ADD A SPECIAL TOUCH OF CARING

Whether it's a neighborhood gathering, a social event or a club meeting, homemade yeast breads — hot out of the oven — add a special touch of caring. And there's nothing that says "welcome" better.

The basic dough in sweet yeast breads from every country is much the same. The difference is in the shaping, the spices and extra ingredients. Most traditional sweet breads are rich in eggs. And some of the breads, especially those of Hungarian and Bohemian origin, are made with sour cream to make an even richer dough.

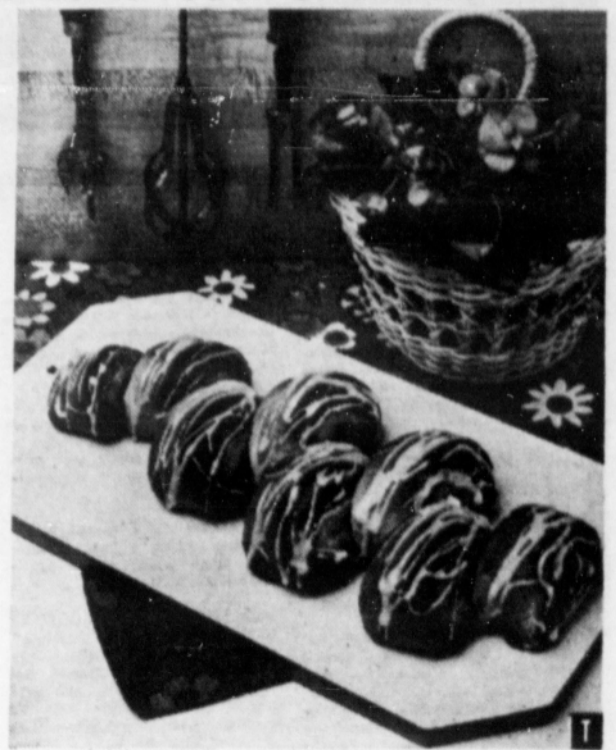

The recipe for this Old Country Coffee Roll was developed by the Test Kitchens of Fleischmann's Yeast. Extra rich with sour cream it produces a flaky, very tender coffee cake. This plus a traditional sweet pecan filling and elegant appearance make it excellent company fare.

The dough is prepared by the conventional method — that is the yeast is dissolved in warm liquid before it's added to the rest of the ingredients.

After it's mixed the dough is chilled two hours or up to five days. This means you can start well ahead of your meeting day. Then shape and bake the coffee roll just before guests arrive so you can serve it fresh from the oven.

Old Country Coffee Roll

- 1 cup dairy sour cream
- 2 tbsp. boiling water
- 2 packages Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast
- 1 cup (2 sticks) softened Fleischmann's Margarine
- 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 cups unsifted flour
- 1/2 cups sugar
- 1 tbsp. grated lemon peel
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 6 egg yolks (at room temperature)

Combine sour cream and boiling water; mix well. Stir in undissolved active dry yeast. Let stand 3 minutes. Stir until yeast is completely dissolved; set aside.

Place softened margarine, 1 cup flour, sugar, lemon peel and salt in a large bowl. Add sour cream mixture and beat 1 minute at low speed of electric mixer, scraping bowl occasionally. Add egg yolks and 1/2 cup flour; beat at medium speed 1 minute, scraping bowl occasionally. Stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board; knead 8 to 10 minutes. (Dough will not be smooth.) Divide dough in half. Wrap in waxed paper. Chill at least 2 hours or up to 5 days.

When ready to shape, prepare Pecan Filling.

Roll each piece of dough into a 15 x 10-inch rectangle. Spread each with half the filling. Roll each up, as for jelly roll. Pinch seams to seal. Place on greased baking sheets, seam sides down. Make cuts from top at 1 1/2-inch intervals, not quite through to bottom of dough, turn pieces to alternating sides.

Bake at 375°F. 25 minutes, or until golden brown. Remove from baking sheets; cool on wire racks. If desired, frost with confectioners' sugar frosting. Makes 2 cakes.

Pecan Filling: Melt 1/2 cup (1 stick) Fleischmann's Margarine over low heat. Stir in 1/4 cup sugar and 2 tablespoons vanilla extract. Add 3 1/2 cups ground pecans; blend well.
