

NEWBERRY QUILTS PLACE IN SENATE

Resignation Is to Take Effect at Once.

COLLEAGUE'S DEFEAT CAUSE

Attempt to Continue Service Held "Futile."

PARTY ENMITY IS CITED

Retiring Senator Feels He Would Be "Hampered by Partisan Political Persecution."

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Truman H. Newberry of Michigan, whose right to a place in the senate has been a subject of long and bitter controversy, has submitted his resignation with a request that it become effective immediately.

In a letter to Governor Grosbeck, made public here tonight, Mr. Newberry said he had been impelled to retire voluntarily because of the defeat of his republican colleague, Senator Townsend, in the election of November 7. The terms of events, he said, would make it "futile" for him to attempt to continue his public services since he continually would be "hampered by partisan political persecution."

Controversy Is Reviewed.

Reviewing the outstanding features of the controversy which grew out of his election four years ago over Henry Ford, his democratic opponent, he declared his right to a seat in the senate had been "fully confirmed." He added that if in the future there seemed to be opportunities for public service he would not hesitate to offer himself to his state and country.

The resignation brings to an end a fight which already has made political history and which, it appeared, would be resumed early in the session of congress which begins tomorrow. Convicted in Michigan of a conspiracy to violate election laws, Senator Newberry appealed to the supreme court which declared unconstitutional the statute under which he was accused.

Senate Confirms Seat.

The senate itself after a long investigation finally confirmed his title to a seat by a margin of five votes. In the campaign just closed the case was an issue in many states. A copy of the letter of resignation sent to Governor Grosbeck was delivered today to Vice-President Coolidge by Walter R. Dorsey, Mr. Newberry's secretary.

Mr. Newberry himself is at his home in Detroit. The letter to the governor, dated November 18, was as follows:

"I tender herewith my resignation as United States senator from Michigan to take immediate effect.

Colleague's Defeat Cited.

"I am impelled to take this action because of the recent election. Notwithstanding his long and faithful public service and his strict adherence to the basic principles of constructive republicanism which I hold in common with him, Senator Townsend was defeated. While this failure to re-elect him may have been brought about in part by over four years of continuous propaganda of misrepresentation and untruth, a fair analysis of the vote taken in Michigan and other states where friends and political enemies alike have suffered defeat, will demonstrate that a general feeling of unrest was mainly responsible therefor.

"This situation renders futile further service by me in the United States senate where I have consistently supported the progressive policies of President Harding's administration. My work there has been and would continue to be hampered by partisan political persecution and I therefore cheerfully return my commission to the people from whom I received it.

Gratitude Is Expressed.

"I desire to record an expression of my gratitude for the splendid friendship, loyalty and devotion of those who have endured with me during the last four years, experiences unparalleled in the political history of our country. By direction of the democratic administration these began immediately upon my nomination by proceedings before a specially-selected grand jury sitting in another state, which by a vote of 16 to 1 completely exonerated those who had conducted my campaign.

"Then followed my election, with every issue which has since been raised clearly before the electorate of the state. A recount was demanded and after a thorough and painstaking review of the ballots by the United States senate, I was found to have received a majority. While this was in progress I was subjected, with a large number of representative men of Michigan who had supported me, to a trial, following indictments procured by a democratic department of justice which, through hundreds of agents, had hounded and terrified men in all parts of the state into believing that some wrong had been done. Under the instructions given by the court conviction of a conspiracy to spend

BIG WHISKY CARGO SINKS

Launch With 800 Cases of Scotch Goes Down Off Long Island.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Captain Taves of the good ship Hahn, of the prohibition navy, mixed a mighty highball Thursday, of the capacity of about a cubic acre, 12 miles off the Long Island shore. It became known today, with the aid of a depth bomb he mixed 8000 quarts of Scotch with the surrounding sea water.

The whisky went to the bottom early last week. There were 800 cases of it. A launch had run alongside a whisky runner and was starting shoreward with a precious cargo when it was overwhelmed by heavy seas and sank.

Lane County Supervisor Walks Far to Visit Schools.

EUGENE, Or., Nov. 18.—(Special.)—Owing to the impassability of the roads in the western part of Lane county at this time of year, J. G. Swan, county rural school supervisor, walked between 80 and 100 miles to visit schools in that section last week.

Mr. Swan left Eugene November 8, leaving the train at Rainier. He hiked over the Indian creek trail to North Fork. Here he visited the schools, and from there he made a circuit to Big creek and Heeta and back to Florence afoot, crossing the Siuslaw river and visiting several schools on the south side of that stream.

GOVERNOR DENIES PLOT

Oklahoma Denounces Murder Tale as Dastardly Lie.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Nov. 19.—Governor J. B. Robertson today branded as a "dastardly and damnable lie" charges filed in district court at Okmulgee, Okla., last night, against him, alleging that he released a murder convict from the state penitentiary, "to kill the county attorney of Okmulgee county."

The chief executive bitterly denounced the public official who "has stooped so low" as to make the charge.

COAL OUTPUT REDUCED

Lower Production Reflected in Car Loadings.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 19.—Preliminary estimates on coal production in the week ending November 11 as revised by late reports reflecting the curtailed output because of election day and Armistice day put the total coal raised at 11,932,000 net tons.

