

BOTH SIDES CLAIM VICTORY IN IDAHO

Democrats Predict Great Landslide.

EXCITING RACE CLOSES

Senator Borah in Statement Says He Supports Neither Alexander Nor Samuels.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 6.—(Special.)—On the eve of the election following one of the most interesting political campaigns in the history of Idaho, the chairman in charge of the campaigns predicted their candidates for governor will be elected by pluralities ranging from 5000 to 12,000.

In an address at Nampa in reply to the many reports and rumors as to where he was throwing his support, Senator Borah issued the following statement: "I went into this campaign to present two questions in particular—reduction of taxes and the passing of the direct primary. I have at no time or place sought to advance the cause of either the democratic candidate or the progressive candidate as against each other."

Educational Drive Conducted. The foremost of I. H. Nash, republican state chairman, is expressed in the following statement: "The republicans in Idaho have conducted a careful campaign of education. We think no campaign has made the people of the state more familiar with details of their government and reports pouring into headquarters indicate that the people are not alarmed at conditions."

Samuels' Victory Predicted. The statement from progressive party headquarters, signed by Ray McKeen and George L. West, is as follows: "Samuels will carry the election by a clear majority of 8000 to 12,000 votes. The balance of the state ticket will be elected by pluralities of from 3000 to 5000 votes."

Warm Race is Ended. (Continued From First Page.) been created, the vote will be large, but in 885 of the 1729 precincts in Oregon there are second boards which will start counting as soon as the first 20 ballots have been cast. If the election is very one-sided the drift will be known shortly after the polls close tonight, but if the contest between Olcott and Pierce is as strenuous as between Olcott and Charles Hall in the primaries the victor may not be determined before tomorrow or Thursday.

School Bill Fight Heated. The most heatedly-contested measure on the state ballot is the school bill. Half a dozen denominations have united to defeat this measure, which is sponsored by the A. and A. Scottish Rite school committee and endorsed by the Ku Klux Klan and the Oregon Federation of Patriotic Societies. Both the Klan and Federation Societies have endorsed Pierce. So far as Multnomah county is concerned, the belief exists that the bill is overwhelmingly defeated, and this belief exists among advocates of the measure.

Candidates Are Reputed. Republican candidates for house and senate have been reputed by their county republican organizations. In Tillamook county, where the republican candidate for representative has no democratic opponent, republicans are being asked to write in the name of Andrew Gump, so bitter is the feeling against the nominee for the house. In Multnomah county most of the democratic candidates for the legislature have taken a stand against their party candidate for governor on the school bill.

Fair Measures Uppermost. The municipal election is marked by the enmity of the Klan and federation over the matter of city commission. Each of these organizations has its own set of candidates and neither wants to see the other crowd's selections elected. Of city measures, the tax measure to raise $2,000,000 in three years for the 1927 exposition is most important. Next in the public eye is the proposal for a new bridge at Burnside street and a bridge at Ross island.

Campaign Bitterest Yet. Fight Most Remarkable One in Marion County's History. SALEM, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—The bitterest campaign in the history of Marion county closed here tonight. Religion played an important part in the campaign and the compulsory school bill was the subject of many heated public debates. Reports received at republican central headquarters here tonight from various sections of Marion county indicate that Ben W. Olcott, republican nominee for governor, will carry the county. There is no hope for the school bill in Marion county, observers said.

