PESTERING AWAILS SLACKERS IN CHEST

Organizations Will Solicit Shirkers All Year.

PLAN MADE AT RALLY

Rather Important and Prosperous
Firms Give but Little or Nothing at All.

Justice is to overtake the shirkers of the Community Chest. They are not to be posted as slackers or branded as delinquents. But for 52 weeks of the year the 43 organizations of the Chest are to be urged to solicit from them—that they may redeem their frequently repeated assertion that their belief is in individual charity.

This conclusion was reached yesterday at a rally of workers held in the Multnomah hotel when every officer of the drive assured General Sammons that there was no thought of discontinuing effort to complete the quota. If not this week, then next week, or the following—but to a successful conclusion, however long may be required. The total now pledged is $45,997.

Big Firms Give Nothing. There had been reported to the gathering the conduct of several firms which had given but little or had refused to give at all from the ensuing debate as to some method of dealing with these rose the acclaimed suggestion that an all-year open season be declared upon the recalcitrants. The subject of any drive was thus effectively disposed of.

Another Rally Is Stated.

At another general rally to be held Friday noon the workers will review progress and enter upon the last chapter of the philanthropic endeavor. It is held that, by the close of the week, the quota may not have been attained, but that future policy will then be definitely indicated. Officials admit that it may be necessary to completely recheck the lists with those of last year and make certain that every known favorable prospect has been seen. If this is done all agree that the quota will be reached.

Y. M. C. A. Objection Raised.

For the first time during the campaign, so far as headquarters is aware, the Y. M. C. A. objection was raised. It came via telephone from a woman whose son had served overseas and who said that she was opposed to contributing to the support of the "Y." General Sammons answered the call.

Things You'll Love to Make

Quaint Trimming for Child's Frock
LITTLE tot's frocks, as well as those of grownups, display quaint trimmings. The illustration pictures one that you can easily make for little daughter's frock. Gather narrow lace or pieced strips of silk or ribbon. Stitch three or four rows around each sleeve. Cover a two-inch circle with silk. Stitch all with embroidery silk of a contrasting color. Gather some of the trimmings to match that on the sleeves. Stitch several rows around the circle to form a corset. A long thin piece of the silk hanging from under the circle finishes the attractive trimming.

Jury Fails to Agree.
HOOD RIVER, Or., Dec. 6.—(Special)—The case of Johnny Burchett, aged 12 years, who met the Johnson Construction company for $15,000, alleging that his hand was mutilated by a dynamite cap left carelessly exposed at a powder house, resulted in disagreement of the jury in circuit court today. The construction company, who encared the case over the summer in building a section of the Hood River loop highway. The complaint alleges that the boy found the cap while looking for cows and exploded one by prying into it with a stick.
