TWO of the most interesting social events of the week will be the exhibition teas to be given by Anthony Euler at the Multnomah hotel tomorrow and Saturday afternoon. A large group of his oil paintings, water sketches and black and white drawings are on display. His work is excellent, full of originality and wonderfully colorful. A throng of art lovers called last Saturday afternoon to the first of his series of teas. Presiding at the attractive tea table was Mrs. Walter Cook.

MISS RUTH AKIN, WHO HAS BEEN THE HOUSE GUEST OF MRS. WILLIAM S. GATENS.

Many members of the younger set will attend the subscription dance this evening at the Wawey country club. The ball room will form a lovely background with its decorations of holiday greens, for the many beautifully gowned maids and matrons.

Invitations have been received by Portland society folk from Lieutenant Colonel and Madame Letellie of Saigon, French Indo-China, to the marriage of their daughter, Mademoiselle Gilberte Garros, and Lieutenant A. Smith of the States consul at Saigon, and formerly of this city. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter V. Smith, and has many friends in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Nordby were hosts last night with a beautifully appointed dinner of ten covers. Later the guests enjoyed a party at the Orpheum. Mrs. Coleman H. Wheeler, who will leave soon for an extended trip in Europe, was the motif for the occasion.

Mrs. Jane Burns Albert was the motif for an attractive luncheon at which Mrs. A. S. Korry entertained during Mrs. Albert's visit in Seattle last week.

Mrs. John K. Leander, a recent bride, was the inspiration for a charmingly appointed tea Thursday when Mrs. F. J. Scully was hostess. Lovely decorations of holly, poinsettia and other brilliant Christmas greens adorned the rooms. The tea table was pretty with its huge centerpiece of scarlet flowers and candles of the same hue. Presiding at the tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. Alexander F. Petrol, Mrs. Theodore Aron, Mrs. William P. Sinnott and Mrs. William A. Coker. A group of the younger maids assisted about the rooms, including the Misses Lenore Thomas, Elizabeth Hulme and Rachel Clark. In the drawing room were Mrs. Lawrence A. Lequire, Mrs. Ralph H. Clark, Miss May Clark and Miss Nina Maria. Mrs. Mary McAllister was in the receiving line with this honor guest.

Ruby Page Ferguson (Mrs. Anthony Euler) will give an interpretation of "The Bill of Divorcement" next Tuesday evening, December 14. Miss Ferguson has given a number of her clever impersonations in Portland and society folk are keenly anticipating this event.

Mrs. Phil Epsilon alumni will have a meeting this evening at the home of Miss Edna Messinger, 568 East Twenty-ninth street.

Dr. Rea's grotto will give an informal dance Thursday night, December 15, at the Pythian temple. Masons, Eastern Star fraternity members, prophets and friends are invited. The imperial orchestra, under the leadership of J. E. Willoughby, will furnish music. Harry A. Mettaz will be chairman.

The woman's missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet in the chapel this afternoon at 2:30. The program will be in charge of Mrs. D. A. Pattullo, reader of the Portland Heights mission study class. Mrs. Wallace McCannan will lead the devotional service and Miss Lucille McIntire will sing. Hostesses for the social hour will be the members of the mission study class.

The auxiliary to the woman's missionary society will meet in room 4 of the church home this evening, December 12. When the soda is stirred into the candy it will foam up. Pour out on an oiled slab or platter. Pull when cool enough to handle, then cut into short lengths with scissors and wrap at once in paraffin paper. I am glad you liked the fudge recipe.

Of interest to a large number of Portland friends was the marriage of Miss Dorothy J. Tyler to Fred J. Vance last Wednesday. Dr. McElvaine officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tyler of this city. Mr. Vance is a popular young business man, well known in lumber circles. After a short trip to Puget sound cities they will be at home to their friends at 1189 Rodney avenue.

