PRISONER FACES New CHARGE. Two new charges were filed yester-day against O. B. Fleids, alias L. A. Wilson, arrested Thursday at 724 Fifty-ninth street North when a still, mash and moonshine liquor were found on his premises by deputy sheriffs. Investigation by the gas company indicated that Fields may have been cheating the company by using gas in his operacompany by using gas in his opera-tions which he is said to have ob-usined through an illegal connection just ahead of the meter. Mrs. H. E. Robbins of Kalispell, Mont., is one of the many feminine fans who derive a great deal of pleasure from the entertainment furnished by KGW. The Sunday night programmes are especially lauded by her.

"Last Sunday's (December 17) Christmas programme by the St. Mary's cathedral choir was wonder-ful," she wrote in a letter to KGW. "The modulation was perfect and everything came in clear and sharp.
