

MOVIES REINSTATE 'FATY' ARBUCKLE

Will Hays Withdraws Ban on Film Comedian. ACTOR ACCEPTS CHANGE

Man Acquitted of Manslaughter in Virginia Rappe Case to Make Pictures Again.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 20.—Roscoe Arbuckle, motion picture comedian, has a job in the pictures, and if he is to come back to the place he once occupied it is distinctly up to Arbuckle and the American people.

Mr. Hays requested the producers to withdraw the Arbuckle films and to make no more of them until April. He took that action after Arbuckle had been thrice tried on a charge of manslaughter arising from the death in San Francisco of Miss Virginia Rappe, an actress. Since then Arbuckle has lived quietly, taking an occasional trip away, but keeping out of the public eye.

EMBEZZLER IS PARDONED

Clerk Who Padded Umattilla Payrolls Released by Mr. Ritter.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—K. C. Amann, who was received at the state penitentiary here 14 months ago to serve an indeterminate term not to exceed five years, following conviction on a charge of padding the payrolls in the office of the Umattilla county road master, today was released on conditional pardon issued by Acting-Governor Ritter.

Amann was charged with embezzling approximately $900. He repaid $1500. The conditional pardon compels him to pay the remaining $7500 at the rate of $25 a month.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—The Vancouver Prunarians today urged passage of the proposed federal appropriation of $1,500,000 for road work.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—At a regular meeting of the county farm bureau here today, succeeding W. A. Ritz, F. A. Fields was named vice-president.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—T. A. Livesley today was re-elected president of the Illhees Country Club.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—Hearing of the application of the county farm bureau for a franchise to operate on Oswego lake will be held here January 15 and 16.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—The witness said he saw another man approach John Shoemaker, the siltant superintendent at the mine, who was lying wounded in the field, and say: "Here's that machine gunner." Cairns declared the speaker then drew a pistol and blew Shoemaker's head off.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—The witness said he was picked up and taken to a hospital by Sheriff Thaxton about an hour later.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—The witness said that those in the crowd shouted "Kill them!" but that others cried: "We are going to put them on a train and get them out of here. They've had enough already." He quoted Clark as saying: "We're going through with this if I have to shoot them all myself."

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—(Special.)—The witness said that when the firing at the fence started, he leaped over the fence and ran through the fields and later took a train for Chicago, after being given refuge by a farmer.

A Last Word With Christmas Buyers of 1922 The swift passing years have revealed no gift more perfect than the well chosen book. It may be the gift of a book of Poetry, lifting the spirit with new inspiration, or a romance, giving release from the pressure of work-a-day cares. Or perhaps a book of travel into the quaint, the curious, the far-away places of the earth, a great biography, affording a delightful companionship with the witty, the wise, the gay, the good of our own or other times. But this thing is certain—there is a book for every taste and that book can be found in our stock. For Your Christmas Gift Give Books! Store Open Friday and Saturday evenings. J. K. Gill Co.
