ACTION TAKEN AGAINST HEN-RY TURRISH.

James J. Turrish of Portland Seeks to Recover Shares in Western Land Company.

Sult involving shares of stock restored by sames J. Tarrish also known as "Charles Henry Turrish. also known as "Charles Henry Turrish. In the first cause of action the plaintiff wants judgment for $276,000, given as the value of 275 shares of stock in the Western Land company, Ltd., a Minnesota corporation. It is alleged that these shares were turned over to the defendant without consideration on June 9, 41914, and that he converted them to his own use in July of this year.

In another cause of action it is alleged that seven shares of stock in the Curran Timber company of Everett. Wash, having a value of 1100 a share were gonverted to the use of the defendant though belonging to the plaintiff. A further allegation is that the defendant holds 80 shares of the stock of the Western Timber company of Vancouver, Wash, which belong to the plaintiff. The court is asked to order the return of these shares to James Jurrish.

The men are brothers. James Turrish is residing in Portland, while Henry is a millionaire and reputed multimillionaire of Duluth, Minn, heavily interested in timber in the northwest and also in big in the northwest and also