Early returns on car loadings at mines during the past week indicate 12,200,000 net tons, comprising 11,100,000 tons of soft coal and 2,100,000 tons of anthracite.

Paris to Get Support in Reparations Demands.

FACT IMPORTANT ONE

Significance Appreciated Only by Remembering How Far Apart Two Nations Had Drifted.

BY RAYMOND FENDRICK. (Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service, Copyright, 1922, by the Chicago Tribune.) PARIS, Nov. 19.—Sir John Bradbury, British reparations delegate, today received instructions from London to support the French reparations claims against Germany to the utmost possible limit.

It was Great Britain honoring without hesitation Lord Curzon's promise to Premier Poincare at Quai d'Orsay yesterday of Great Britain's support to France making Germany hark up and pay in return for heavy French support in making peace in the Near East that would be satisfactory to the British Empire.

British Diplomatic Horse Trade.

This huge diplomatic horse trade, which in a day transmuted the Anglo-French entente from a scrap of paper into the most powerful authority in Europe, is the biggest rearrangement of power in the world since November 11, 1918.

Europe Held Fortunate.

The details of the peace to be imposed on Turkey and the consequent effects on Russia become of secondary interest compared with the good fortune to Europe as finally gained by the French and British governments able to co-operate. The details of this peace, which Premier Mussolini will be asked to ratify tonight, are not insignificant as shown by the following points:

1. To insure freedom of the straits. They must be open in war time as well as in peace time, to warships as well as to steamers and the zones along the straits to be demilitarized to prevent Turkish armaments. This will incidentally allow the greatest naval power to choke Russia at any time.
2. France will join the other allies in coercive military measures against Turkey in case of refusal to accept the peace terms. Rumanian and Serbian troops will also be passed on the Thracian frontier.
3. The allies to occupy Constantinople and the Asiatic neutral zones until the peace treaty is ratified by the parliaments.
4. Capitulations to be abolished, but their substance to be retained under another name.
5. Palestine, Syrian and Mesopotamia.

HINTS FOR THE PORTLAND HOUSEHOLDERS THIS WEEK AND NEXT.

Answer doorbell promptly when the Community Chest solicitor calls. Have your mind made up as to the amount you will subscribe—and be generous. Treat with courtesy the woman who calls upon you. You can keep up her morale by being kind. She is doing an act of charity in calling at your home. Help her by subscribing promptly and saving her time. Above all—help! Give by the month.

"Out of the trenches by Thanksgiving!"

This order was passed along down the line yesterday by General E. C. Sammons, in command of the Community Chest drive that starts early this morning. "Snap into it and clean up thoroughly and quickly," he directed. "Make Thanksgiving day worthy of the name. Give the whole town something to be really thankful for. Do your stuff and we'll all eat turkey instead of crow a week from Thursday. Let's go."

General Sammons gave a last look at his war maps, lists and other headquarters data yesterday and gave out the word that everything is ready for the big drive that opens to get all Portland on the dotted line.

City in Generous Mood.

Scouts carried the word to headquarters that Portland's people are in more generous mood this year than at the time of the last drive. They are more convinced than ever of the merits of the chest way of caring for the helpless. Indications are that the drive will go over in good shape, it was declared. Another thing that is the basis for high hopes is the fact that the last drive was smashed by a virulent wave of influenza that decimated the campaign organization. Workers by the hundreds, from the general chairman in command down, were laid low for a week or more by the flu, just when every unit of the drive should have been working its hardest.

There are no signs of such a disaster this year and it is believed by those directing the effort that with the absence of such an untoward circumstance, nothing can keep the campaign organization from raising its budget.

St. Paul in Race.

Portland has somewhat of a race in its chest drive, St. Paul, Minn., a city in the same class, starts its chest campaign today, too, and its budget of $670,000 compares favorably with the $448,329 that the drive here expects to raise. There will be a keen watch kept on what St. Paul does here at home, and with the confident feeling so apparent at headquarters, it is not believed the showing made will be at all to the discredit of Portland.

The official kickoff of the drive will take place at noon at the big indicator set up at Sixth and Morrison streets, on the corner of the old postoffice grounds. Mayor Baker will raise the flag and declare the hunt for dollars under way. There will be speaking and stunts.

Parade Is Planned.

Preceding the programme at the indicator a short street parade through the main portion of the business section will be staged. The procession will be led by a band donated by the Musicians' Mutual union. Members of the fire department in fire trucks, with sirens shrieking, will add to the clamor. Mayor Baker's address officially opening the drive will be followed by an appealing tableau. From the crowd will walk a little girl, thinly clad, hunger-stricken. Seeing the huge loaf of bread at the top of the ladder she will eagerly rush forward to—disappointment. For she cannot reach the bread because the ladder is without rungs. Almost hopelessly, pitifully she will glance to one side, then the other, with a wordless appeal for aid.

Touched by the appeal Mayor Baker will step forward, seize a hammer lying nearby and swiftly drive into place the number of rungs subscriptions to the chest have made
