining 100 or more strikers calmed down and made no demonstration when strike breakers working cargo at the dock went out for lunch.

M. L. Ridenout, 19, and J. A. Madsen, 53, were the two arrested. Madsen was released on his own recognizance. Ridenout was held for examination.

Additional police protection for the noon hour at the three docks was ordered yesterday by Police Captain Moore. An increasing ugliness, evident among the striking union men and I. W. W. who are mixed in their ranks, was given as the reason for the stringent steps to prevent violence.

Terminal No. 1 and 2 and the Almsworth dock will be the gathering places for police reserves. Six extra men were added to the forces stationed there.

A riot call from a restaurant at Grand avenue and East Washington street at 6 o'clock last night brought out a dozen patrolmen to disperse a riotous gathering of 50 or more strikers annoying a handful of strike breakers eating in the place.

No arrests were made but officers reported that the temper of both strikers and supplanted workers was ugly enough to cause fear of violence.

Six women, wives of strikers, have appeared in the picket line at the Almsworth dock.

The Waterfront Employers' union yesterday declared that 27 vessels were worked in the harbor with a total of 37 men and that while approximately 1200 are enrolled at the neutral hall, only experienced men are now being considered for registration. Probably fewer men will be at work today because of vessels having finished loading last night and others scheduled to finish so as to leave early today.

HUGE SUM TO BE SPENT

Milwaukee Railway System Plans New Cars and Locomotives.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway has arranged to expend more than $22,500,000 for new cars and locomotives to handle increasing traffic. B. B. Geers of Chicago, vice-president in charge of operations, announced here today. Orders for new equipment now ready to be placed include 10,000 box and coal cars to be delivered next year, and 100 steam locomotives, to be ready for operation next spring, according to the announcement.

Mr. Geers, who is in Seattle on a trip of inspection over the railway's Pacific coast lines, said the car shortage situation in the west was being improved to some extent through the turning over of more cars to eastern roads by eastern lines.

33 STATES NAME OFFICERS TODAY

Record Vote for Off Year Is Expected.

WOMEN WILL TAKE HAND

Pitched Battles Over Seats in House Numerous.

EUROPE WATCHES RACE

Foreign Governments That Want America to Intervene Again Are Interested in Result.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. (By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) An unprecedented vote for an "off year" is destined to be cast today when the nation chooses the members of the sixty-eighth congress, which will convene in December, 1923, unless earlier summoned by the president.

In 33 states, 34 senators will be elected. Of this number 21 will be elected to regular six-year terms beginning March 4 next, and three to fill vacancies. One senator, Frederick Hall, republican, was re-elected to a six-year term in the Maine election September 11 last.

In 431 congressional districts, in the whole country, representatives will be elected, the other four members of the House all republican, having been elected in Maine.

Record Vote Is Expected.

While the voters have been reported to be in a pacific state of mind in many parts of the country, it is not doubted that the total number of ballots cast in the congressional election today will break all records except those of presidential elections.

It is not expected that anywhere near the 27,000,000 men who voted in 1920 will go to the polls today, but the 1918 record doubtless will be equaled. Women voted in all states for the first time in 1920, and this is the first "off-year" election in which their influence will be directly exerted.

In the senate there were 60 republicans and 36 democrats; in the house 302 republicans and 133 democrats. In the 1918 and 1920 congressional elections the republicans captured nearly 100 districts which were either normally democratic or so close that they frequently were represented by democrats.

Pitched Battles Numerous.

In these districts scattered throughout the country pitched battles will take place today and the outcome be determined. It is not going too far to say that election day is of more than national interest for intelligence from foreign capitals is to the effect that returns tonight will be scattered with great eagerness in Europe. Those nations which have been maneuvering in every conceivable way to get rich Uncle Sam into their affairs with his check-book and army and navy, have been keenly disappointed by the policy of non-entanglement pursued by the Harding administration.

The European statesmen have been given to understand, however, that President Harding will be rebuked and his European policy repudiated by the vote in the congressional election, that the election of a democratic house of representatives and a marked reduction of the republican majority in the senate will cause the administration to change its course and head for Europe.

Cox Still Is Hopeful.

James M. Cox of Ohio, despite the terrific walloping he sustained in the late presidential election, is champion of the Wilson programme of internationalism, came home from Europe recently full of the project of getting us into Europe. We must go into the league of nations eventually, he said, and why not now?

The first thing to do was to carry the congressional election for the democratic ticket, thereby warning the administration to change its course and entering the wedge for the return of the democrats to full power in 1924, commissioned to take us into the league.

The attitude of Mr. Cox was supported by numerous democratic candidates and the question of American participation in European affairs became an issue in the campaign.

In Ohio Representative Fees, republican nominee for senator, met the democratic challenge in almost every speech, while ex-Governor Feltner in Indiana and ex-Governor Ferris in Michigan, both democratic candidates for the senate, made fervent appeals for support of the proposition of joining the league of nations.

