AMUSEMENTS.

ORPHEUM (Broadway at Taylor)—Vaudeville. Two shows daily, 2:10 and 8:15 P. M.

BAKER (Eleventh and Morrison)—Lyric Musical Comedy company, 2, 7 and 9 P. M.

HIPPODROME (Broadway at Yamhill)—Vaudeville and moving pictures continuous daily, 1:15 to 11 P. M.

PANTAGES (Broadway at Alder)—Vaudeville. Three shows daily, 2:30, 7 and 9 P. M.

LECTURES DEAL WITH BOYS.—A series of lectures on the topic "Boy Problems" will be given every night this week in the Portsmouth schoolhouse by Chester A. Lyon. The meetings will be held at 8 o'clock, free of charge, and on Monday and Thursday nights boys are invited to attend with their parents. The following subjects are scheduled: Monday, "Five Keys That Unlock the Heart of a Boy"; Tuesday, "The Boy They Call Bad"; Wednesday, "Dad and Ma"; Thursday, "Live Wires"; Friday, "The Boy's World"; Saturday, "On the Wrong Road." Mr. Lyon will speak Sunday night in the University Park Methodist Episcopal church on the subject, "Being a Boy Brother."

TELEPHONE HEARING TODAY.—The plea of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company for an injunction preventing the public service commission from putting into effect the emergency order of October 30, lowering certain phone rates in the state, will be heard this morning at 10 o'clock in the United States court. Attorneys for the corporation claim that the order was issued without giving the company a chance to submit evidence and that the rates reduce the income of the company to such an extent that the firm cannot continue to exist on its earnings.

KIWANIS TO HEAR REPORTS.—A business meeting, devoted to reports of committees and a discussion of club activities, will feature the luncheon of the Kiwanis club at the Multnomah hotel tomorrow noon. Dr. J. C. Jones will report as district trustee and Dave Lofgren will tell of the activities of the public affairs committee. The education committee will superintend the induction of new members. The community chest drive will be discussed by Nelson G. Pike.

C. B. COOPER SPEAKS.—C. B. Cooper, vice-president of the Shipowners' Radio service of New York, and chairman of the broadcasting committee of the national radio chamber of commerce of Washington, D. C., addressed a meeting of the local radio dealers' association Friday night in the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Cooper spoke of the broadcasting conditions in the east and outlined a new plan of station classification which will soon be tried out there.

SOCK IS POOR SAFE.—Mrs. Nellie Devers, 394 Twelfth street, has lost faith in the time-honored sock as a safe depository for jewels and other valuables. Some person, evidently well acquainted with her habits, entered her room some time Saturday, she told police, and made off with her treasure trove, which contained a string of pearl beads, a diamond lavallierre and other articles, which she had hidden away in a remote corner of her clothes closet.

MOOSE HEAD RARE ONE.—A Kenai moose head, declared to be the second largest known specimen on the North American continent, has been hung over the stairway leading to the main dining room of the Chamber of Commerce. The head is the property of Carl N. Anderson, local engineer, who killed the big bull on the Chickaloon river in Alaska. There are 40 points on the antlers, which have a spread of 70 inches.

WOOL EXHIBIT ATTRACTS.—The wool exhibit of the Pacific Co-operative Wool Growers, which attracted so much attention at the Pacific International Livestock exposition, was prepared by Fred W. Herrin of Ashland, president of that organization, and R. A. Ward, manager. Mr. Herrin was in charge of the booth, which was headquarters for sheepmen attending the big show.

RADIO CONCERT TONIGHT.—Local radio fans are invited to tune in their receiving sets tonight for the special concert and vaudeville to be broadcast from the federal broadcasting station WGR at Buffalo, N. Y. The concert will be broadcast between 11 and 1, eastern standard time, which will make it between 8 and 10 o'clock local time.

