Berean holds revival

Berean Baptist Church invites all friends to its fall Missions Conference, November 9th, 10th and 11th at the church, 4822 N. Vancouver Avenue. Reverend Willie O. Peterson is Pastor. On Friday evening at 7:30 an Evening Message will be delivered by Reverend Joseph Jeter, the founder of "Have Christ Will Travel Ministries, Inc." He works with the Missionaries in the field, Mission Boards and Churches; trains and places young people on foreign field; conducts evangelistic services and helps secure support for Missionaries.

On Saturday at 7:30 p.m. Reverend Charles Williams, the director of the NNEA of Portland and International Evangelist, will bring the message. Reverend Williams is the speaker on the "Redemption Hour", which is heard locally on KPQQ AM-FM, as well as on an increasing number of the nation's powerful stations and some outside the United States. He will discuss the opportunities and potential for Black Christians in radio and television.

A special time for dialogue between young people and missionaries is planned. On Saturday night at 6:00 p.m. there will be a Mission Conference Fair which will consist of an exhibit from each class.

St. Mark Church lays corner stone

DR. M.L. PASKELL

The St. Mark Baptist Church, 103 N.E. Morris Street, of the City of Portland, will celebrate its Cornerstone Laying with the following churches participating and sharing in this historical event: Providence Baptist Church, Paradise Baptist Church, New Hope Baptist Church, and others.

The Dedicatory Message will be delivered by the eminent Dr. M.L. Paskell, the Illustrious Pastor of the Greater Faith Baptist Church, Stockton, California. Dr. Paskell's subject will be "The Talking Stones"

Reverend E.C. Wilder, minister of St. Mark's Baptist Church, cordially invites the public to attend this service.

Rozell Gilmore leads AMA

Reverend Rozell Gilmore, who recently completed a year of Clinical Pastoral training at Emanuel Hospital, has accepted the position of Program Director for the Albina Ministerial Alliance (AMA). His responsibilities include the administration, interpretation and coordination of the AMA programs and goals as they relate to churches in Albina, as well as to church organizations and individuals throughout the greater Portland area.

Reverend Gilmore brings to this new position a variety of experiences. Since graduating from Cascade College in 1963 with a degree in religion, he has worked as a Juvenile Group Worker for the Multnomah County Juvenile Court, and was a guidance counselor at the Timberlake Job Corps Center in Estacada. During employment with the Albina Citizens War on Poverty Committee, he advanced from the position of Vocational Counselor to Director of Job Counseling and Placement, and then became Executive Director of the Albina Neighborhood Service Center. He resigned to become full-time pastor of the Berean Baptist Church.

Reverend Gilmore served as pastor of the Berean Baptist Church from 1966 to 1972. During his pastorate he led the congregation in erecting a new sanctuary which included a Child Care Center. The center has extensions at United Methodist Church and at Woodlawn United Methodist Church.

He played a major role in the beginning stages of the Model Cities Program, in the establishment of the Citizens Planning Board, and served as a member of the temporary Planning Board. In addition to his position as program director, Reverend Gilmore serves on the faculty of the Concordia Junior College as Ministry Coordinator. He is chairman of the Credit Committee of the NAACP Credit Union; president of the OUTREACH Evangelist Association, which sponsors a drop-in center called "The Door" for offenders, and is a chaplain in the Civil Air Patrol, Beaverton Squadron.

"My work with the Concordia College, located at N.E. 29th and Holman, will help greatly in the realization of the AMA programs. Since Concordia is a Christian-orientated college, it offers an ideal setting to promote a continuing educational program for our ministers and church workers as well as a junior college education for high school graduates who want a competent background for teaching, business, social service and other professions," he said.

"I am planning a personal visitation program with many of our local church groups to inform them of the AMA and Concordia programs. Also, I would encourage interested persons to call if they think AMA or Concordia can be of help to them, or if they would like to help either of these organizations."

Poems and Pieces

Modern dance and modern poetry will join together for four unusual evenings of entertainment in "Poems & Pieces" at the YWCA Wilson Center, 1111 S.W. 10th, at 8 p.m. on November 9, 10, 16 and 17.

"Poems & Pieces" will feature the Reed College Dance Ensemble and poems by more than 20 contemporary poets, mostly from the Northwest area. The 12 dancers will give modern dance interpretations of the poems, while some of the dancers speak the words of the poems.

Judith Masee, head of the Reed College Dance Department, is director of the program and Vi Gale, a Portland poet, is coordinator.

Admission will be charged. Tickets are available at the downtown YWCA.
