

REHEARING SOUGHT IN MORRISON CASE

Episcopal School Trustees Still After Rector.

NEW ISSUE IS RAISED

Personal Profit of $1000 From Land Deal Set Up as Needing Supreme Court Adjustment.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 11.—(Special).—The board of school trustees of the Episcopal church for the diocese of Oregon today filed in the supreme court here a petition for rehearing of the case involving Rev. Dr. A. Morrison of Portland, member of the board, who was charged with violating his trust in connection with the investment of school funds in real estate at a profit to himself.

The supreme court, in an opinion written by Justice McBride and handed down two weeks ago, exonerated Dr. Morrison from all wrong-doing. The supreme court held in this opinion that the board of trustees had full knowledge of Dr. Morrison's transactions and that the land purchased by him was intended for school purposes. The court was unable to find that Dr. Morrison profited to any extent as a result of the deal.

Transactions Set Forth. "In this case," said the petition for rehearing, "an opportunity came to Dr. Morrison to acquire an interest in 1015 acres of land, and a corporation of which he was a trustee in possession of a fund was willing to acquire a part of the land."

Profit of $1000 Alleged. "From these facts the court must conclude that Dr. Morrison actually accomplished a profit of $1000 in cash which he converted to his own use and for which he made no account."

Transaction Held Irregular. "This will dispose of the claim that the 100 acres were sold for a price greater than their value, but it will not dispose of the question of fact, as it undoubtedly is a fact of one of the trustees personally acquiring a part of the transaction, notwithstanding the belief of the board that the 100 acres of land were worth $25,000."

OREGON CITY HAS BLAZE

Fire Starting in Restaurant Basement Causes $3800 Damage.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 11.—(Special).—Fire, which has started from an overloaded furnace at 2 o'clock this afternoon, did damage estimated at $3800 to the Falls restaurant and "C" barber shop, Seventh and Main streets.

A half-basement under the restaurant made the flames difficult to fight and it was an hour and a half before they were extinguished. The fire department was delayed somewhat by a large crowd in the street.

The restaurant damage was placed at $3000 and that of the barber shop at $800.

FARM CREDITS BOOSTED

Arrangements Made for Immediate Hearings by Two Senate Committees.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—Farm credit legislation received in congress today an impetus which legislative and democratic leaders said insured legislation in behalf of agriculturalists during the present session.

BENEFICIAL LEGISLATION IS HELD ASSURED.

Arrangements were made for immediate hearings by two senate committees and today the unofficial senate farm bloc met and made plans to press the credit extension legislation.

Bi-partisan support for major features of administration recommendations to expand credit of farmers was indicated. Bloc endorsement, meaning that of democrats as well as republicans, for important features of the Lenroot-Anderson bill, which had the approval of administration officials, was said to be promised.

These words, printed in large letters on signs on each side of an automobile, will be the penalty for persons accused of traffic violations, will be seen in Salem soon unless drivers of cars show more respect for the traffic laws.

C. H. NELSON ARRESTED

Ex-Auto Dealer of Oregon City Held on Charge of Fraud.

OREGON CITY, Or., Dec. 11.—(Special).—C. H. Nelson, formerly of Weismann & Nelson, local automobile dealer, who resides in Los Angeles, was arrested in Los Angeles today on a charge of defrauding Mrs. Nellie Grisco of Oregon City out of $400.

As bondsman for Mrs. Grisco, who is guardian of Julia Rinkus, Nelson is accused of having forged a check for $400 in the guardian's name on the girl's account.

Deputy Sheriff Hughes, with extradition papers signed by Governor Elliott, left today for Los Angeles to bring Nelson back here for trial.

MURDER SUSPECT TAKEN

N. ROBINSON ACCUSED OF SAN FRANCISCO KILLING.

Alleged Slayer of Longshoreman Tells Police He Has Been Arrested Here Five Times.

Nathan Robinson, 32, stevedore, who has spent most of the last three years in Portland under the name of Joseph Smith, was arrested last night in a downtown lodging house by inspectors Tackberry and Phillips and Lieutenant Thatcher on a charge of murder.

Robinson, who is accused of having slain Nelson Dunning, a longshoreman, during the San Francisco waterfront strike there in 1919.

Besides the alias of Smith, Robinson has been known as Robinson and Joseph Kelly. Since October 2, 1919, the date of the murder, a price of $2000 has been on his head, offered by the waterfront employees' union and the shipowners' association of the Pacific.

Last night Robinson called for a lawyer and intimated that he would fight extradition. He denied having caused Dunning's death, or having any knowledge of it. He told police that since being in Portland he had been arrested five times on various charges, the last time being on October 22 last, when he was photographed and fingerprinted as a vagrant.

ROAD BIDS TO BE OPENED

$500,000 Worth of Construction Work to Be Considered.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 11.—(Special).—Bids for the construction of roads and bridges aggregating an expenditure of more than $500,000 will be opened at a meeting of the state highway commission to be held in Portland Wednesday.

It is likely that the commission also will consider a request from the citizens of Astoria with relation to changing the existing laws so that the state highway department may assist in the improvement of roads within an incorporated city.

At the Theaters.

NOVELTY characterizes the show that opened at the Pantages theater yesterday. The headline honors are divided between the "Fashion Plate Minstrels" and Miss Maud Earl, the vocalist.

The "Fashion Plates" consist of seven talented girls, good singers and dancers, including Mildred Crewe, Marjorie Weisman, Alice May Howard, Esther Gelsinger, Sophie Bennett, Gertrude Katz and Helen Filling. Individually each member scored convincingly with the numbers they introduced. Their efforts were generously applauded by the audience.

Maud Earl in her act, "Songs in a Roving Bouquet," with Wilber Knight at the piano, has a tasteful, attractive setting for her act. Ostensibly she chooses her repertoire for each performance from the repertoire of the "Fashion Plate Minstrels" and Miss Maud Earl, the vocalist.

The bill was opened by Alexander Brothers and Evelyn, billed as the "World's Greatest Ball Bouncers." That is taking in considerable territory. However, their work with the balls is clever, and one of the men adds considerable comedy to their offering.

Ridiculous Recco, presenting "How to Become an Acrobat" lives up to his billing, particularly so far as the ridiculous part is concerned. He experienced no difficulty in winning the audience with his clowning. Recco worked hard and the audience liked him.

Britt Wood, the "Boob and His Harmonica," was a welcome visitor. He was accorded a reception as soon as the audience heard his harmonica off stage. Wood has a fine line of comedy material which he knows

NEW DEPARTMENT ASKED

Bill Urges Joining of Motor and Traffic Divisions.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 11.—(Special).—Consolidation of the state motor vehicle department and state traffic department under one supervising head is the purpose of a bill now being prepared for introduction during the next session of the state legislature. Both the motor vehicle department and traffic division are now under the jurisdiction of the state department.

Although the author of the bill has admitted that the proposed consolidation of the two departments will not result in any material saving to the taxpayers, he declared that it would increase the efficiency and at the same time relieve the secretary of state of a large amount of work.
