this respect Gorman will nave the advantage of from two to six pounds. They are about a standoff in height, reach and experience. With the exception of the few bouls he had on his trip east the battle grounds for Gorman have always been on the Pacific coast. Leopoid has been seen in action in every large boxing center in the country and the lad has a truly great record as he has met the best with more than ordinary success. Leopoid is known to possess more, than the average amount of ability. The best evidence that he is a bat-tler of more than passing notice was demonstrated when he had been boxing but two years and started in a 12-round go with Kid Williams, at that time bantam-weight champion of the world. After 11 torrid rounds Leopoid was stronger than the champion and those who saw the fight declare those who saw the fight declare that had the match been a 20-round NEW YORK, Nov. 30. - Mike affair Leopold would have been the
