Post-Season Game to Decide Interscholastic Title.
LOTS OF FIGHT LIKELY

Two Teams Classed as Best in History of League to Clash on Multnomah Field.

For the first time since the present interscholastic league was launched, two high schools will play a post-season game to decide the championship.

Washington has one of the best teams in the history of the school, and the same is true of Franklin.

Espey Fast, Also. Espey, Washington's triple threat, is almost as fast as Holmes and has made as much if not more yardage than any other runner.

Franklin has another back almost the equal of Holmes in Feaks, while Smith is a star of running back kicks, punting and dashes from trick formations.

Espey Good Man. Captain Espey of Franklin is not so agile as Brooks at grabbing for yardage, nor does he get down the field as quickly after punts.

Lots of Fight Likely. The contest may not be as rough as sandpaper or a cat's tongue, but it will be full of fight and action.

Teams in Good Shape. Every man on the Washington team is declared to be in the pink of condition, and this holds good of Franklin, with the exception of Holmes, who had an ankle bruised in practice early in the week.

Medford's Refusal to Play Game. Medford's refusal to play a return football game here yesterday resulted in a financial loss of hundreds of dollars to Ashland high school.

Ashland High Faces Loss. The game will be hard fought, as each team has not only the championship of Portland at stake, but a chance to meet some representative eastern eleven during the holidays.

OREGON CASTS HAT IN RING FOR PASADENA GRID CLASH

Southern California Plans Hot Contest—Bears and Washington Decide Not to Seek Game—Eugene Eleven in Race for Honor.

BY L. H. GREGORY. WHO will get the Pasadena game against Penn State on New Year's day? Now that the University of Oregon has gone through the conference football season without a defeat, the Oregon boys are throwing their hats into the ring in earnest as candidates for that game.

Here are the records of both teams for the season against conference opponents:

Table with 2 columns: Team Name and Record. Includes Southern California, University of Oregon, and others.

The Oregon boys played great football against Washington in the first half of the Thanksgiving game in Seattle. In the second half Washington came on strengthened by fresh legs and Bagshaw kept throwing in big, dusky substitutes. They battered down the weary Oregonians, who used only two substitutes in the whole game.

Washington definitely declines to be a candidate to play at Pasadena. Both Professor Ayer and Meisner agree. In view of this please answer Oregon's question.

The Pacific coast conference will select the team to represent the west at Pasadena. Professor E. G. Duback of Oregon Agricultural College, president of the conference, several days ago sent out a letter calling upon the conference members to send him their vote by mail immediately after the election.

Castle Rock Wins Title. The Kelsos high school football team lost its final game of the season by a narrow margin to Castle Rock yesterday, 14 to 0. This defeat for Kelsos also gives the Cowitz county championship to the Castle Rock eleven.

Idaho Beats Montana. MISSOULA, Mont., Dec. 1.—An aerial attack, mixed with a flawless defense, gave the University of Idaho an easy victory over the University of Montana eleven here Thursday, 39 to 6.

Constable and Quarry Operator Accused of Selling Poisons Moonshine to Victim.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Dec. 1.—(Special.)—Recommendation that William McArthur, ex-stone quarry operator of Tenino, and Bert Gibson, Tenino constable and tax driver, be prosecuted on manslaughter charges as a result of the early death of Joseph Snider, assistant caretaker at the Masonic cemetery from the effects of drinking poisonous liquor purchased yesterday from McArthur and Gibson was recommended by a coroner's jury following an inquest into the cause of Snider's death this afternoon.

Prosecuting Attorney Fullerton instructed Sheriff Hoare to arrest McArthur and Gibson tonight, and said that he would file an information against both men in superior court tomorrow morning.

Snider, 57 years old, who was deaf and dumb, drank most of the contents of three bottles of moonshine which William T. Cunningham, also a mute, took to Snider's home near the Masonic cemetery last night. Cunningham testified that he made two trips to Tenino for the liquor, one about mid-afternoon, when he bought two bottles from McArthur, and the second about 6 o'clock in the evening, when he bought the balance from Gibson. Snider, he said, drank most of the liquor in the first two bottles and died more. He and Mrs. Snider drank a little from the third and both testified that it made them sick. When the third bottle was brought in, Cunningham said, Snider drank a little from the bottle after helping put Snider to bed.

Mrs. Snider, also a mute, said she had been sitting on the porch when she was awakened by her husband falling out of bed. She tried to get up, but she was falling, covered him with blankets, and left him on the floor. She discovered he was dead about 6 o'clock this morning.