WILLAMETTE DAY AT CHAMBER.—It will be Willamette university day at the members' forum of the Chamber of Commerce today noon. R. A. Booth, chairman of the present endowment campaign which is being conducted by that school, and Carl G. Doney, president of the university, will speak. The Willamette university quartet will sing.

ROTARY MEETING TOMORROW.—It will be district governors' day at the luncheon of the Rotary club at the Benson hotel tomorrow noon. Frank Lamb, governor of the northwest Rotary district, will be present and give an address. There will be club singing, led by Professor George D. Ingram, accompanied by Miss Ruby Lloyd.

I. W. W. SOLICITOR ARRESTED.—John Nelson, 40, a laborer, was arrested yesterday at Third and Oak streets on a charge of soliciting funds without a license. He told officers that the proceeds of his day's work went to the I. W. W. general fund. United States immigration authorities are to investigate his citizenship standing.

SCHOOL DEAL TO BE MADE.—Negotiations for the new Chapman school site will be closed this week, according to Frank L. Shull, chairman of the board of education of the Portland district. The site comprises two double blocks between Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh streets and Pettygrove and Raleigh streets.

MACHINE KEEPS BOOKS.—A new mechanical bookkeeping system, believed to be the equal of any in use in the city, has been installed by the Portland Chamber of Commerce. The mechanical system was selected by a special committee consisting of W. D. Whitcomb, Frank E. Andrews and W. H. Barton.

LAD STRUCK BY CAR.—Minor injuries were suffered by Visko Kuzmanich, 9-year-old boy living at 302 Cherry street, when he was hit by an automobile driven by Charles E. Lemon, 647 East Nineteenth street. The accident occurred on the steel bridge Saturday afternoon. The lad was taken home.

PROWLERS TAKE CLOTHING.—Prowlers entered the home of Olaf B. Mathison, 648 East Twenty-fourth street, some time Saturday afternoon when members of the family were downtown watching the Armistice day parade, and made off with a suit of clothing and several pieces of jewelry.

CHILD HURT IN FALL.—Hansen Perkel, 2-year-old son of Mrs. Linda Perkel, 233½ Sheridan street, was taken to Emanuel hospital yesterday, suffering from cuts and bruises about the head incurred in a fall from the steps of his home Saturday.

S. B. HALL MEMBER.—S. B. Hall, Multnomah county agricultural agent, has been made a member of the Chamber of Commerce and of the agricultural committee of that body.

PRAYER WEEK AT HAND.—The Portland Y. M. C. A. will observe the world-wide week of prayer, which is celebrated every year by every Y. M. C. A. in the world, from November 13 to November 19, inclusive. A men's meeting will be held in the association lobby each day of the week from 12:15 to 12:50. Speakers are scheduled as follows: Monday, Rev. C. C. Rarick; Tuesday, Rev. H. F. Given; Wednesday, Rev. C. S. Dunn; Thursday, Rev. T. H. Greene; Friday, Rev. J. J. Staub; Saturday, Rev. Lloyd Carick; Sunday, Rev. Owen T. Day.

WOMEN'S LUNCHEON SATURDAY.—A luncheon to gather pledges toward Oregon's $10,000 gift for the education of women of the orient will be held Saturday, November 25, in the Arcadian gardens of the Multnomah hotel. Mrs. Henry W. Peabody of Boston, national head of the campaign, will be the guest of honor and speaker. Mrs. Charles W. Williams, chairman of the executive committee of the Oregon campaign, will preside. One hundred covers will be laid.

SHRINE TO GIVE PRIZES

MOST POPULAR GIRL AND BABY TO BE SOUGHT.

Al Kader Temple Announces Plan for Advertising Portland at Washington, D. C.

Nobles of Al Kader temple of the Mystic Shrine are going to tell the world all about Portland. At least they are going to tell that portion of the world assembled at Washington, D. C., next year when the Imperial Council of the shrine convenes at the national capital. It is expected that the forthcoming session will be one of the largest ever held by the Shriners and the Portland nobles have decided that they will not overlook the opportunity to advertise their city and state. Not only will they shout Portland and Oregon at Washington, but going and coming they will let every one know that they are from the famous Rose City of the west.

