Dorsey and Kinard to perform at Bethel Sunday

Mrs. Ellamay Kinard will deliver the Mothers Day address and Willa Dorsey, famous gospel and television artist will sing along with the Cathedral Choir of Bethel Sunday at 11:00 a.m.

MRS. WILLA MAE DORSEY

Mrs. Kinard was a pastors wife for many years. Her experience in the Christianfield is unsurpassed. For many years, people were blessed with the late Rev. Kinards preaching and the famous Kinard Singers.

Pastor Henderson says no one can give a Mothers Day address like that of a real Christian Mother. He noted also that Mrs. Kinard continues to serve as a faithful lay man and because of her loyalty and deep insight, he is using her as one of the lay speakers.

MRS. ELLAMAY KINARD

Willa Mae Dorsey—we cannot find words to express her ability as a gospel singer. She has thrilled many persons across the United States and abroad. Mothers Day activities promise to be one of the most inspiring Bethel has ever known. A prize will be given to the oldest and youngest Mother & the Mother with the largest number of children present at church with her Sunday.

Blacks challenge publishers

On the shelves and spinner racks of the nation's bookstores black Americans have established a presence both as writers and as subjects in the past decade. The famous writers-headed by Ralph Ellison and Richard Wright - and their famous books have been joined by such well-known authors as James Baldwin and Lerone Bennett and John A. Williams, by the works of Martin Luther King and Dick Gregory and Malcolm X and by such familiar titles as Soul on Ice, I know why the caged Bird sings, and The Fire Next Time.