Some of the prominent members of the younger set were entertained at a "mad times" dance given by William Holt Dietz at his home near Beaverton. Decorations were appropriate and the refreshments featured waffles. A large stage was chartered for the trip, proving a novel affair. The guests included Misses Thelma Park, Mary Alice Ball, Carolyn Miller, Annabelle Douglas, Virginia de Vere, Vivian Conger, Harriet Desford, Alice Richards, Katherine Hogue, Mary Richards, Kathryn Bristow, William Winter, Merrill Bittner, Frank German, Charles McClaine, Richard Wright, Calvin Southern, Bennett Southern, John Faust and George Heavens.

The many friends of Mrs. Don Henderson, who recently underwent an operation, will be glad to know that she is convalescing at Good Samaritan hospital.

Don't delay fighting constipation with BRAN that is ALL BRAN!
When constipation flashes its signals of sickness into your eyes and cheeks; into your breath, your brain and your appetite, it is absolutely necessary that you head it off! Toxic poisoning stands close by; Bright's disease and other dangerous diseases await their turn!
The remedy that nature offers is the simplest and most effective—Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbed, which is ALL BRAN! And it is ALL BRAN!
It is ALL BRAN you need when you start to fight constipation. You can't afford to delay a minute and you can't afford to use half-way measures with foods that contain a percentage of bran! Your physician will recommend Kellogg's Bran because it is not only effective, but because it is delicious. Why—you will like its nut-

Various Memoirs of David's Poems" by Mrs. W. H. Phillips and "The Story of David's Census," by Mrs. W. H. Doane. The programme will be concluded with a paper on "The Poetry and Prose of the Books of Samuel," by Mrs. W. K. Royal; a discussion of the subject, "Did David Write Psalms?" by Mrs. Louis P. Hewitt and a study of the "Literary Spiritual Value of Some of the Early Psalms" by Mrs. B. D. Sigler.

The festive spirit of Christmas will be carried out at the luncheon of the study department of the Portland Woman's Research club to be held tomorrow at 12 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. G. Lethy, 999 Clackamas street. The place of honor will be given to a richly-laden Christmas tree for which each member of the club has been requested to bring a gift. The gifts will be distributed at the close of the luncheon to gladden the residents of Pisgah home and Multnomah county farm on Christmas morning.

The luncheon will be carried out in a quiet, quiet tradition. Stories will be told by Miss Allene Brong and carols sung by the quartet under the direction of Miss Gertrude Hewitt and assisted by the Multnomah county farm on Christmas morning.

Women of the St. David's parish will hold a continuation of their bazaar tomorrow from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M. at the parish house, East Twelfth and Morrison streets.

The progressive Women's League will hold a business session Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in room H of central library. Each member is asked to bring a gift for the Pisgah home.

Mrs. Charles E. Dant will entertain the members of the Alameda Tuesday club this afternoon at her home, 825 Alameda drive. It will be a business session and all members are urged to be there promptly at 2 o'clock.

James A. Garfield Circle, No. 33 Ladies of the A. R., will hold a card party this afternoon in the Woodmen hall, East Sixth and Alder streets, at 1:30 o'clock sharp. The card party will have been given Thursday afternoon but it was necessary that the date be changed. The circle will hold its regular meetings on the second and fourth Tuesdays hereafter in the hall instead of the first and third Thursdays. The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, December 26. All members are urged to attend. The meeting will begin at 1:30 o'clock sharp.

The Presidents' club will meet at the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday room for luncheon.

The Women's Psychic club will meet in the church parlor, East Seventh and Hassalo streets, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Following the business session, a hour will be devoted to giving spiritual messages. The public is invited.

The next regular meeting of the Oak Grove-Milwaukee Social Service club will be held at the home of Mrs. Russell Davenport at Oak Grove station, Thursday, December 15, at 7:30 o'clock. The following programme has been arranged for the afternoon: Music, Christmas carols by the club chorus; papers on "Jefersonian and Events of History" and "Contest of Jeffersonian and Hamiltonian Ideas with Ideas of Democracy Today" by Mrs. Emily Peck and Mrs. Mary Butler, Mrs. Sarah Law will review "The Conqueror." A board meeting will be held at 1 P. M.