In order to raise funds to make the pilgrimage, Al Kader temple will stage an Indoor Circus and Arabian Fete at the Auditorium from Monday, December 4 to Thursday, December 14, inclusive, except Sunday. Shrine circus headquarters have been opened by A. L. Tetu, illustrious potentate, at 90 Broadway, near Stark, and A. T. Trego has been placed in charge of the offices by Hal T. Hutchinson, who is chairman and director-general of the circus.

Circus directors have announced two popularity contests in connection with the enterprise. One will be to determine the most popular young woman in Portland and vicinity and the other will be for the most popular baby. The contests are open to all, but in order to insure a personnel of candidates of the highest character and truly representative of the young womanhood of this district, candidates must be nominated or sponsored by a shriner. This does not imply that the contestants must necessarily be relatives of shriners. They simply must be indorsed by shriners.

More than $2400 worth of prizes will be distributed in these contests. There will be an automobile valued at $1425 as first prize for the most popular young woman. Five diamond rings also will be awarded, two as second and third prizes in the young women's contest and three in the baby contests. The noble nominating the winner of the automobile will be given a platinum diamond studded Shrine emblem valued at $100, and the noble acting in a like capacity for the winning baby will be awarded a $25 pair of Shrine cuff buttons.

The contest will start Tuesday, November 28, and end Thursday, December 14.

INCOME TAX NOTE OUT

Internal Revenue Collector Gives Warning on Bookkeeping.

"In connection with making out income tax returns for the year 1921," announced Clyde G. Huntley, collector of internal revenue, yesterday, "taxpayers are reminded that under the provision of a recent treasury decision every individual carrying on the business of producing, manufacturing, purchasing or selling any commodities or merchandise, except the business of growing and selling products of the soil, shall, for the purpose of determining the amount of income, keep such permanent books of account or records, including inventories, as are necessary to establish the amount of gross income and deductions, credits and other information required by an income tax return."

By keeping such required books of account or record, which must be produced for the inspection of revenue officers duly authorized by law to inspect the same, Collector Huntley says taxpayers will materially simplify the task of properly making out their income tax returns for the current year. These returns must be filed not later than March 15.

Famous Baritone Coming.

Royal Dadmun, famous American baritone, will be soloist with the Portland Symphony orchestra next Wednesday evening at its first concert this season. Seats now on sale at the Heilig theater. Prices, $2.50, $2, $1.50, $1; no war tax. Season tickets, $12, $10, $8, $5.—Adv.

POLICE ARREST 96 IN NIGHT REVELRY

Armistice Celebrators Fill City Jail Cells.

ATTACHES KEPT BUSY

Drunken and Reckless Motorists Caught; Disorderly Trio Kicks in Door.

Hilarity in celebrating Armistice day resulted in the arrest late Saturday and early Sunday of 96 persons on charges ranging from drunkenness to reckless driving. Eleven motorists with open cutouts and four careless drivers were taken to the station.

Jail attaches were kept under strain yesterday in accepting bail and answering calls from anxious friends and relatives of merry-makers whose night of revelry put them on the missing list. Practically 100 per cent of the straying folk were found to have spent the night in cells.

Clifford Harlow was arrested at Fourth and Everett streets when he stopped his machine, after it had already followed a wierd course in front of an astonished patrolman, and took a drink in the middle of the street. Possession of liquor and driving while drunk were charged against him.

Drunken Drivers Caught.

Officers took enough interest in Frank Leahy to board his car at Second and Madison at 2:30 A. M. Sunday and warn him that he was too drunk to drive. He retaliated, they said, by putting up a fight. He was arrested and charged with drunken driving.

Lee Bloom, 26, a garageman, crashed into a car driven by R. Brady at Broadway and Larrabee streets at 3:30 A. M. Traffic officers who investigated found a pint of moonshine in his possession. He was charged with reckless driving and having liquor.

