

AID PLEDGED STATE FOR FIGHT ON KLAN

President Promises Help if It Should Be Needed.

GOVERNOR SEES HARDING

Louisiana Declared to Be Able to Take Care of Itself, but Federal Protection Assured.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Assurances were given Governor Parker of Louisiana today by President Harding that where federal interests were involved in the alleged activities of the Ku Klux Klan in that state the federal authorities were ready to extend full co-operation. This was in reply to a request by the governor for government help in cutting off from the organization in Louisiana the support and encouragement, which, he asserted, it was receiving from the outside.

At the White House conference between the president and Mr. Parker, attended also by Attorney-General Daugherty and the attorney-general of Louisiana, A. V. Cocco, it was agreed that the state government would be fully able to take care of the situation. The governor called attention to the campaign he has been conducting against the Klan for months and declared in a formal statement issued on leaving the White House that regardless of cost or consequences, a most thorough investigation would be made of reported outrages.

Vassalage of State Denied.

At the same time he vigorously denied that there in Louisiana any such situation as that described in articles written by a staff correspondent of the Washington Post and published yesterday. In a letter to the Post, which he made public, Mr. Parker said the statement in those articles that the Klan has reduced the sovereign state of Louisiana to the vassalage of the invisible empire, was "one of the most amazing, inaccurate observations he had ever known a newspaper man to make."

Arriving here early today from Baton Rouge, Governor Parker conferred with W. J. Burns, chief of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice, before going to the White House. The conference was held for an hour and a half and at its conclusion Attorney-General Daugherty issued this statement for the president:

"It appears that the state of Louisiana will be fully able to take care of the situation. There is nothing at this time for the federal government to do except to give assurances to the state authorities that wherever federal interests are involved, federal authorities are ready to extend full co-operation."

Article Held Slender.

In his letter to the Post, the Louisiana governor said that never since he had been reading newspapers had he known a writer "to build such a ineffectual superstructure on such a slight foundation of fact as was done in the article sent to the Post from Baton Rouge and printed with such display in your issue yesterday." He added that the article was "a slander on Louisiana and its chief executive."

Asserting that the article was "90 per cent inaccurate," and conveyed a totally wrong impression, the governor wrote that "the damage was done by it" and that he had given it to the display in the Post would "be made the subject of conferences on my return to Louisiana, at which time it will be referred to the further action that will be taken."

"Masked men and invisible empires have no place in America," the latter continued, "and I have denounced the Ku Klux Klan as vigorously as I know how in its own stronghold. We have only begun to fight this movement, which strikes at fundamentals of orderly government. We will be able to rid Louisiana of this vicious development the more quickly if we can have the help of other states and of the federal government. We can deal effectively with our local situation if it can be cut off from the support and encouragement it is receiving from the outside."

"I have sought cooperation in an effort to meet the situation in most immediate ways and to free the people of some of our communities from the terrorism in which they are now held. Since the Klan does not work in the open, I may say that the problem presented is largely an investigational one."

UPTON BOOM IS UPSET

(Continued From First Page.)

of the Eddy contingent during the afternoon and a war council was held, at which Senators Eddy, Moser, Staples, Farrell, Hare and Joseph attended. It was while these senators were talking things over that the long-distance phone came from Senator LaFollette from the Elks' club at Salem. "Firearm" of the wire was used freely getting in touch with Senators Kenney and Clark.

Satisfied that four of the supposed 10 votes of Upton were in the hands of Eddy, Moser and the others began talking turkey, with a view to convincing the others.

JENSEN & VON HERBERG

Greater Movie Season

RIVOLI, LIBERTY, PEOPLES, MAJESTIC, COLUMBIA—It starts NOV. 25

ENTERTAINMENT DE LUXE

Look to Your Eyes

Beautiful Eyes, like fine teeth, are the result of constant care. The daily use of Murine makes eyes clear and radiant, removes, soothes, and refreshes. Recommended by All Druggists.

MURINE

KNAPP LOGGER IS INJURED.

ASTORIA, Or., Nov. 20.—(Special.)—Pete Taratis, an employee at the Big Creek Logging company's camp near Knappa, was severely injured today when he was struck by a log truck. The muscles were torn from his left shoulder and his body and head were badly cut and bruised.

