

PIERCE IS ELECTED BY ABOUT 20,000

Incomplete Returns Indicate Trend of State.

HALF OF VOTE COUNTED

Compulsory School Bill Appears to Have Carried, But Single Tax and Income Tax Lose.

For state treasurer the count in 401 precincts, including 87 in Multnomah county, gives Hoff 34,097, Tou Velle 13,816; Hoff's lead 20,281.

For school superintendent, 455 precincts, including 78 from Multnomah county, give Churchill 32,871, George 17,349; Churchill's lead, 15,522.

For labor commissioner, 384 precincts, including 71 from Multnomah county, give Gram 30,860, Hansen 11,500. Gram's lead 19,360.

For public service commissioner, 426 precincts, including 113 from Multnomah county, give Campbell 27,513, Erickson 10,602, Kerrigan 9758. Campbell's lead 16,911.

School Bill Carried.

The public school compulsory measure has, it is indicated by the returns, been adopted by a majority perhaps in excess of 10,000. With less than one-third of the precincts reported, the bill has an affirmative majority of more than 5000.

Conditions regarding this bill, however, are somewhat spotted and the size of the affirmative majority is difficult to analyze from the returns so far in. In Multnomah county about one-half the precincts give the bill a lead there of nearly 3000 and the counties upstate, while showing so far only about 2000 majority for it, are less representative of the full vote than is Multnomah county.

The vote of the compulsory school bill stands: Yes 33,024, no 27,847; affirmative lead, 5177.

Fair Measure in Doubt.

The proposition enabling amendment voted on in the state at large is somewhat in doubt. It has a present majority of 3605 in Multnomah county alone with about half the vote counted there. In the state at large the vote so far is split almost even, but the slight difference is against the bill.

If these ratios continue the amendment is carried by a substantial majority. The indications are favorable for the amendment. The vote in 426 precincts, including 225 in Multnomah county, out of a total of 1729 in the state, follows:

Yes 21,095, no 18,709. Lead for the amendment 2386.

Single tax has again been defeated, this time two and one-half times to one. The income tax amendment is also defeated by better than two to one.

On single tax, 307 precincts, including 99 in Multnomah county, give the bill: Yes, 7458; no, 19,065; lead against the bill, 17,608.

On the income tax amendment 342 precincts, including 141 in Multnomah county, give the amendment, yes, 8549; no, 18,093; majority against the bill, 9553.

In the second congressional district N. J. Sinnott has been elected over J. H. Graham. In the incomplete vote 13 counties are represented: Sinnott, 6228; Graham, 4189; Sinnott's lead, 2039.