Loans Considered Bribe.

Fess charged that $2,000,000,000 was advanced to the allies after the armistice without authority "to buy the support of other nations for the Wilson programme, by making further loans. These further loans were made primarily and chiefly for the purpose of enlisting support for the Wilson programme at Versailles to the amount of nearly $2,000,000,000, in the face of

BRUTE ATTACKS GIRL AND MAKES ESCAPE

UNIDENTIFIED MAN GARBED IN BLOOMERS SOUGHT.

Attack Takes Place Late Last Night, When Young Woman Is on Way Home.

A 19-year-old girl, whose name was not revealed by the police, was attacked and brutally assaulted at about 11:30 last night in the wooded district at the foot of Massachusetts avenue. Overlook addition, near where she resides with her parents. Following the attack the man dragged a bicycle from the brush nearby and fled.

According to the story of the girl, she was returning home from downtown when the man approached her with a newspaper in his hand. As she drew near he asked where he could find a street number, and before she could reply he dragged her over the steep bank at the foot of Massachusetts avenue, clamping his hand over her mouth so that she could not scream for help.

After a tussle, in which the girl was scratched and badly bruised, all of the clothes were torn from the girl.

After the girl had been thoroughly subdued, the man disrobed and subjected the girl to every sort of indignity. She was kept a prisoner for 20 to 45 minutes.

According to the girl's story, her assailant wore a dark old hat which he kept pulled down over his eyes, a dark coat and blue overalls. Beneath the overalls he wore woman's stockings, woman's bloomers, a corset and a gingham skirt.

After the attack, the man rolled the woman's clothing, which he had worn, into a bundle, donned the overalls and other man's clothes, obtained a bicycle from the brush where he evidently had concealed it and made his escape.

The beast also took $20 from the girl's purse after the attack.

The girl proceeded to her home, where her parents called the police. She received medical treatment at once, as it was said by the doctors that she would not be likely to suffer any permanent injuries, but she was in a serious condition from nervous shock.

The girl described her assailant as from 25 to 30 years old, about 5 feet 7 inches and weighing about 150 pounds.

SOUTH AFRICA DELUGED

Heavy Storms Reported Over Wide Range of Country.

CAPE TOWN, South Africa, Nov. 6.—(Canadian Press, via Reuters.)—Storms accompanied by floods have occurred over a wide range of country at the cape and in the Transvaal.

Owing to the storms shipping at Port Elizabeth was obliged to quit the roadstead for better shelter. The rains will prove beneficial in many parts of the country, where they have been much needed.

$20,000 IN FURS STOLEN

Armed Robbers Bind Merchant, His Wife and Employees.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Nathan Tietbaum, a merchant, reported to the police today that four armed robbers bound him and his wife and five employees and looted his store of furs valued at $20,000.

The robbers escaped with their booty in a motor truck.

INDEX OF TODAY'S NEWS

The Weather.

YESTERDAY—High, 48; temperature, 45 degrees; minimum, 43. TODAY'S—Rain; east to southeast winds.

Foreign.

Crown prince takes new mother driving. Page 1.

Allied-Turkish parley postponed for fortnight. Page 1.

Dressy party array passes in review. Page 6.

Domestic. New York bus lines declared huge profit. Page 3.

ELECTION TODAY ENDS WARM RACE

Silent Vote Is Slated to Elect Governor.

HEAVY BALLOTING EXPECTED

Large Wagers at Stake on Olcott-Pierce Contest.

POLLS OPEN AT 8 A. M.

Campaign Closes With Lifelong Friendships and Party Lines Torn Asunder.

PERTINENT FACTS ABOUT ELECTION TODAY.

State, congressional, legislative, county and municipal election today.

Polls open at 8 A. M. and close at 8 P. M.

Registration in the state, all parties, 245,821. Republican registration, 238,444; democratic registration, 89,477.

Congressmen of first, second, third districts to be elected.

State officers to elect: Governor, state treasurer, three justices of supreme court, superintendent of public instruction, labor commissioner, public service commissioner.

Multnomah county: Circuit judges for departments No. 1, 3, 5, 6 and 7; three state senators; 12 legislative representatives; one joint representative; one district attorney; two county commissioners; one county auditor.

Municipal election: Two city commissioners to elect; one city auditor.

On the state ballot are six measures, two authorizing counties to pay outstanding warrants; a single-tax amendment to the constitution; an exposition amendment; income-tax amendment and compulsory school amendment.

The municipal ballot carries seven charter amendments, the most important being a $3,000,000 tax for the 1927 fair.

On a separate ballot proposals for bridges at Burnside street and Ross island.