CHAMBER IS READY TO BEGIN CAMPAIGN

Plans for Raising $300,000 Fund Are Laid.

FEELING IS OPTIMISTIC

Exploitation of Resources and Upbuilding of State Goal of Local Organization.

Preliminary plans in connection with the Chamber of Commerce drive to raise funds for its Oregon development programme were outlined at a joint meeting of the executive and advertising committees yesterday. The advertising features of the campaign were particularly discussed and a movement started that will carry the chamber's message into all quarters where the best results may be obtained. It was determined that all Portland and Oregon should be made thoroughly aware of the chamber's objective, the upbuilding of the state and the exploitation of Oregon's resources to the world.

However, what is considered by those in charge of the movement to be most important will be the effort to place the farmers and producers of the state already here on a more secure and prosperous footing. This is regarded as essential before the real campaign to bring settlers into the state can be launched on the extensive plan proposed.

Land Settlement Planned.

In order to accomplish this the programme contemplates an educational campaign which will include such subjects as marketing, land settlement in all its phases, public and organization for execution. This branch of the work, however, will not be launched until the drive for funds to carry on the entire work has ended successfully.

Assurances were given at the meeting yesterday that the entire fund of $300,000 would be raised without difficulty. The whole membership of the chamber of commerce will be enlisted in the enterprise and those who have acquainted themselves with the plans and purposes of the organization are enthusiastic in their support of the entire programme. The fund will provide for activities covering a duration of two years, but the whole $300,000 will be raised before a start is made.

Commission to Spend Money.

The expenditure of this sum will devolve upon a commission that will be appointed later by the chamber. The present committees are committed only to the raising of the money and are not authorized in any way, make pledges as to its distribution.

The executive committee in charge of the drive for the big fund consists of R. W. Price, chairman; William Murray, J. P. Jaeger, James D. Abbott, Cameron Squires, W. Q. Bateman, C. C. East, Roy T. Bishop, H. C. Wortman and A. J. Bask.

W. J. Hofmann is chairman of the advertising committee and his assistants are George Hill, A. Davidson, W. S. Kirkpatrick, W. P. Strandberg, David M. Botstford and Frederick Hyskell.

TRAFFIC REPORT READY

(Continued From First Page.)

worked out for the routing of these trains.

However, awaiting conferences and hearings, the committee has designated Columbia, Salmon, Fourth and Tenth streets as two-way traffic streets on account of these interurban trains. The report says the Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric are operating under franchises and for that reason it was unwise to attempt any arbitrary or sweeping changes until opportunity had been given for the adjustment of these routes.

Pending such conferences, the committee recommends that passenger trains of the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific be routed so as to discharge passengers at Front and Jefferson streets and that interurban trains of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company be stopped at the east end of the Hawthorn bridge.

The committee recommends adjustment of street railway traffic to conform to the general plan by the

Radio Show

Latest Amateur and Professional Developments

Pittcock Bldg. Nov. 25-Dec. 2

Evening-Afternoon

COURT REBUKES IRATE MAN FOR CHASING BYSTANDER WITH BOWIE.

Gus Tarmakas' explanations in municipal court yesterday that a steak knife may cut steak but is of no use as a weapon failed to meet the approval of Judge Ekwall. He was fined $25 for disorderly conduct, a charge growing out of a spirited chase conducted from First to Third street on Madison Saturday night. A Skata was the other party, in the role of the pursued.

The row was over Tarmakas' insistence that $5 which he had spent in a bootlegger's joint be returned to him. Skata, seemingly an innocent bystander, aroused the wrath of Tarmakas and then followed the chase. Skata had not completely recovered from his fright even yesterday.

"You can't run a man through the streets with a Bowie knife like that and get away with it, even though the knife was meant for beef," the judge declared.

GIVE BY THE MONTH

COMMUNITY CHEST

WOMAN IN SENATE HONORED BY ALL

Mrs. Felton Is Center of Everyone's Interest.