Trio Kick in Door.

Harold Craig, Edward Maitland and Herbert Smith advanced in full formation on a house at 253 Everett street, according to the complaint of Matt M. DeVis, who lives there, demanded admittance, were denied and proceeded to kick in the door. The patrol wagon hurried to the scene of the attack and the trio were carried off to jail where they were charged with disorderly conduct.

P. A. Newton, 302 Eaton hotel, complained to police that he emerged from a crap game, held in observance of the close of hostilities in the great war, with $40 missing over and above the amount of money that passed back and forth to the tune of clicking ivories. He accuses a trio of strangers to whom he was attracted, he said, by a fluent reminiscence of thrilling war days.

Six worried motorists reported supposed thefts of their cars to police in the progress of the night. Investigation showed that the owner in each case had forgotten where he parked his car.

George H. Bubott brought a large part of the station personnel out on the street at Second and Oak to watch his arrest for drunken driving. Morris O'Niel, Clarence Cassary and Louis Emrich, his companions, were charged with drunkenness.

Concert at Auditorium Closes Music Week.

Portland Musicians Give Interesting Presentations.

BY C. HILTON-TURVEY.

A VERY interesting municipal concert at the auditorium yesterday afternoon was the final event in music week. Frederick W. Goodrich opened with "A Concert Overture in E. Flat," by William Faulkes. The composition, a vigorous one, favored the tonal resources of the organ, and Mr. Goodrich, as always, showed himself master of his instrument.

The Portland municipal chorus was unable to appear. The leader, Carl Denton, had instructed the chorus to assemble for a rehearsal immediately before the concert, because its music had only just arrived, but so many failed to appear on time that the chorus was unable to fulfill its engagement. Its place was filled by a contingent of the Franklin High Glee club, who gave the Waltz Song by Arditi, and the "Barcarolle" from "Tales of Hoffman," both well sung.

Miss Helen Harper gave evident pleasure in two violin solos, Schubert's "Ave Maria" and "A Serenade" by Prega. Miss Harper plays with beauty of tone and sentiment. Mr. Goodrich gave new values to the "Chante Indoue" of Rimsky-Korsakoff, a composition that lends itself admirably to the voice of the organ. The less well-known "Prelude in B Flat Minor" of Rachmaninoff was played by Mr. Goodrich in a manner that brought out its peculiar Russian flavor. His other numbers, rather lighter in effect, were "Chant d'Amour" (Ghilette), and "Midsummer Caprice" (Johnston).

Miss Dorothea Schoop, a young pianist, played two Liszt numbers, "A Dream of Love" and the brilliant "Polonaise." She showed marked maturity of artistic conception in what she played, and a fluent technique. As encore Miss Schoop played Percy Grainger's "Country Gardens." A men's chorus from the Franklin high sang a group of sea songs with delightful effect. As encore they gave the "Rig-a-Jig" song, dear to the hearts of college boys the country over.

John Claire Monteith, baritone, sang the late Tom Dobson's setting of Masefield's poem, "I Saw a Ship a-Sailing," with his usual fine style and voice. As encore he sang Kipling's "Recessional," de Koven's setting. Mr. Monteith gave this the broad, big tone that the sentiment demands, with splendid artistic effect.

The concert closed with a march by Meyerbeer, played by Mr. Goodrich, and as encore, "The Star Spangled Banner," rendered with the full power of the organ.

Hal M. White, manager of the auditorium municipal concerts, states that in all its three years' activities the municipal concert management has never failed to give the programmes as announced until yesterday afternoon, when the municipal chorus was unable to appear in its numbers through a circumstance that could not have been foreseen.

PINEAPPLES ARE $1 EACH

FLORIDA GRAPEFRUIT SELL AT 15 TO 25 CENTS.

Busy Day Expected in Shops as Result of Double Holiday at Week-end.

