

JEFF COLUMN

Jeff's varsity gridsters defeated Roosevelt in a stadium game Friday night, Oct. 2, by a score of 14 to 6. This is Jeff's first victory since their defeat at the hands of Wilson in a game which ended 25-18. Jeff lost another close one to Washington 13-12. Tonight's contest features Jeff against Lincoln at Jeff's home field.

The baby Demos beat Washington October 1 by a 24-14 score. This also marks their first victory this season. They lost their first game September 24 against Wilson by 24-8 score. Yesterday, the frosh played Roosevelt at Jeff.

The UGN Drive at Jeff is underway and will continue until October 16. Competition between classes is featured with the losing class to receive a surprise. The Benson game next Friday and the UGN Drive will be the theme for the annual hall decoration contest to be held next Thursday.

Representatives from 25 independent colleges of Oregon will visit Jeff October 12. They will discuss their colleges with interested seniors, according to Mrs. Natalie Ettl, college coordinator.

The representatives will inform students about entrance requirements and financial aid. The first two periods will be used to allow students to ask questions and talk with the representatives.

Cheek denies gunplay story

The president of Howard, Dr. James E. Cheek, has denied that a fellow member of the President's Commission on Campus Unrest pulled a pistol to help him get away from some whites while in Jackson, Miss. Cheek is quoted in the Washington Afro-American (Sept. 8) as saying the story published in Race Relations Reporter (No. 15; Sept. 1) was "badly distorted."

126 Health, welfare, character-building, family, child care, and rehabilitation services are supported through your contribution to United Good Neighbors. The 1970 UGN campaign, with a total goal of $6,130,162, begins Sept. 14 and continues through November 5.

My Son, the Mayor

The first black mayor of Newark, N.J., Kenneth Gibson, recently told this story of what his election had meant to him: "I was born in Alabama, Enterprise...Only my father had the courage to leave...And believe me it took a lot of courage...when you had a wife and two kids and were making $8 a week. He had just built a new house and the man cut his pay because he built that new house...The mayor of Enterprise called me after I won the election and asked me if I would consider coming to Enterprise. I told him that my father was coming."

"I asked my father how he made out in Enterprise. He said, 'I went down to the mayor's office...and we talked.' I said, 'How'd it feel?' And he said, 'Well, we're mayor of 400,000 people and he's got only 15,000 people.'

"So there are ways to get even...I sent my father to get even with all of them. He can say, 'My son, the mayor.' I'm not so concerned with myself as an individual, but I feel good because my father feels good." Gibson was speaking to a meeting of SCLC's Operation Breadbasket.

PCC rolls jump 15%

Portland Community College has enrolled 16,434 students so far in fall term, nearly 15 per cent increase over final fall term figures of 14,333 last year.

Still more students will complete enrollment during the next few days, a college spokesman said, and incomplete reports from some programs will also add to the final total, expected to reach a rise of about 17 per cent to 16,770.

Goodwill dates pancake feed, tour of plant

Goodwill Industries will hold their Annual Open House and pancake feed on Saturday, Oct. 17. The public is invited to visit the Goodwill plant at 1831 SE Sixth Avenue and enjoy pancakes in the morning or ice cream and soft drinks in the afternoon.

The Open House is intended primarily for the benefit of the Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Parents and Adult Leaders so that they might better understand.

The big plant at 1831 SE Sixth Avenue will be in operation Saturday, October 17 and visitors will be invited to tour the entire building and observe the handicapped at work. Here the visitors will see what happens to their contributions of clothing and other articles they may have given to Goodwill. Normally the plant is not open on Saturdays.

The Community Education division shows an enrollment of 6,075, representing an increase of 75 per cent.

Career Technical education shows a total of 5,601, and final figures are expected to show a substantial increase.

Liberal arts and general studies, the "college transfer" area, is up 5 per cent to 4,553.
