by Deway Taylor

Sunday afternoon, May 23, was an afternoon to remember. The Albina Waiters, Waitresses and Bartenders Association did a wonderful job with their presentation of Black Enterprise week.

The Black Enterprise Soul Dinner and Exhibition was the kick off of an entire week of events. The purpose of this week is to call attention to the progress of Black Enterprise in the Albina Community and to inspire the young people of Albina to become active in their community.

The purpose of the A. W. W. & B. A. is to serve the youth of the community, whether it be the young drug addict seeking employment, guidance toward re-evaluation of goals, financial assistance for education, legal aid, help in making social adjustments -- all phases of assistance where assistance is needed.

The presentations of Paul Knauts, Master of Ceremonies, were excellent. Entertainment was furnished by a group of young men, the Golden Eagles, who were brought from Birmingham, Alabama, for this occasion. Their performance was reminiscent of the quartets and gospel singers of yesterday.

Judge Aaron Brown, the principal speaker, was effective. He was mindful of the absence of the news media. The presence of Governor and Mrs. McCall and Mayor and Mrs. Schrunk helped to lend dignity as well as laud the cause of this gala event.

In addition to the events of the week, a dance will climax the observance on Friday night. I would like to compliment the A. W. W. & B. A. for a job well done.

Kansas City, Missouri and Kansas City, Kansas celebrated Minority Business Week May 12 - 19, 1971. The celebration included a joint proclamation signing ceremony by the Mayors of the two cities. Mayor Richard Hatcher of Gary, Indiana was the keynote speaker at the dinner held on May 19th to end the Minority Business Exposition.
