

Substitute families chosen for students

The Urban League of Portland and the University of Portland sponsored a luncheon at the University on October 1, 1972, for the families and students participating in Project Family-Away-From-Home. In this project, families in the Portland area are assigned a student who is from out-of-town and, in some small way, provide a family situation for the student. The routine developed between the student and his family will vary and be designed to meet the needs as indicated in the interpersonal relationships during the school year.

The family assignments this year are:

- 1) Mr. and Mrs. Vern Summers -- Doris Thompson;
- 2) Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dilard -- Linda Frazier;
- 3) Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Hatzog -- Lydia Hampton;
- 4) Mr. and Mrs. Jetie Wilds -- Victor Bouldin;
- 5) Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Kenfro -- Betty Green;
- 6) Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis -- Ployd Banks;
- 7) Mr. and Mrs. William Hilliard -- Quinton Braxton;
- 8) Mr. and Mrs. Belton;
- 9) Mr. and Mrs. Arvoll Race -- Ricardo Parks;
- 10) Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Walker -- Aloma White;
- 11) Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Sheeden -- Evelyn Coulson;
- 12) Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Maddox -- Robert Williams;
- 13) Mr. and Mrs. Robey Eldridge -- Alternate family.

Court requires free legal counsel

The Circuit Court of Multnomah County, ruling in a case brought by the American Civil Liberties Union of Oregon (ACLU) on behalf of Ronald Ray Kirschbaum, held that the District Court had improperly refused to appoint counsel for Kirschbaum.

Circuit Judge William M. Dale signed an order on October 5 holding the "Counsel should be provided to any person who is financially unable to obtain adequate representation without substantial hardship to himself or his family. Counsel should not be denied to any person merely because his friends or relatives have resources adequate to retain counsel or because he has posted or is capable of posting bond."

He further found that Kirschbaum at that time was financially unable to employ an attorney without substantial hardship to himself or his family, and ordered Judge Abraham to appoint counsel for him.

Commenting on the decision, Stevie Remington, Executive Director of the ACLU, said: "We are hopeful that this will prove to be a major step forward in dealing with the complex problem of establishing state-wide standards for determining whether defendants are indigent, and therefore entitled to court-appointed counsel. An amazing variety of excuses are used to avoid providing the counsel for people who are simply unable to secure a lawyer with the resources available to them. It is a denial of equal protection of the laws to afford one standard of justice for the poor and another for the affluent, and means must be found to correct an indefensible situation in Oregon."

The Kirschbaum case stemmed from the denial of three requests from Kirschbaum that counsel be appointed to represent him on a December, 1971 charge of driving under the influence of liquor, a crime which carries a possible penalty of up to one year in jail, a fine of $1,000 or both. Although Kirschbaum was unemployed at the time of his arrest, he found employment before his trial date and was held not to be indigent. He testified that he was unable to pay the retainer fees demanded by the attorneys he asked to represent him.

The trial was delayed pending the outcome of the suit petitioning the Circuit Court to order the appointment of counsel.

AYOS expands program

slots are for those want to get back into school because they have dropped out for any number of reasons. All this person has to do is go to the school and express a desire to go back to school. There is no grade average necessary, no registration fee required, no harassment by the Director and Staff. Students usually enter AYOS in one of four ways. (1) The just explained method where the student come in themselves or with students already in the program. (2) A regular transfer from any high school (sometimes elementary school) (The Elementary Department is housed at The Red Shield Center located at Albina and Shaver. The Elementary Department can accommodate 12 students. Students are usually referred here to increase their education skills or because they have a behavioral problem and need assistance in understanding the structure of the school system they are in and the underlying reason for these problems. Mrs. Lillian Cooney is the Head Teacher and Judy Bird, teacher. (3) Street workers recruit from street corners, pool halls, etc. (4) A transfer from detention homes.

AYOS has had numerous locations during the past years of operation ranging from an old store front and an old house on Williams Avenue to their new location on Mississippi. The Director and Staff are very proud of their facilities for to them they reflect the respect that they have for their young people participating in the program.

The school is definitely a place for the students. One can easily sense this as one enters the premises of AYOS. It appears that priority is given to the students and this reflects the philosophy of the staff.

The AYOS is doing a dynamic job with youth in the City of Portland. So to Rance Spruill and his staff more power to you and RIGHT ON!

Emanuel holds reunion

Graduates of the Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing, Portland, Ore., are returning to their Alma Mater on Saturday, October 21, for an alumni reunion.

All former graduates of the school have been invited to attend the event, which comes during the celebration of the hospital's 60th Anniversary Year.

Included in the day's activities will be an open house from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; a luncheon scheduled for 12 noon, and an evening banquet at the Portland Sheraton Motel and Motor Inn, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

One of two remaining hospital school's of nursing in Oregon, Emanuel has graduated more than 2000 men and women in the past 58 years.

Graduates of the Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing who have not received information and registration forms for the reunion should contact Miss Esther Jacobson, Nursing Coordinator, Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing, 2808 N. Gantenbein Ave., Portland, Ore., 97227.
