Mayor Replies Plan Here Is Still Alive.

City Asks for Support in Making Show for Whole Pacific Coast.

Oakland, Cal., is ready to take er the 1927 exposition, according a telegram received yesterday by syor Baker from Frederick Vining sher. Request was made in the legram that Portland give the allfornia city the right-of-way, as all as its moral support, on the exposition proposal.

Mayor Baker telegraphed to Mr. isher and informed him that Port-nd had net abandoned the exposion plan and that a committee from The Oakland request wil referred to this committee, the Large Committee at Work. The proposed Cakland exposition, cording to Mr. Fisher, is to be ild in the interests of the entire acific coast. A large committee as the subject under consideration nd a decision was to be reached ome time today. However, in view I the mayor's message informing he California exposition boosters hat Portland still had its hat in the ring, final action may be de-

Mr. Fisher, who was associated ith the Panama-Pacific Internalonal exposition in San Francisco n 1915, passed several months in pertiand assisting the local com-nities in its original plans. He re-ently left Portland for California and it is believed has interested the akkland business interests in the akland business interests in position to taking over the ex-
