Municipal Contests in Some Vie for Interest With Statewide Contests.

MEDFORD, Or., Nov. 8 .- (Spe. cial.)-Earl C. Gaddis for mayor and the entire business men's ticket were elected here yesterday, consisting of M. L. Alford, city recorder; Mary Haswell Webber, city treasurer, and B. W. Paul, J. W. Jacobs, O. O. Alenderfer, E. W.

Janney, J. H. Butler and L. J. Crosse, councilmen.

Jackson county elected George Dunn of Ashland for state senator and John H. Carkin and Ralph Cowgill for state representative. C. M. Thomas of Medford, repub-lican, was elected circuit judge of this district by a landslide in this and Josephine counties over E. E. Keily of Medford. His opponent was a democrat and ardent antiklan man. This race was the hardest fought of the campaign.

For some reason four Jackson county precincts had not up to late today reported on the $100,000 county road bond issue and the city water commission charter for Med-$100,000 ford, but both measures are so far ahead that they doubtless carried
