

GOVERNOR TOM McCALL addresses the joint legislature on the occasion of the opening ceremonies for the 1973 session. The Governor's address emphasized for reform and advocated an effort to enhance Oregon's "livability".

BILL McCoy takes the oath of office to become Oregon's first black legislator. Seated at the left is Mrs. Phyllis Smith, McCoy's secretary, and standing are Representatives Pat Whiting and Bob Elliott.

feel obligated to advise the Children's Services Division that the following action will be taken:

1. Immediate injunctive relief will be sought on the basis that no bonafide emergency exists.
2. No provider agency will contract in excess of the 120-day period specified by ORS 183.335 (2).
3. This organization will seek the early and full investigation of this issue by the legislature.

It is the desire of "The Day Care Providers" to cooperate with Children's Services Division and, with that commitment, they are providing alternative proposals. The organization urges reconsideration of this position and that public hearings be held in the immediate future.

Room. At this session Rev. Booker will assist the pastors in developing their resources of pastoral counseling for effective personal and parish ministry. All ministers in the Albina area are invited to attend this program, in addition to the Friday workshop.

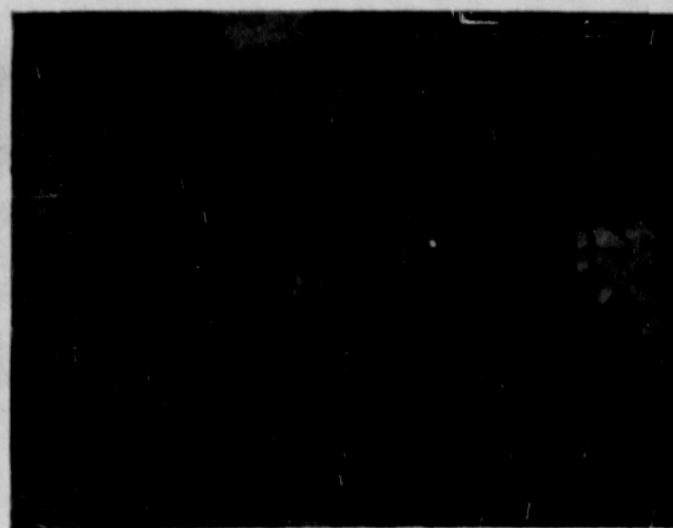

The third event of the weekend is a Rally Service scheduled for Sunday, January 21, 1973, 3:30 p.m. at the Vancouver Avenue First Baptist Church, 3128 N. Vancouver Ave., Rev. O.B. Williams, pastor. This Rally Service is being held by the AMA to express the resources and the enthusiasm of the congregations for spiritual and social healing, strengthening one another for the work of social progress in the name of Christ.

Featured speaker for the Rally Service is Rev. S.M. Lockridge, pastor of the Greater Calvary Baptist Church, San Diego, California. He is also President of the California Baptist State Convention, and Statistician of the National Baptist Convention of America.

The Rally Service will have choir selections, reporting about AMA programs and services, and a chance to see how the churches may apply their strengths toward renewal of both persons and community. All congregations of Portland are invited to send representatives to show their concern for the whole community in application of religious truths to social and human needs. This is a way that people can obey the teaching of Christ in aiding persons to fulfill their lives and to serve one another, in use of love for healing relationships.

SENATOR JASON BOB, President of the Oregon Senate, and Representative Richard Eymann, Speaker of the House, prepare to lead Oregon's first Democrat controlled legislature in ten years.

REPRESENTATIVE STEPHEN KAFOURY and his wife, Gretchen following the opening ceremonies.