GALLERY CHEERS LOUD

Adjournment Taken at Once in Tribute to Late Mr. Watson; Swearing In Is Today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Georgia's "grand old lady," Mrs. W. H. Felton, first woman senator, was the star member of the cast in the opening today of the convening of the congress. To be sworn in and sit for a day was tomorrow her plea for an actual senator in all other respects she enjoyed a thrilling debut as the congressional curtain was raised. And there was good prospect tonight that success would crown her hope of becoming the first woman senator in fact as well as name, if only for a day.

The 87-year-old woman, a breath of lavender and lace from the old south, today was all but an actual senator, occupying a seat on the senate floor for hours, where she was cheered by the gallery crowds and was the object of congratulation by senators, representatives and officials who thronged about her in informal receptions.

Plea Is to Be Renewed.

She was feted also by crowds about the senate, where she photographed and dined. Tired but happy, tonight she was prepared to renew tomorrow her plea for an official place in the senate.

Of all senators, past, present or future, Mrs. Felton was the first to appear today on the floor. Accompanied by ex-Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia and wearing a black bonnet, fur coat and white gloves, she arrived more than an hour before the noon convening hour. Soon she was "at home," hanging up her bonnet and coat in the democratic cloak room, shaking out her silk dress and lace collar, she was assigned to an absent senator's chair alongside Senator Harris, democrat of Georgia, and while the exposure of all eyes and the lodestone of arriving senators who hastened to shake her hand and offer best wishes.

Gallery Is Enthusiastic.

Gallery crowds, largely composed of women, overflowing into the halls, cheered and applauded the white-haired woman as, shortly before the senate convened, she was escorted to an ante room to receive a huge bouquet of 77 red roses. Again the crowd broke into a noisy demonstration as she returned to her seat, where she remained through the brief session, watching each move intently through her gold spectacles. Clapped in her lap, rolled in brown paper, she held her commission as a senator, received two months ago by appointment upon the death of Senator Thomas E. Watson.

All in the senate paid tribute to the first woman member. She was received by Vice-President Coolidge and met nearly all senators, republicans and democrats, as well as officials and pages.

No Disappointment Shown.

No disappointment was manifested by Mrs. Felton when told that no new senators could be sworn in today, she apparently grasping quickly what many veteran senate leaders for several days had forgotten—that the senate had to be officially notified of the death of a senator before his successor could be received.

TRAFFIC REPORT READY

(Continued From First Page.)

worked out for the routing of these trains.

However, awaiting conferences and hearings, the committee has designated Columbia, Salmon, Fourth and Tenth streets as two-way traffic streets on account of these interurban trains. The report says the Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric are operating under franchises and for that reason it was unwise to attempt any arbitrary or sweeping changes until opportunity had been given for the adjustment of these routes.

Pending such conferences, the committee recommends that passenger trains of the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific be routed so as to discharge passengers at Front and Jefferson streets and that interurban trains of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company be stopped at the east end of the Hawthorn bridge.

The committee recommends adjustment of street railway traffic to conform to the general plan by the

Radio Show

Latest Amateur and Professional Developments

Pittcock Bldg. Nov. 25-Dec. 2

Evening-Afternoon

GIVE BY THE MONTH

COMMUNITY CHEST

WOMAN IN SENATE HONORED BY ALL

Mrs. Felton Is Center of Everyone's Interest.

GALLERY CHEERS LOUD

Adjournment Taken at Once in Tribute to Late Mr. Watson; Swearing In Is Today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Georgia's "grand old lady," Mrs. W. H. Felton, first woman senator, was the star member of the cast in the opening today of the convening of the congress. To be sworn in and sit for a day was tomorrow her plea for an actual senator in all other respects she enjoyed a thrilling debut as the congressional curtain was raised. And there was good prospect tonight that success would crown her hope of becoming the first woman senator in fact as well as name, if only for a day.

The 87-year-old woman, a breath of lavender and lace from the old south, today was all but an actual senator, occupying a seat on the senate floor for hours, where she was cheered by the gallery crowds and was the object of congratulation by senators, representatives and officials who thronged about her in informal receptions.

Plea Is to Be Renewed.

She was feted also by crowds about the senate, where she photographed and dined. Tired but happy, tonight she was prepared to renew tomorrow her plea for an official place in the senate.