Dr. Eugene Rockey will address the members of Ainsworth Parent-Teacher association on "The Future Plans of the American Legion" at a regular meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the school. Mike Brennan, a legion member, will entertain the business session. All members are urged to attend. A Christmas apron sale will be held in conjunction with this meeting.

A talk by Dr. Henry Grant of the University of Oregon Social Welfare bureau will be a feature of the meeting of the Beaumont Parent-Teacher association tomorrow night at the Beaumont school. All interested are invited.

Betty Ross Tent, Daughters of Union Veterans, will serve one of their popular-priced home-cooked luncheons in room 525 courthouse Thursday from 11 to 2 o'clock. Margaret E. Becker is the chairman. There will be election of officers at the regular tent meeting to be held at 8 P. M.

A few Suggestions for Traveling in Comfort

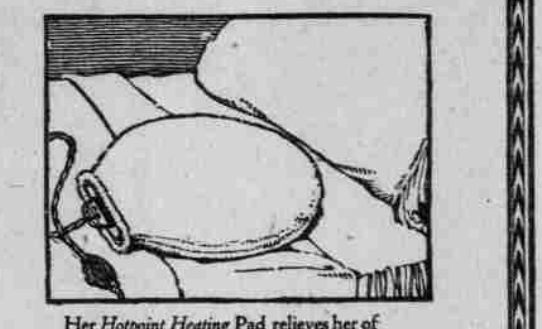

THERE was a time when a woman took it for granted that a trip away from home meant doing without some almost indispensable helps toward comfort and good appearance.

While as for taking the children on a journey—one could only "hope and trust that everything would be all right."

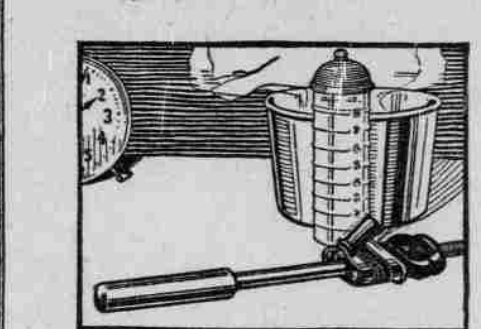

But see how confidently a woman starts out today—provided with a few well-chosen Hotpoint Servants.

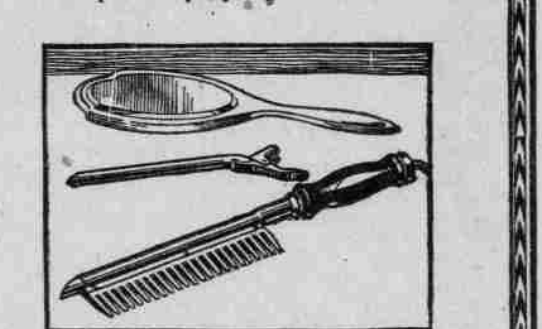

Her Hotpoint Utility Set has a light iron with which she keeps her things fresh and crisp. A Stand which forms a hot plate for heating water. A Curling Iron. All packed in a cretone covered case which opens out into a compact Ironing Board.

Her Hotpoint Heating Pad relieves her of any anxiety on account of the children. It is safer than the old-fashioned hot water bottle and the heat can be exactly controlled. Then, too, hot sheets, fresh from the laundry, are so apt to be a bit dampish. The pad quickly warms them.

The baby's milk is quickly heated when needed with her Hotpoint Immersion Heater. And husband, if he's along, may find use for it for his shaving water.

The Hotpoint Electric Curling Iron—the iron with the professional touch. The hair spreads out flat and even along the whole length of the iron—giving a true Marcel wave.

Things You'll Love to Make Use an Old Fur Piece for a New Girdle.

THE new articles on frocks are very decorative. You can use an old fur piece in making the charming one pictured above. Rip apart an old muff or scarf. Turn the fur to the wrong side. With a very sharp knife cut it into narrow strips. Stitch the fur to bands of unbleached silk or cotton. Use three rows of the fur and four of the bands. Let one of the sides drag of your frock pass under the girdle and the other over it. Little, if any, other trimming is necessary to give a new and handsome touch to your gown. FLORA.
