

Christian Business Men presents Sam Dalton

Tell it like it is

From a laborer for Protex Industries to a full schedule of evangelism and speaking dates is the experience of Sam Dalton of Denver.

A tract entitled "Sin Not Skin" has been prepared by Dalton and in less than two years almost a half million of them have been distributed in cities and towns throughout America. Two paragraphs of the tract pointedly deal with very live issues of the day. "There is much talk of Black, Green, White and Student power but the only message that can change hearts is the Gospel of Christ which is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth." "While many make the issue SKIN, the truth is, the real issue is SIN, and this is the cause of broken hearts, homes, and our nation being in the throes of chaos... The only answer, though despised in our times in general, is the love of God as manifested in Christ Jesus." This message, Dalton said, has enabled him to speak everywhere, in churches, schools, service clubs and prisons. Invitations have come from beyond the United States and these are on his prayer list. The witnessing program of Sam Dalton is not supported by, or backed of any group but rather, he says, is made possible by the bank of heaven. He talks to people not about his needs, but about Jesus who knew no sin but was made to be sin for us and what he can do for all men.

reared in Chicago not far from the stockyards. At the age of 15 he left home to see the world.

Sam's story is an unusual one. For 14 1/2 years he served as a laborer for Protex Industries in Denver. Protex makes a curing compound for concrete and its products are distributed years ago something happened that changed the very existence for Sam, his wife and three adopted children. Sam delivered a short speech at the 29th annual convention of the Christian Business Men's Committee meeting in Detroit. His talk lasted for only nine minutes. What Sam had to say had a profound effect on his audience and upon Sam. A few weeks later

Sam after much prayer and reading expectantly the Word of God, requested a three months leave of absence from his job. This was November 1966. With much reservation, he says "I stepped out on God's promise saying to my dear wife Pearl; we are going to trust the Lord and be available to him if we have to live on peanut butter and crackers. From the very outset Sam learned that God always honors faith and when the three months expired he requested another 45 days--but it was only after one week of extended leave of absence that Sam felt compelled to write a letter of resignation to his boss of 14 years. "We committed totally, not only our lives but all we have to him who worketh all things after the counsel of His (cont. p. 10 col. 4)