Of all senators, past, present or future, Mrs. Felton was the first to appear today on the floor. Accompanied by ex-Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia and wearing a black bonnet, fur coat and white gloves, she arrived more than an hour before the noon convening hour. Soon she was "at home," hanging up her bonnet and coat in the democratic cloak room, shaking out her silk dress and lace collar, she was assigned to an absent senator's chair alongside Senator Harris, democrat of Georgia, and while the exposure of all eyes and the lodestone of arriving senators who hastened to shake her hand and offer best wishes.

Gallery Is Enthusiastic.

Gallery crowds, largely composed of women, overflowing into the halls, cheered and applauded the white-haired woman as, shortly before the senate convened, she was escorted to an ante room to receive a huge bouquet of 77 red roses. Again the crowd broke into a noisy demonstration as she returned to her seat, where she remained through the brief session, watching each move intently through her gold spectacles. Clapped in her lap, rolled in brown paper, she held her commission as a senator, received two months ago by appointment upon the death of Senator Thomas E. Watson.

All in the senate paid tribute to the first woman member. She was received by Vice-President Coolidge and met nearly all senators, republicans and democrats, as well as officials and pages.

No Disappointment Shown.

No disappointment was manifested by Mrs. Felton when told that no new senators could be sworn in today, she apparently grasping quickly what many veteran senate leaders for several days had forgotten—that the senate had to be officially notified of the death of a senator before his successor could be received.

TRAFFIC REPORT READY

(Continued From First Page.)

worked out for the routing of these trains.

However, awaiting conferences and hearings, the committee has designated Columbia, Salmon, Fourth and Tenth streets as two-way traffic streets on account of these interurban trains. The report says the Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric are operating under franchises and for that reason it was unwise to attempt any arbitrary or sweeping changes until opportunity had been given for the adjustment of these routes.

Pending such conferences, the committee recommends that passenger trains of the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific be routed so as to discharge passengers at Front and Jefferson streets and that interurban trains of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company be stopped at the east end of the Hawthorn bridge.

The committee recommends adjustment of street railway traffic to conform to the general plan by the

Radio Show

Latest Amateur and Professional Developments

Pittcock Bldg. Nov. 25-Dec. 2

Evening-Afternoon

GIVE BY THE MONTH

COMMUNITY CHEST

WOMAN IN SENATE HONORED BY ALL

Mrs. Felton Is Center of Everyone's Interest.

GALLERY CHEERS LOUD

Adjournment Taken at Once in Tribute to Late Mr. Watson; Swearing In Is Today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Georgia's "grand old lady," Mrs. W. H. Felton, first woman senator, was the star member of the cast in the opening today of the convening of the congress. To be sworn in and sit for a day was tomorrow her plea for an actual senator in all other respects she enjoyed a thrilling debut as the congressional curtain was raised. And there was good prospect tonight that success would crown her hope of becoming the first woman senator in fact as well as name, if only for a day.

The 87-year-old woman, a breath of lavender and lace from the old south, today was all but an actual senator, occupying a seat on the senate floor for hours, where she was cheered by the gallery crowds and was the object of congratulation by senators, representatives and officials who thronged about her in informal receptions.

Plea Is to Be Renewed.

She was feted also by crowds about the senate, where she photographed and dined. Tired but happy, tonight she was prepared to renew tomorrow her plea for an official place in the senate.

Of all senators, past, present or future, Mrs. Felton was the first to appear today on the floor. Accompanied by ex-Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia and wearing a black bonnet, fur coat and white gloves, she arrived more than an hour before the noon convening hour. Soon she was "at home," hanging up her bonnet and coat in the democratic cloak room, shaking out her silk dress and lace collar, she was assigned to an absent senator's chair alongside Senator Harris, democrat of Georgia, and while the exposure of all eyes and the lodestone of arriving senators who hastened to shake her hand and offer best wishes.

Gallery Is Enthusiastic.

Gallery crowds, largely composed of women, overflowing into the halls, cheered and applauded the white-haired woman as, shortly before the senate convened, she was escorted to an ante room to receive a huge bouquet of 77 red roses. Again the crowd broke into a noisy demonstration as she returned to her seat, where she remained through the brief session, watching each move intently through her gold spectacles. Clapped in her lap, rolled in brown paper, she held her commission as a senator, received two months ago by appointment upon the death of Senator Thomas E. Watson.

