Dunbar seeks graduates

The Detroit Chapter of the National Dunbar High School Alumni of Little Rock, Arkansas, is sponsoring a reunion of all the graduation classes to be held in Detroit, Michigan, August 2-5, 1973. The site of this gala occasion will be the Howard Johnson Motor Lodge at West Grand Boulevard and Third Avenue. The extravaganza is given in honor and tribute to the school (Dunbar High) that was closed by the governor of Arkansas during the fight for integration. Dunbar High has to its credit more than 15,000 graduates over the years and we are expecting all of these, worldwide, to gather in Detroit for the event August 2-5, 1973. We are very proud of our school and we will be very proud to see you, its graduates, there. Don Walters is Chairman of the Detroit Chapter of Dunbar High School Alumni, and Ronnie E. Robinson is Publication Chairman. For further information about this coming event, write or contact: Ronnie E. Robinson, 2999 Calvert, Detroit, Michigan 48206, or call 1-313-867-0559.

An evening of dance, music and puppetry will be presented at the Jewish Community Center on Saturday, May 26. The performing groups, Early Music Calliope, the Portland Dance Theater, will take the occasion to announce the formation of Oregon Performers Alliance, a new association of performing artists in Portland.

Performances will be continuous from 7:30 p.m., with Renaissance and Baroque music for the lute and harpsichord by the Calliope, puppetry performances by the Williamses, and a variety of dance pieces, including a Gym Event, by the Dance Theater. Admission will be $3.00 for adults, $1.50 for students and children.

Seattle has been selected as one of our cities, outside of the State of Alaska, to hold public hearings on use of 80 million acres of public lands in Alaska, which the Secretary of the Interior withdrew in 1972 as "national interest lands".

The Joint Federal-State Land Use Planning Commission for Alaska invites public participation at the two-day public hearing which will be held at the Eames Theater, Pacific Science Center, Seattle, Washington, on May 25-26. The session will begin at 10 a.m. on the first day, and at 8 a.m. on May 26.

Those persons or organizations interested in participating in the hearing should write or call the Northwest Federal Regional Council Office, Arcade Plaza Building, 1321 Second Avenue, Seattle, Washington, or phone (206) 442-1593.

United Medical Laboratories announces a professional open house at its Portland facility, 6060 N.E. 112th, Sunday, May 20, 1973, from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Physicians, laboratory directors and other specialists in medicine will receive personal invitations to be guests of the company at seminars, tours and a buffet luncheon on that day.

United Medical Laboratories, the 20-year old mail-order clinical diagnostic facility, was acquired in October of 1972 by International Chemical and Nuclear Corporation, a California-based firm.

UML serves physicians throughout the world. The open house is being held to introduce UML to those who live and work in its immediate locale.

The nine graduates of Long Creek high school in Grant County will hear Senator Mark Hatfield speak at graduation exercises Sunday, May 20 at 2 p.m. Long Creek is located 30 miles north of John Day and has 60 students enrolled in the seventh through twelfth grades.

This will be Hatfield's second graduation address in this community of 190 residents. As Governor he spoke at the school's 1966 commencement.

Health careers educators throughout Oregon and Southern Washington will meet on the University of Oregon Medical School campus Friday, May 18, as part of a continuing program to determine the most effective methods of meeting the needs of minority students in nursing.

Sponsored by the University of Oregon School of Nursing and the nursing departments of Chemeketa and Portland community colleges, the day-long workshop is designed to assist faculty members in recognizing those factors and attitudes which may inhibit or promote learning by minority students.
