

"Do The Elves Help You Really?"

Dear Santa Clause,
Why do you come down the chimney? Well let's get on with it. I wonder how raindeer fly? I hope you always get the fuge that we put out for you. I've been pritty good this year and I want my share of toys. I saw you at Lloyd Center did you watch me all the time? I hope so. Christmas is my favorit holoday because well it just is. I hope you can make it to whare the poor people are this year, and I hope everyone has been a good this year. Well good bye, hope I can see you next year.

Dear Mother,
I am writing you a letter to tell you what I want for Christmas. I am only naming three things because of what you said. I want a teaset, a baby doll because I don't have any that are the right size to play house with. And last of all I want a dieiry to put all of my secret thoughts in. I know Yvette's birthday is a few days away. But I dont have anything to get her. So I am giving her birthday present for Christmas so she won't be disappointed. One of the songs I'm going to teach the children when we sing Christmas carols is away ina manger no crib for a bed the little lord Jesus lay down his sweet head, etc., etc., etc.

sweet head, etc., etc., etc.