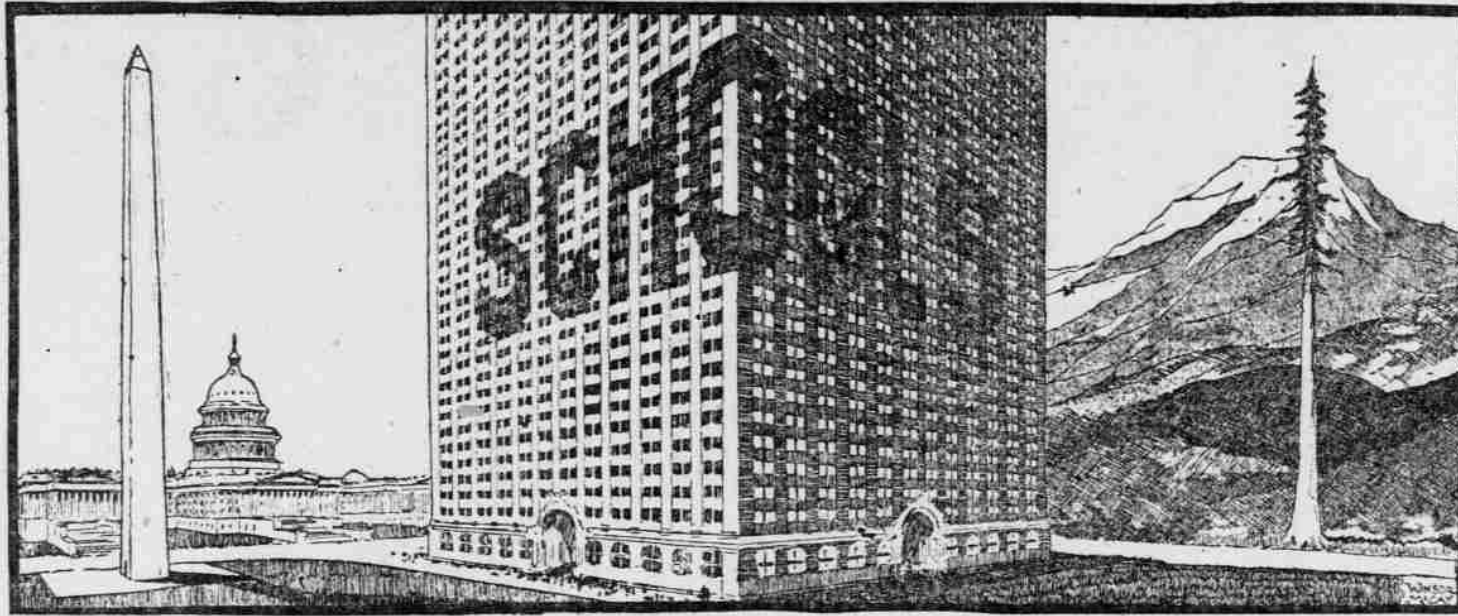

Officials Leave Salem. EXODUS TO CAST BALLOTS AT HOME IS GENERAL. Most, Though Making Homes in Capital, Maintain Legal Residences Elsewhere. SALEM, Or., Nov. 6.—(Special.)—Because of the general election to be held in Oregon tomorrow there was an exodus of state officials and employees here today. Most of the officials, although making their homes in Salem during their tenure of office, maintain their legal residence in other parts of the state. Justice Brown of the Oregon supreme court left for Roseburg, where he will vote. Justice Hazels will cast his ballot at Eugene, while Justice McBride will vote at Deer Island. Justice McCourt will vote in Portland and Justice Burnett, Rand and Bean will cast their ballots in Salem.

Sister's Plume Stolen. Alfred Newland Is Arrested on Brother-in-Law's Complaint. Alfred Newland, alias Allen R. Ansberry, who told police he had been arrested for vagrancy in Tacoma, Seattle, Sacramento, San Francisco and other places too numerous to mention, was arrested last night on a charge of larceny. He was accused of trying to sell an eight plume stolen from his sister, Mrs. Lyle C. White, 5604 Forty-first street Southeast. White, in requesting the police to

THE SCHOOL—EARTH'S NOBLEST MONUMENT

Copyright, 1922, by International Feature Service, Inc. Great Britain Rights Reserved.

MR. McCAY shows in this cartoon there is one monument that dwarfs all others, making them seem insignificant. That noblest of monuments is the public school in which the children of the nation are taught at the EXPENSE of the nation, receiving the knowledge that will enable them to build up and defend and carry on the nation.

This great building represents the PUBLIC SCHOOLS of the United States. This is the ONE thing that is important in this nation. In comparison with it NOTHING ELSE has importance.

The Capitol, where Congressmen sit, the great monument in memory of Washington, the mountain ranges, the WHOLE NATION is subordinate to this noblest of all earth's monuments—THE PUBLIC SCHOOL.

What the nation is, what its laws are to be, its future usefulness in the world, ALL depend on the school in which the children are taught.

Protect this monument, build it higher, nobler, better, and you have provided for the future and safety of the United States.

There is only one really American schoolroom, that is the PUBLIC schoolroom. There is only one typically American school, and that is the American PUBLIC SCHOOL. Children, FEEL equality, and they feel inequality.

From five to ten years of age the child's character is formed and established for all the rest of its life. The prejudices, beliefs, inclinations, aspirations and national feeling acquired at that age last until death.

The American public school puts in the minds of children DEMOCRACY, love of equality, belief in your fellow man, genuine equality that comes from mingling with all classes, and knowing them as equals and friends in useful mind-improving competition.

The test of the politician, the office holder, is his attitude toward the public school. If he hesitates, if he departs one inch from the old idea that the public school is the SCHOOL OF AMERICA, and the ONLY school, if he hesitates in his loyalty to THAT school, he is a traitor to the spirit of the United States, and your vote should tell him so.

Willingness to support the public schools through taxation is the test of the good citizen. Every dollar spent on the public school comes back a hundred and a thousand fold in the future life of the public school children.

Every dollar spent in public education and public schools is a dollar spent for insurance against trouble in the future. Interest yourself in the public schools, in the teachers, in the children.

AND HONOR THE AMERICAN PUBLIC SCHOOL, cradle of the nation's future greatness.

Thomas, in the purchasing of machinery and supplies, now amounts to $224,926.85, based on wholesale prices, in addition to the installation of improved boilers, the direct cause of a large saving in fuel, amounting to $1500 per month.
