Things are happening in Albina and too many of these things are unwholesome and unhealthy.

First of all, prostitution has become an accepted way of life in Albina, in deed if not in word. Young women who could be training for a professional career or a skill job are being influenced into a life of prostitution, drugs and other illegal activities.

Next, drugs are fastly, if not already, becoming a way of life in Albina. A visit to the state hospitals, correctional institutions and county correction institutions will confirm this fact.

Another ill of Albina is the Isaac Hayes - 'Black Moses', Shaft and Super Fly influence. Too many of our young males and females see these "actors" as the heroes of the new Black generation. All of us can understand that each generation of youth goes through a state of hero worship, but these kinds of heroes should be of great corn to the Christian church. Is this the kind of leadership we desire for our coming generation? Is this the kind of life style we want for our children and grandchildren? What is this new influence saying to us who claim to be men of God?

We also are faced with an increase of violent crime of all kinds in Albina. The recent wave of murders that is taking place on women in the area is a typical example.

In the field of education we are aware of the fact that too many of our children are not motivated to learn the lessons necessary for a successful experience in school, or a successful future as an adult. We have shifted the blame to the teachers, the establishment, racism and you name it. But we must be willing to face the fact that there are too many parents in Albina who are not doing anything to motivate their children toward education. To the contrary, many parents are helping create climates which prevent their children from learning or wanting to learn.

The question again is, "What can the church do to bring about a desire on the part of these homes to motivate their youth toward education?"

At this point you might be wondering why all the negative talk about Albina? Isn't this the kind of message we have heard for years gone by? Isn't this the kind of thing we are trying to eliminate? I can agree that this has been a negative approach, but it is for a reason.

I can also agree that there are many good things to be said about Albina. We have witnessed better opportunities developed for our people over the last decade. We see a larger percentage of our youth attending college and entering professional life where it counts. We see young couples trying to raise their families so Albina and the world can be proud of them.

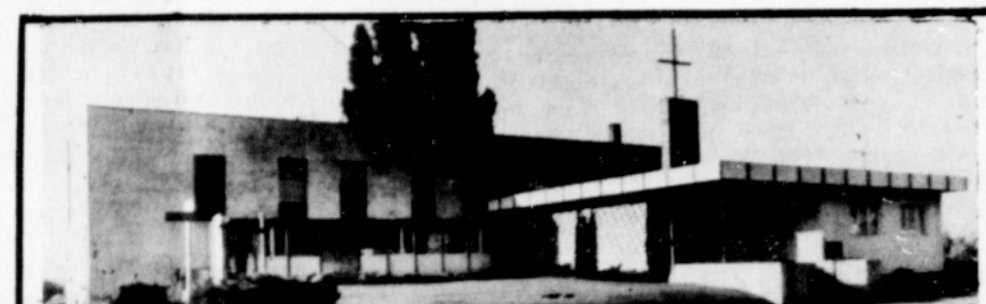

With all this progress however, we still have a long way to go. Especially is this so in the area of spiritual and moral values. I believe Albina is at the crossroad, and the way we will go in the future will depend to a large extent on what the Christian community does. We can sit by and see this community become a south side Chicago, or we can take on the responsibility of leadership and make Albina a place where anyone will be proud to live and raise a family.

INTRODUCING NEWS IN THE MOTHER TONGUE

For Black people, the mother tongue is the same all over the country. It's the unique way we have of expressing ourselves. That's one of the reasons the National Black Network saw the need for a national Black news service.

What do we call Black news? It's simply news reported by Black people, edited by Black people, and affecting the lives of Black people.

That's the National Black Network—a vital communications link between Black communities everywhere.

It's a bet that when you listen to an NBN station, you'll know where it's coming from. After all, it's carrying your news.