All in the senate paid tribute to the first woman member. She was received by Vice-President Coolidge and met nearly all senators, republicans and democrats, as well as officials and pages.

No Disappointment Shown.

No disappointment was manifested by Mrs. Felton when told that no new senators could be sworn in today, she apparently grasping quickly what many veteran senate leaders for several days had forgotten—that the senate had to be officially notified of the death of a senator before his successor could be received.

TRAFFIC REPORT READY

(Continued From First Page.)

worked out for the routing of these trains.

However, awaiting conferences and hearings, the committee has designated Columbia, Salmon, Fourth and Tenth streets as two-way traffic streets on account of these interurban trains. The report says the Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric are operating under franchises and for that reason it was unwise to attempt any arbitrary or sweeping changes until opportunity had been given for the adjustment of these routes.

Pending such conferences, the committee recommends that passenger trains of the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific be routed so as to discharge passengers at Front and Jefferson streets and that interurban trains of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company be stopped at the east end of the Hawthorn bridge.

The committee recommends adjustment of street railway traffic to conform to the general plan by the

Radio Show

Latest Amateur and Professional Developments

Pittcock Bldg. Nov. 25-Dec. 2

Evening-Afternoon

GIVE BY THE MONTH

COMMUNITY CHEST

WOMAN IN SENATE HONORED BY ALL

Mrs. Felton Is Center of Everyone's Interest.

GALLERY CHEERS LOUD

Adjournment Taken at Once in Tribute to Late Mr. Watson; Swearing In Is Today.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 20.—Georgia's "grand old lady," Mrs. W. H. Felton, first woman senator, was the star member of the cast in the opening today of the convening of the congress. To be sworn in and sit for a day was tomorrow her plea for an actual senator in all other respects she enjoyed a thrilling debut as the congressional curtain was raised. And there was good prospect tonight that success would crown her hope of becoming the first woman senator in fact as well as name, if only for a day.

The 87-year-old woman, a breath of lavender and lace from the old south, today was all but an actual senator, occupying a seat on the senate floor for hours, where she was cheered by the gallery crowds and was the object of congratulation by senators, representatives and officials who thronged about her in informal receptions.

Plea Is to Be Renewed.

She was feted also by crowds about the senate, where she photographed and dined. Tired but happy, tonight she was prepared to renew tomorrow her plea for an official place in the senate.

Of all senators, past, present or future, Mrs. Felton was the first to appear today on the floor. Accompanied by ex-Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia and wearing a black bonnet, fur coat and white gloves, she arrived more than an hour before the noon convening hour. Soon she was "at home," hanging up her bonnet and coat in the democratic cloak room, shaking out her silk dress and lace collar, she was assigned to an absent senator's chair alongside Senator Harris, democrat of Georgia, and while the exposure of all eyes and the lodestone of arriving senators who hastened to shake her hand and offer best wishes.

Gallery Is Enthusiastic.

Gallery crowds, largely composed of women, overflowing into the halls, cheered and applauded the white-haired woman as, shortly before the senate convened, she was escorted to an ante room to receive a huge bouquet of 77 red roses. Again the crowd broke into a noisy demonstration as she returned to her seat, where she remained through the brief session, watching each move intently through her gold spectacles. Clapped in her lap, rolled in brown paper, she held her commission as a senator, received two months ago by appointment upon the death of Senator Thomas E. Watson.

All in the senate paid tribute to the first woman member. She was received by Vice-President Coolidge and met nearly all senators, republicans and democrats, as well as officials and pages.

No Disappointment Shown.

No disappointment was manifested by Mrs. Felton when told that no new senators could be sworn in today, she apparently grasping quickly what many veteran senate leaders for several days had forgotten—that the senate had to be officially notified of the death of a senator before his successor could be received.

TRAFFIC REPORT READY

(Continued From First Page.)

worked out for the routing of these trains.

However, awaiting conferences and hearings, the committee has designated Columbia, Salmon, Fourth and Tenth streets as two-way traffic streets on account of these interurban trains. The report says the Southern Pacific and Oregon Electric are operating under franchises and for that reason it was unwise to attempt any arbitrary or sweeping changes until opportunity had been given for the adjustment of these routes.