After more than eight months of political unrest, which has beaten down party lines, engendered ill-feeling, broken friendships and set peaceful communities in turmoil, the electorate of Oregon will express its feelings through the ballot today. Weeks before the June primaries, the religious question was raised and it has played a prominent role through the general campaign which terminated last night.

While controversies over the school bill have raged and the campaign of Ben W. Olcott, republican candidate for governor, and Walter M. Pierce, democratic nominee, have attracted unusual attention, there has been much noise and loud talk, but the great silent vote will speak today during 12 hours. An army of voters have been non-committal throughout the heated debates and arguments. With them rests the fate of the candidates for governor.

Heavy Vote Expected.

Unless weather conditions are unfavorable, the outlook is for an exceptionally heavy vote, for the electorate has been aroused to a keen interest in the men and issues submitted for their approval or rejection. Predictions are that there will be between 70 and 75 per cent of the registered vote placed in the boxes. It may even go higher, weather permitting.

In the closing hours of the campaign yesterday a flood of money appeared to bet that Olcott is elected. The betting was the chief topic yesterday and last night. Wagers of $1000 and more were not uncommon. One Olcott supporter placed $7000, giving odds; another had $15,000 and managed to place about two-thirds of the sum on the republican candidate. Another Portlander posted $5000 on Olcott and waited all day for Pierce money to be offered to take any Pierce money up to $4000. Almost without exception the bets were even money.

Big Sum to Change Hands.

Betting, of course, does not alter results and reflects only the judgment or sentiment of the people offering the wagers. Be that as it may, money was abundant in the past 24 hours and in the total a large sum will change hands.

OREGONIAN ELECTION RETURNS.

Results of today's election, as rapidly as received through its superior news-gathering facilities, will be given to the public by The Oregonian, utilizing both stereopticon and radio bulletin service.

Stereopticon Bulletins.

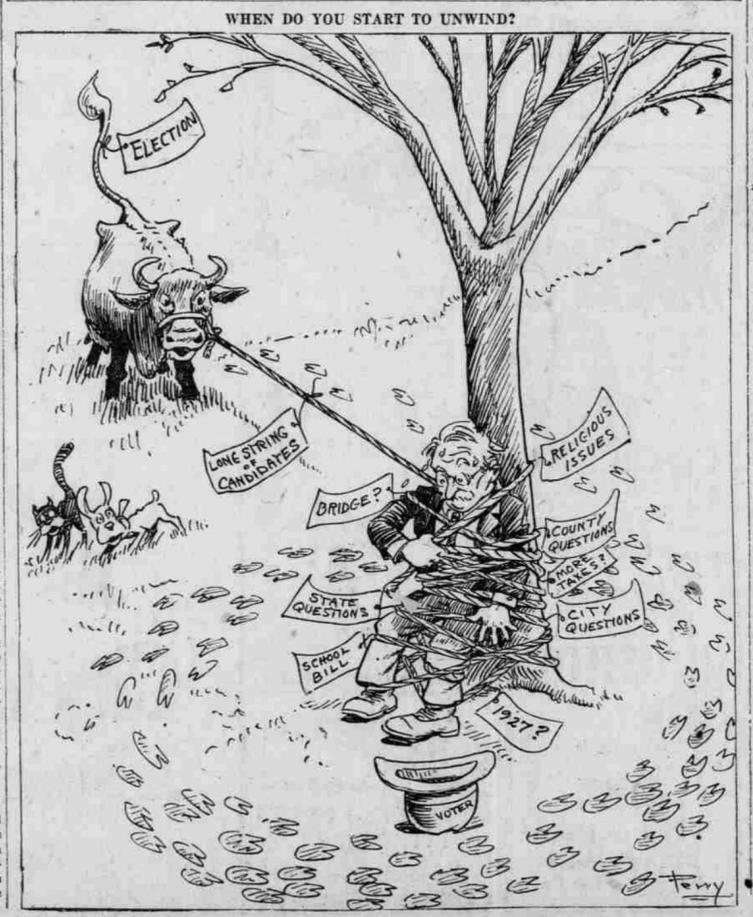

As in previous elections, all available returns from Portland, the state at large and from other states will be flashed on a screen at Sixth and Alder streets, beginning early tonight. The Portland count will be compiled through the medium of a large staff of experienced tabulators and motorcycle couriers, as it progresses in the many precincts.

Radio News.

Between 8 and 8:30 o'clock and between 10 and 10:30 the same returns will be sent out by radio from The Oregonian tower. Owing to the fact that the new and larger station is not yet in readiness, returns will go forward to radio fans via the present equipment.

In the Newspaper.

The Oregonian of Wednesday morning will completely cover election returns from state and city, and from other states. Earlier editions, appearing tonight, and distributed on the streets, will carry election developments up to the time of going to press.

(Concluded on Page 2, Column 1.)

(Concluded on Page 3, Column 1.)