Today promised to be a busy day for Portland stores, since both Saturday and Sunday were holidays and most housewives, no doubt, have found supplies running low by the first of the week. Fresh pineapples which were in the stores Saturday will be offered today at $1 each. Grapefruit, Florida variety, is about 15 and 20 cents each.

Fresh limes are in and sell at 60 cents a dozen. Pomegranites and persimmons are 10 cents each. Extra large Winter Nellis pears are priced at 50 cents a dozen and afford an extra fancy article for the fruit basket. Cranberries are 25 and 30 cents a pound for the eastern variety and 20 and 25 cents a pound and two pounds for 45 cents for the Oregon product. Tokay and Malaga grapes are offered at about 10 cents a pound and are large and luscious in appearance. Fancy bananas are selling at 15 cents a pound and 50 cents a dozen.

A heavy frost in California has seriously damaged the artichokes, lettuce and cauliflower. Artichokes, which have been 15 cents each, will sell today at 20 cents each. California lettuce is 15 cents a head and cauliflower will be 20 cents a head. A hard storm in South America is reported to have done great damage to an area of bananas, impairing the supply.

MEAT PRICES UNCHANGED

Large Supplies of Beef, Veal, Pork, Lamb in Prospect.

Meat prices for today will remain practically the same as in previous weeks. No special prices will be made until late in the week. Supplies of beef, veal, pork and lamb are expected to be large and the quality of the meat is good, dealers state.

Halibut and sturgeon prices will be about 30 cents today and salmon will sell at 25 cents. Sand dabs and sole will be offered at 20 cents and the price of black cod will be 15 cents a pound. Trout is selling at 40 cents a pound, and crabs are 35, 40 and 50 cents each, according to size.

Roasts and frys are generally priced from 32 to 30 cents a pound, and stews range from 28 to 38 cents. Ducks are 38 cents a pound, turkeys, 52 cents and capons, 55 cents.

BRIBE EFFORT CHARGED

Druggist Accused of Offering $5 to Patrolmen.

Efforts of Harold B. Jenkinson, 23, a druggist, to call off morals squad officers from two friends in a pool hall at 110½ Sixth street Saturday night by flashing a $5 bill resulted in his own incarceration on a charge of attempted bribery.

Arthur Manning, 22, and Lawrence Johnson, 25, electricians, were taken into custody by Patrolman McGrath, Chamberlain, Fair and Meiners. Alarmed by the seeming preparations of the officers to take his friends off to jail, Jenkinson, the patrolmen declared, announced that he would "fix things" and produced the bill in evidence of his good faith.

The trio will appear in municipal court this morning.

DAMON ROBS PYTHIAS

Old Friendship Broken by Loss of $30 From Pocket.

A friendship that had grown through the years until it reached an intensity comparable with that of Damon and Pythias was cruelly shattered Saturday afternoon when Gust Stark took sudden leave from the room at 41 North Second street where Fred Baraisky lay sleeping and set out somewhere in the general direction of San Francisco. Baraisky complained to police that Stark took with him $30, filched from Baraisky's pockets.

"I'd have let him have the money if he had asked for it," the injured one said. "Why, just last week I found him broke and down and out and bought him a new suit, and this is the way he repays me. Bah!"

SALEM MEN TO BUILD

Backers of Apartment Structure to Incorporate.

SALEM, Or., Nov. 12.—(Special.)—Articles of incorporation will be filed in Salem tomorrow for the Capitol Apartment company. The capital stock will be $200,000. The incorporators are Fred D. Thielson, W. E. Wilson and Warren Armington.

Plans and specifications for the structure to be built by the corporation have been completed and actual work probably will be started within the next few weeks. The building will contain 70 apartments. It will be equipped with electric stoves, steam heat and electric elevators. In the basement will be a grill for the convenience of tenants and statehouse employes. The property on which the apartment house will be erected is less than a block from the capitol.

Local folks were said to have contributed liberally of their funds for the erection of the building.