Pending such conferences, the committee recommends that passenger trains of the Oregon Electric and Southern Pacific be routed so as to discharge passengers at Front and Jefferson streets and that interurban trains of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company be stopped at the east end of the Hawthorn bridge.

The committee recommends adjustment of street railway traffic to conform to the general plan by the

Radio Show

Latest Amateur and Professional Developments

Pittcock Bldg. Nov. 25-Dec. 2

Evening-Afternoon

GIVE BY THE MONTH

COMMUNITY CHEST

MORNING MEMOS

Newsy Notes Regarding Things to See and Things to Do Today at Lipman, Wolfe's

Eat hearty!

Eat all you want of Heinz Spaghetti. Go ahead and enjoy yourself. Make a meal of it. It has the body-building nutriment your system demands—the flavor your appetite craves. Good any meal of the day, and for any occasion. Skillfully cooked with Heinz famous Tomato Sauce and a choice cheese.

Today! "Modart" Front-Lacing Corsets Special at $4.65

—Fashionable corseting is the great accomplishment of "Modart"—corseting that gently moulds the figure to the silhouette that just now reigns supreme—corseting without the least constraint—and the front lace feature especially important.

—A long hip, low bust model, made of pink brocade with the usual superior "Modart" trimming is priced considerably below regular at $4.65.

On the Fourth Floor—Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

Engraved Christmas Cards Should Be Ordered Now

—Yuletide messages will better convey a personal greeting if they are engraved, particularly if the cards be selected from our finer stocks and the engraving up to the standard it's sure to be if ordered here.

Stationery Section—On the First Floor.

New Dinnerware to Glorify the Thanksgiving Feast

—Of course the table, bounteously filled as it will be, must look its best on Thanksgiving day. At this store are complete stocks of chinaware and dinnerware—over seventy open stock patterns from which to choose, including such famous lines as Haviland & Co., Syracuse China, Royal Doulton, Edwin M. Knowles', J. & G. Meakin, etc.

—Many sets are specially priced—and all imported sets are priced much below what they might be had if they were not imported before the new, higher tariff took effect.

On the Sixth Floor—Lipman, Wolfe & Co.

See Our Fascinating Exhibit of Finer Gifts You Can Make

—Delightful pieces that by one's own handwork may be made into the most appreciated of gifts—an entrancing exhibit of art needlework suggesting what may be done in needlecraft for Christmas gifts.

Art Needlework Section—On the Fourth Floor.

A Great New Shipment of "Luxite" Silk Hose

—It came Saturday—ready for selling today—an immense shipment of the better quality "Luxite" silk hose. Silk-plated hose, pure thread silk hose, drop-stitched silk hose, semi-fashioned silk hose, full-fashioned silk hose, seamless silk hose—every variety of finer "Luxite" hose is in this big shipment. Prices $1.25 to $2.75.

Hosiery Section—On the First Floor.

Surpassing Every Precedent With a Sale of 5000 Baskets

—Baskets from the Orient, baskets from Europe—such a tremendous showing, and such remarkable pricing every precedent in basket selling here is surpassed. Baskets you want for gifts, baskets you want for your own use—baskets at special prices.

First Floor—Main Aisle and Sixth Floor.

Lipman Wolfe & Co

"Merchandise of Merit Only"

Contribute to the Community Chest Help Portland's Needy

SHEAFFER'S PENS—PENCILS

The Distinctive Gifts for all Seasons and the "Gifts That Last"

Our Lifetime Pen Point Guarantee UNCONDITIONALLY covers defects and accidents forever—Other Guarantees are optional with the manufacturer

Priced from $0.75 to $15.00

Model No. 89-C "LIFETIME" $15.00

Dispense with continuous buying and always have the best

Sheaffer's "Propel-Repel-Expel" Pencil acknowledged perfection by every user

Priced from $1 to $50

Sheaffer's Gift Set represents the phrase "Gifts that Last." Priced from $8 to $100

SHEAFFER'S PENS—PENCILS

AT THE BETTER DEALERS EVERYWHERE

Service Stations: NEW YORK CHICAGO KANSAS CITY DENVER SAN FRANCISCO

We Have a Complete Line of Sheaffer's Life-time Pen

Portland's Kodak and Pen Man

124 Broadway 182 Fourth St.